

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Parishes and Missions of the Diocese of Western New York

In Respect to their Organization and Relationship to the Diocesan Council

(The following list of parishes and missions, with the dates of organization and admission into union with the Council of the Diocese, is based upon a list published in the Journal of 1865 by the Secretary of that year, and upon records examined by the present Secretary in the Journals of succeeding years. It is here set forth after most careful search of the pages of the Journals, and with the request that where information is lacking, or the lists are at fault, the clergy and laymen of the Diocese will assist in making the lists complete and correct.

Perhaps it will not be amiss to quote in this place from a note at the head of the lists of 1865, written by the Secretary of that time. "The dates of incorporation and admission of the older Parishes in the following list, though sought out with great care, are quite imperfect. No record is found in the Journals of the admission of.....St. Mark's, Le Roy; St. Luke's, Rochester; Zion, Avon; (the three last organized in 1817, and admitted, probably, in 1818), nor even of Grace, Lyons, reorganized in 1838." The request was then made, as it is now, that "Corrections and additions which may be obtained from Parish Records" be forwarded to the Secretary, to aid in preparing more perfect lists for future Journals.)

And each such church may send additional Lay Delegates in such proportion to the number of its communicants reported to the Council next preceding, as the Council may from time to time by canon prescribe; but no Lay Delegate (etc. as it stands).

Resolved, That Title IX, Section 1, of the Constitution be amended by striking out all that follows immediately after the words "entitled to a vote," and inserting therein the words, "and each Lay Delegate shall be entitled to one vote."

The Secretary presented the reports of the Standing Committee, Board of Education, Diocesan Missions, Trustees of De Veaux College, Treasurer of the Diocese, Trustees of the Parochial Fund, Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, Trustees of the Christmas Fund, Sunday School Commission, Sustentation Committee, and Sunday School Commission, and, on motion, they were referred to their respective committees.

A motion requesting the Committee on Missions to append to its report annually a list of parishes which have met their apportionment was laid on the table.

A motion of Mr. Lewis Stockton, requesting the clergy to report such activities of the laity of their respective congregations as may be specially commended and to append it to their parochial reports for printing in the Journal, was lost.

The Rev. C. J. Davis presented the following report which, on motion, was received and placed on file:

The Standing Committee on Missions of the Diocese of Western New York, present to the Diocesan Council of 1914 the following report:

The whole Committee has held two meetings during the past year, on November 5th, 1913, and April 1st, 1914, respectively. At both meetings there were present, besides the Bishop, five members. At the former meeting the announcement was made that the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese has contributed towards last year's apportionment the sum of $2,518.00. Suitable resolutions of thanks were adopted and the Secretary was instructed to transmit these to the President of the Auxiliary with a request for the same cooperation this year. At this meeting the Diocesan apportionment for the year was announced as $26,026.00, and a sub-committee was asked to apportion the sum to the parishes according to a sliding scale as in former years.

At the second meeting of the Committee the sub-committee reported that the apportionment had been made and only three parishes had objected to the amounts asked of them. In view of the extraordinary need of the Board for funds, members of the Committee were asked to write the rectors of parishes assigned to them urging a special effort this year to meet the apportionment.

The reports from the Board show that the Diocese as a whole is progressing in its gifts towards the full apportionment. We have done better this year than we did last. It seems quite within the realm of the possible that the Diocese may occupy a place on the Honor Roll. It is evident from the reports of the parishes to the members of the Committee that the Duplex

System of offerings is responsible for this improvement. In every case where it has been introduced by a canvass it has increased the offerings. The Committee wishes to urge again most earnestly that parishes which have not tried this plan to do so during the coming year.

CAMERON J. DAVIS, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ashton, the following was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Council proceed to elect four Clerical and four Lay Delegates to represent it in the Primary Synod of the Second Province, in accordance with, and after the manner of, electing Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

On motion, the following resolutions, presented by the Special Committee authorized for the purpose, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the following canon be adopted, to be designated Canon Four of Title First, to follow the present Canon Three of Title First, and that the subsequent Canons be renumbered accordingly:

TITLE FIRST. CANON FOUR.

L. O'Brian, J. K. Walker, H. A. Bull, E. H. Boynton, M. D. Mann, M. D., H. Sibley, H. H. Glosser, M. D.

The Rev. Dr. North, Messrs. Lewis Stockton, E. C. Denton, J. L. Humphrey, and the Chancellor declined nomination.

Judge McLouth presented the following memorial which, on motion, was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

A familiar figure in more than forty consecutive Councils of the Diocese of Western New York is, for the first time, missing in the Council of 1914.

Mr. William W. Killip, of St. Michael's Church, Geneseo, who has always been seen and often heard, is absent.

His death occurred on the 20th day of December, 1913, at the age of eighty-seven years. Born on the Isle of Man, he became in his youth an American citizen.

Long time a holder of public office, interested in every civic occasion, devoted to his church, for more than two score years its organist and choir leader, in every place fastidious, urbane, positive, honorable, upright, industrious, his passing deserves the recognition of this Council and the Journal.

Judge McLouth presented a statement relative to the history, management, and condition of the Thomas Clark Fund, which, on motion, was accepted with approval.

On motion of the Rev. C. J. Davis, it was Resolved, That a Special Committee consisting of two members of the Committee on Constitution and Canons to be appointed by the Chairman of that Committee, and two members of the Standing Committee to be appointed by the President of the Standing Committee, be and hereby is directed to bring before this Council such amendments to the Canons of the Diocese as will separate the personnel of the Financial and Educational Boards from that of the Standing Committee, and from each other; that will consolidate in duties and personnel the Sunday School Commission and the Education Board of the Diocese; and that will provide that all financial reports be referred to the Financial Board and be approved by them.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ashton the Finance Committee was instructed to report on the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund tomorrow.

On motion, the Council took a recess until 7:30 this evening.

Tuesday, 7:30 P. M.

Attest:

G. SHERMAN BURROWS,
Secretary.

CHARLES H. SMITH,
Assistant Secretary.

The following reports were received after the close of the Council:

To the Seventy-seventh Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York:

Having examined the report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, we find it to be correct and explicit in its statement of the various items composing the fund.

As the securities were passed upon last year by an auditing company and the securities reported first class, in our opinion the fund is well invested and in good condition.

T. G. MOULSON,
ROY C. KATES.

Lockport, May 20, 1914.

The Committee on Finance was instructed by the Council to bring in a report and have it printed in the Journal.

The Committee reports (1) upon the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese which they have examined and have found to be correct. They would call the attention of the Diocese to the fact that the Assessment for the Sustentation Fund amounted to $2,094.95 and only $1,307.80 was paid into the treasury; that the Assessments for the Support of the Episcopate amounted to $4,188.46 and only $3,544.83 was paid to the treasurer; that the Assessments for Diocesan Expenses amounted to $5,244.98 and only $4,318.10 was paid to the treasurer. The Parishes ought to meet their obligations to the Diocese, and could not the treasurer urge them by more frequent appeals to both rectors and vestries to pay in full their quota to these funds.

The Committee reports (2) upon the Report of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund which they have examined and have found to be correct. This fund has increased since the Report of May 1, 1910, from $183,504.42 to $190,572.58 and the income from $8,336.66 to $10,578.25. We believe that all funds of this character should be audited by a reliable Auditing Company at least every five years, and we recommend that the Parochial Fund be so audited.

The Committee reports (3) upon the Report of the Trustees of Christmas Fund which they have examined and have found to be correct. The Report of May 1, 1911, shows 79 parishes and missions contributing $1,736.43; the Report of May 1, 1914, shows 65 parishes and missions contributing $1,490.40—a falling off of 14 parishes and missions and a decrease of $246.03. This is to the shame of the Diocese. These same reports show that the Fund has increased from $32,459.87 to $33,773.43. Of this amount $17,750.00 is invested in bonds and mortgages and $16,023.43 is on deposit in nine banks. We would suggest that if all the moneys were invested in good bonds and mortgages at 5% the income would be increased. The Report of May 1, 1911, shows interest from investment $1,121.35 and that May 1, 1914, interest from investment $1,117.10—a decrease of $4.25 in interest and an increase of $1,313.56 in the interest bearing funds. The report of May 1, 1911, shows $2,962.50 paid annuitants, and the report of May 1, 1914 $2,600.00—a decrease of $362.50. We understand that the annuitants are paid from the Clark Fund, an amount much in excess of this decrease but this does not appear in the Report. We would suggest that in the report for the next Council the transactions in the invested funds be placed by themselves and the income and offerings with the disbursement of the same be made a separate account.

We recommend that this Fund be audited by a reliable Auditing Company at least every five years.

Canon Law makes it the duty of every parish to send every year an offering to this Fund. This is not left to the discretion of the clergy. The clergy should not be lawless.

APPENDIX I.

Bishop's Annual Address

Reverend Brethren and Brethren of the Laity:

With all affection and welcome I greet you at this annual gathering for our conference and labor in the interest of the Church of our love and the Kingdom of our God.

We are at the vestibule of the Ascension glow as the Master goes forth and up to the Father, and the white light of that other splendor through the Pentecost gifts is near its dawn. The new foliage and the fresh blossom of the springtide sparkle before our eyes and in the gladness of the opening season our hearts may well stir to larger sympathy and the wider service.

The conditions, concern and sorrow, however, blend with the spirit of cheer and gladness. The bitterness and the blood of industrial tumult and the terrors and tragedy of war, and the rancor and wrath of class conflicts blur and darken the fair sky of human brotherhood and international fellowship. It is indeed unrest everywhere, in all conditions of men—in church and nation and family. And I group in this statement the last of these institutions of God's creation, because of the prodigious increase of that hideous scourge of society—Divorce.

Of course, at all ages of the world, men have been suffering and sinning and the ideal and the Utopia has been ever unreached, and advance has been slow, and hearts have been selfish, and the tyrant's hand has scourged and human freedom has been trampled under the feet of power and gold.

Such—the weaknesses and the wrong of men—call often, as in centuries gone, for the Christian's pleading prayer and the Christian's helping hand.

Nevertheless, we will find rejoicing for the Church's onward stride, guiding governments and people to richer patience and gentler discipline and humaner law. We will be happy in the thought that the Church of Jesus is softening legislation, relaxing the heavy bars of the prison house and in a degree soothing the heart of the condemned, with its story of help and sympathetic care. And so our philosophy of life and the world, will not gaze cheerlessly out from the Cathedral door at a clouded sky, but will find beauty as it looks forth through the stained window with its wealth of color—the ruby, and the emerald and the gold—telling of brightness and hope for bruised, or even tainted souls.

So let us do our work in confidence, knowing that the Saviour loves His Church and abideth therein forever.

Necrology

The House of Bishops and four Dioceses have been called to mourn more than the usual number of Fathers in God, who have gone forth from leadership in the Master's Kingdom to places at His side in the Kingdom beyond.

These, my Rt. Rev. brethren and friends, are: two hundred thirty-seventh Bishop receiving consecration in and for this American Church and the second Missionary Diocesan for Nevada. His was a brief Episcopate. Consecrated in the year 1908 he passed to his rest last year. The field was a difficult and heart-breaking one, as I think. Mines which had called in the population had largely failed of production and the people passed out in a long procession thereafter to lands and fields of labor beyond. He stood bravely at the helm, through ebbing seas and a hopeless headway for the ark of Christ's Church. Depopulated villages and towns, deserted homes, closed churches, a departing people—these were the bald, grim features of the field which met his eyes as he entered on the threshold of his Episcopate. But nothing daunted, though often almost in despair, he pressed forward, and had some victory. At last, perhaps through the high altitude of the Nevada mountains, disease came, and God called his good laborer from the vineyard home.

I. Rt. Rev. Henry Douglas Robinson, D. D., the

II. Rt. Rev. John Scarborough, D. D., the one hundred eleventh Bishop in the American Church and the fourth in the Diocese of New Jersey.

He died in the fullness of years, having reached upwards of fourscore. He was a gentle, genial Godly prelate—a friend who was true, a man who was truly a man—as I fully learned in long years of warm, trusting intimacy. All knew him—who had honest hearts—but to love him. He was linked to this Diocese by a solemn relationship. As chairman of the Court of Review that made decision regarding the action of our own Court, in the trial of Dr. Crapsey, he had especial interest in Western New York. He showed the judicial mind and an anxious fairness in his study of the whole case. It was distasteful to him, beyond measure, that duty compelled him to have ought to do with so grave a concern as the renunciation or surrender of his priesthood, by any who had served at God's altars. His heart was sick. So was mine, in those days, when, as his Father-in-God, and his long-time friend, I besought again and again my troubled brother to pause before going forth from among us.

In the administration of his diocese Bishop Scarborough was careful and patient and generous, and loyal to Christ. Kind was he in spirit, but firm in the maintenance of the Church's order and obligation and demanding as to the holding of the faith by his Reverend brethren. To him this branch of the Saviour's household was the representative of Divine truth and the dispenser of Heaven's own blessings—pardon and grace. Compromise with, affiliation to, ecclesiastical surrender for, those who had broken the unity of the Redeemer's Body he could give no heart to. It was to him a grievous sin. It was the rending of the seamless robe of Jesus. How could a son palliate such a dishonor to the Father's name and love?

The sentimental alliances with the alien or with the subject of another antagonistic allegiance, Protestant or Roman, appealed not to his brain nor his heart. The complex experiences of a lifetime with religious compromises—in those eighty-three years—taught him the futility of the visions and plans and affiliations of this modern day by some Churchmen. He acknowledged no lack of charity in setting forth unmitigatedly his claim for this Church's authority and for its purity of doctrine and practice, as given and commanded in its official standards. The proposals of some of our clergy of the day, and worse still, their action, in connection with a so-called and a hazy and compromising union, he flung out as unreal and false. There are truces that are dishonest and there are surrenders that are disloyalty. His claim was that he was the Church's officer, and to lead his command into the ambush or the citadel where the hand was raised in any sort against his fold and his flag and theirs, was treason. His counsel was "Hear the Church" and his solemn injunction was ever "go not after strange gods."

I have endeavored in faint degree to picture the man—loyal to the Truth, to the Word, to the Church—and so to our Divine Master Christ. No mere formal believer, no institutional automaton, no unroused mediaevalist, no dry Churchman. But a cheerful man, a joyous Christian, an intelligent professor of religion, a robust representative of a human piety, of sense and ecclesiastical honor, of sincerity of living, of gentle tolerance, of firm adherence to vows, of unshaken piety, of a Churchman's zeal, devotion, integrity, honor, loyalty and truth.

So his photograph stands indellible in my memory. A godly, gracious, grand Bishop. He is truly a loss to the world and the Church.

III. Rt. Rev. William Woodruff Niles, D. D., second Bishop of New Hampshire and ninety-sixth in this American Church.

He was a man of large learning, who passed from an academic chair to the throne of the Episcopate. In that sacred and exalted office, he served a small and difficult Diocese, with an earnest and unending devotion.

He was loved and honored by his classes in their undergraduate days, and had for young men a hearty interest and sympathy. As the preacher, in his palmy days, he was always pleasing and fluent and instructive. He was the wise and learned teacher in the pulpit, not a mere wordy essayist. He was pre-eminently a Theologian; not merely scientifically so, but abundantly practical and even poetical and picturesque. There is theory in this modern time that dogma is impertinence; that a creed is a fossilized fiction, or an empty formula; that to preach on doctrine is to unrealize the need of this humming, electric century. Mars Hill audiences and the Areopagite temper reigns among the would-be wise of our age. Social service is ideal religion and money given for missions is the open sesame to salvation and a blinding force on the eyes of the Judge of all the earth. Emotion and devotion are past ceremonies of a defunct age. The bustle of "doing something" is the vociferous demand of the missionary harangue, the revival expert, or the Board secretary. That means self-congratulating humanitarianism—sometimes a modern subtle Pharisaism. We need more humility in our modern Christianity, more keen sense of our sole dependence on our royal, human, divine Master. The cross is not only the emblem of salvation, but the sole means of that salvation. Our beneficent deeds or our rich sacrifices are not the passports to Paradise. Social service is not the sole factor in godly piety. Our brotherly pitifulness for the heathen or our next door needing neighbor is not all, is not the dominant element in a genuine religion. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Worship Him; honor Him; love Him; give life for Him, if you desire to be saved.

"Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee,
O, God, be merciful to me."

Such teaching it was that characterized the earnest utterances of my Rt. Rev. Brother of New Hampshire.

The Church he loved and pleaded for, and gave allegiance to, and honorably and sacrificingly served with an untiring will and work. Combinations and affiliations and federations of competing and jealous and antagonistic organizations bearing the name of churches born within a quadre centennium of years, had no charm for him. To him there was a Church, one not many, not multiplied fragments—undivided—not varied, Apostolic, Catholic, unified, sanctified. This Church was to his mind and heart that Church.

Bishop Niles labored beyond the four-score years and passed to Paradise a man of God filled with the Holy Ghost.

IV. Rt. Rev. Charles Clifton Pennick, D. D., third Missionary Bishop of Cape Palmas and the one hundred seventeenth by consecration in the American Church.

Fervent Missionary enthusiasm led him to hear the call of the Church and go, with self-consecration of a singular intensity, to the unattractive field of Africa.

When he entered upon his labors the "missionary district of Cape Palmas and parts adjacent" had little to stir the zeal of a man however self-surrendering and devout he might be. There was no romance of missions in that foreign field. There was a bad climate, an ignorant, uncivilized life, the savage blood running in the veins of the converts, fiery passions dominating, thanklessness, indifference, opposition, sometimes hate. Living in early years amid the slave-holding masters of the Southland, he knew in large degree, the tone and temper of the black man and the needs and defects of so alien a race. But even to him, the African in his native haunts was problem and at times great discouragement. And so after a few years of energetic effort he came home and made place for one, other than his own race, to carry forward the work and the struggle, Thenceforward he gave himself to parochial labors among the Southern people; and in the few parishes where his pastorate was passed he gave example and leadership in the old-fashioned, evangelical, personal, religion. He spoke unflinchingly in his Master's behalf and gave the testimony heroically whenever opportunity served, whether men would hear or whether they would forbar. Sometimes, many of us, in the outer highways of life, where men are bargaining or planning or recreating, hesitate to deliver our message—waiting for the convenient season, and in some cases—many cases—that never comes. Such was not the spirit and trait of the retired Bishop of Cape Palmas in these latter days of ministry in the Southland. Sometimes men claimed that out of the excess of his enthusiasm, Bishop Penick spoke for Christ out of season. Perhaps so, perhaps not.

At any rate his eloquent and forceful pleadings for Jesus showed the fiery earnestness of an overwhelming conviction of the truth of his message and of a burning sense of responsibility for the opportunity and for the man (addressed). And so noble pleading and gracious promise was poured from consecrated lips to the soothing and serving of needing or negligent sons of men.

Finally the earnest speech was stilled and a few weeks ago, after pain and weakness, the laborer laid himself down and fell on sleep.

I have given somewhat more than the usual time to the throwing of these pictures of great lives on the screen.

The heroes and saints in the Episcopate of the earlier days of American Church life are dropping rapidly out of the ranks, and it is good to gaze for a few moments upon their vivid portraits. These octogenarians of whom I have spoken took part in Church extension and Christian enterprise that was honeycombed with anxiousness and care and personal privation and money straitness. They had upon them the scars of genuine conflict; there were the stigmata in hand and foot like their own Master, leading in a degree a martyr life in their confessions for Him. I am speaking no figures of speech, but solemn, serious truths. The early Episcopates in this land found no beds of royal ease for a scented repose, no retained Lord Bishop's palace and lot—but work, privation, anxiety, care—sometimes, often, the sharp, opposing voice of the Christian bodies of other names. This last especially was bitterness. But the King led the way and clasping His hand they walked forward in morning light or eventime shadow to the victor's tomb and the eternal rest.

One more servant of God for your thought and your reverential memory, and I close this necrological record. I would turn your eyes upon a member of our own Diocesan family who has recently in another part of the land laid his burden down. I refer to Rev. James H. Dennis, for a quarter of a century the rector of St. James' Church, Rochester.

Many gathered here today knew him not. For nearly a dozen years past, his home, until his death, was outside of the Diocese. Although in declining health, he remained to the end, pastor, priest, preacher in the Church of God. Courage and zeal stirred him to the last.

Some of my brethren present knew his record in this Diocese. He was the humble-minded presbyter here, the diligent pastor, the sympathetic man who cared for the poor, ministered to their needs, and moved the opulent to generous gifts for suffering and for want. Many in Rochester recognized in him the self-abnegating, hard-ness-enduring, saintly man. The Church has lost a rich exemplar of unselfishness, consecrated devotion, solemn and yet cheerful self-sacrifice, human pitifulness radiating out of the heart of a simple-mannered and simple-living priest of the Saviour's Church. His name and work have high place and loving honor on the record-books of the Diocese of Western New York.

Official Acts

Officially during the past year, by God's blessing, and through a good condition of health, I have been occupied with a larger variety and number of duties than in any former year of my Episcopate.

The services of morning or evening prayer at which I officiated were 161. It was my privilege, by the goodness of our Father, to deliver sermons on 115 occasions and to make 150 addresses in public. The number of Confirmations held by me was 88, in as many different places. This is a record of less than last year, resulting from epidemic in some villages and changes of rectorship in others. One thousand three hundred forty-four persons received the Laying-on-of-Hands. Some classes were larger than usual. Several were smaller than customary in certain parishes. Some of my Reverend brethren testify to a diminished interest in Church-going on the part of portions of their people. Country clubs, bicycles, automobiles, golf and tennis are the new idols at whose shrines so many are worshipping who have in the past sworn lifelong allegiance to King Jesus. It is a transferred fealty, a tender of submission to alien and inimical powers, and a partial renunciation, at least of loyalty and service to our true Sovereign. The sin has become a national one—in the Church and in other communions—and where the defection will end God only knows. He is still merciful and patient with His erring children. But may there not come a limitation-day to His tolerating love? History shows calamity, seditions, war, pestilence, at times, as the camp-followers, as the fruit of such self-alienation from God. What are these wayward, wilful youths of our time, these broken homes, these inordinately multiplying divorces, these dishonorable business relations, these class clashes, these oppressive trusts, these mighty fortunes gained by the sweat and blood of labor—what are these but the fruits and the reacting penalties that come of our Sabbath-breaking, Church-deserting, God-forsaking age. Beloved brethren, have not we a responsibility, more or less, here? Let not courage or the manliness of our office be silent. St. John the Baptist day's Collect speaks with a ringing note for such conditions. Hear its bravery—and his, "Make us to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak truth, boldly rebuke vice, and if need be—patiently suffer for the truth's sake." I presided at 67 meetings called in the interest of parishes, organizations or committees, diocesan or general.

The conferences relating to parochial questions, new enterprises, general progress and policies relating to the Church and personal and official religion at which I presided were 76 in number. Personal and group interviews, touching personal and official action by clergy and laity, reached the large total of 116. I officiated at one funeral within the twelvemonth, and dedicated a restored chapel and a chime of college bells; made addresses before half a dozen Sunday schools—which latter privilege is always enjoyment, keen and refreshing to me—issued two legal citations for grave conferences, held two hearings on ecclesiastical problems, made six rulings, officially, on matters of moment referred to me, and gave Episcopal decisions five times in the matter of as many parish differences.

I made six different official inspections of property sold or bought for the Church's interest, and gave formal consent, agreeably to the Canon, for the removal of a church site. I attended and officiated at three commencements of Church institutions of learning. I gave instruction to Postulants, six in number, on many occasions, and to people outside of our Church on the Prayer Book half a dozen different times, and made addresses before the Delancy Divinity School three times, and issued legal summonses for two formal, legal examinations. I took part in the consecration of a Bishop of the Church of God. I ordained two of our own sons—men to the manor born—during the year—to the Diaconate. It became my solemn and sad duty, during the twelvemonth, at the written request of each, to depose two Presbyters of the diocese from the Sacred Ministry.

This tale of work means great concerns to me. It touches sorrows and anxieties and differences between brethren and—sometimes—even sharp speech. These on the one hand, and on the other, sacrifice, fellowship, devotion, brotherly love, mercy, soul-surrender to the Redeemer's call, loyalty and gifts of self to God. Interests were they and deeds were they and consecrated hearts were they that summoned often to my lips, the humble petition and the glowing thanksgiving for that God had helped me through His people and my people—and that so He was their God and my God.

De Veaux College

This address would be lacking if large reference to DeVeaux College—its work, progress and satisfactory condition were not made by me. I, as the Bishop and the President of the Board of Trustees, am profoundly rejoiced and deeply thankful to Almighty God that this splendid record of three years, the period during which the pay-pupil department has been in operation, can be recited. It was no mistake that at last, in answer to my repeated appeals to this Council, you concluded to reopen those doors to the class above named. Here is the gratifying story, taken from the records of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees. During these three years, the attendance has increased from 22 to 50 boys. The latter was the average number during the last twelve-month.

Within the same period—the three last years—the endowment has developed from $231,021.93 to $251,747.03, of which $6,500.00 is the gift of old DeVeaux boys and their friends. The income has increased from about $15,000.00 to nearly $25,000.00 a year.

The value of the property has been enlarged through the rehabilitation of the gymnasium—improvements made from top to bottom, a cement floor, strengthened rafters, bars, dumbbells, etc., etc., the introduction of steam heat therein, the installation of electric light within a hundred rooms, the erection of a standpipe with nine openings; fire hose sufficient to reach every part of the building, and four new fire escapes. These latter improvements bearing upon the safety of human life within those walls, although very expensive, were no luxuries. They were commanded by the Fire Marshal, and other state authorities, and our duty was only to obey even though our exchequer was seriously diminished thereby. There is, with it all, the comforting thought that all safety appliances for guarding against fire and for the protection of human life required by law and known to experts are a part of DeVeaux's equipment. On January 1st of this year, I dedicated a fine chime of ten bells given and erected within the chapel-tower entirely at the expense of Mr. Albert Henry Lewis of Bridgeport, Conn., one of the first students of the college. Another long ago graduate of the institution, Mr. Charles Kennedy, of Buffalo, has added to his former three donations of a thousand dollars each, still another gift during the year of a similar amount, making therefore the Charles Kennedy Endowment Fund for DeVeaux College $4,000.

These evidences and expressions of gratitude for the culture and care of our Diocesan Academy cheer the hearts of those of us who, by your authority, are giving thought and labor to its welfare.

I cannot but refer, not for compliment, but as fact, to the honorable and large service bestowed by the Trustees and the Head-Master upon the management and in the interest of economy for the institution's good. Harmony governs at all times and conscientious concern for the wise care and use of funds and for the rightful nurture of the youth committed to their charge dominate all conference and all plans. I have spoken similar words regarding the administration of DeVeaux in the past from this chair, but the zeal and larger work which has come of the increased responsibility under new conditions constrains me with a warmer zeal to give this hearty testimony before this body today.

Funds

It may be interesting to my brethren to learn of funds which have been committed to me, that they may be administered by me for specified purposes.

First, a fund amounting to $4,000.00, originally bequeathed absolutely to Bishop Coxe. He placed it in the hands of a layman to invest. On my advent into the Diocese it was, in due form, transferred to me, and allowed to remain in the hands of Bishop Coxe's investor. On his death, its care passed, by my desire, to a member of the deceased's household. From him the dividend's come, and are used in the erection of new churches at times, and in confidential aid to a reverend brother now and then. I have never handled the principal.

Second, on September 10th, 1902, the executors of the estate of Rev. Francis Granger deposited in my hands $4,550.45. This sum of money constituted the residue of the reverend brother's property. It was, by the terms of the will, bequeathed to Rt. Rev. Wm D. Walker, Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York, to be used by him, "for the spread of the gospel in Western New York." That sum I deposited in a Trust Company at Rochester, immediately upon its receipt by me. There it has remained ever since, at four per cent., with its compound interest untouched until it has reached the amount of $7,206.00.

My plan has been to accumulate a total which will produce $300 annually—a condition nearly reached—and then dispense it each year for the work of Western New York.

Third. I am co-partner with three laymen of the Diocese in the administration for aged or infirm clergymen of the Clark Fund amounting to $13,500. The marvelously economical administration of this fund will surprise all.

Fourth. In the will of Mrs. Charles L. Ely, of Rochester, probated last year, is this clause: "I give and bequeath to the Bishop of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church of which Rochester shall form a part, and his successors in office, the proceeds which may arise from the sale of my house on Plymouth Avenue, Rochester, in trust, and the income derived from the fund to be set apart from such proceeds of sale to be used for the purpose of assisting the aged and infirm clergymen of said Diocese." From the executor I have received the sum of nearly $20,000 in the shape of bonds and mortgages. The results of said sale have come within a few months to me and a remnant of settlement amounting to about $1,000.-00 has been deposited by me in a Buffalo bank bearing four per cent. interest.

I have as yet disbursed none of the income, postponing the distribution until the first year shall end.

I have presented these facts to you, knowing that you would, as members of the Diocese, have interest in such material aid to its strength and usefulness.

General Convention

Memories of the General Convention's achievement, or non-achievement, rise to our thought as we cast our eyes over the Church's landscape for the year. It was an eventful and momentous session. Visions of divided camps or of a helpless shipwreck on the rocks, rose before the imagination of many of the loyal and the thoughtful. God has spared His people's heritage. Our hearts are glad and we rejoice before the Lord.

1. Change of name came not. This was a foregone conclusion to any who read "the signs of the times," before the session opened. The tidal waves of public opinion—rightly—were too strong against it. That hoary title which our fathers maintained from destruction by Roman aggression, on one side and sectarian assault on the other, had become too reverend and holy in the esteem of the sober Churchmen of our time to fling away, like a cast-off robe or a faded flower. It was inwrought too deeply with our national history and our earlier statesmen and our corporate existence as a people to be lightly rejected. And so, it is with us still, a treasured name, unstained, true to Catholic truth and Apostolic order. A victory in behalf of a new title could have been but a meagre one at most. And the consequences in defections and secessions and revolting voices of honest Churchmen, would have been dire. When the almost universal utterance of our membership calls for a "correction" of the Church's name, then it will be fitting to consider anew the grave question. A weak majority must never presume to revolutionize in the family of God. Sanctified common sense and mutual tolerance and recognition of universal rights, in the long run, can only justly win a cause. With such Christian regulation and Christian recognition the Church can have noblest prosperity and holiest life.

Religious Education

2. Religious Education was a burning question. It was recognized that the failure to weave a teaching of God—His relation to man, man's privileges from Him and man's obligations to Him therefor—into the curriculum of the school and the university, was to evolve an imperfect and a crippled manhood. Discussion showed defect—moral, intellectual and even physical—as the outcome of such incomplete training.

It was clear from the testimony of experts that the omission of this element in a man's attainments, means lopsidedness, flaccid mental muscle, proneness to prejudice and lack of intellectual poise. Attribute the absence of this or that in a man to what we please, but plain science shows a limited capacity to grasp and use highest things and functions, where the knowledge of God and the sense of God and the honor of God is not. Reverence, awe, honor, truth and the like—these are ennobling and unselfish and softening influences in a man. They come of religion—even in the cults of a part of the savage world. The French Revolution and the Paris Commune of 1870, tell of a life and people from whom religion was practically banished in education. It is an established truth that the splendid well groomed human animal, or the intellectual giant, wanting in religious emotion and principle, makes not the man of highest efficiency. I am speaking only of what I may call a secular or material side of the subject, not the Godward relation or the factor of a divine piety. The man so constituted is only a man of warped thought, of oblique vision, of narrow or diluted philosophy. The whole of human life is not in his grasp. His, I say again, is an unfinished manhood.

Hence it was that the topic of religious education came to the front in the General Convention. All earnest observers of the trend of the day in the popular impure novel, in the indecent dance, in the suggestive speech of the drawing room and the easy manners of society, realize profoundly the need of another than our Godless education, in our halls of learning.

It is unfair to place the responsibility for the many social, industrial and economic wrongs of the time, at the door of the Church—whether the claim is made of neglect, unsympathy or Pharisaism as the cause. The people—as of yore in Israel's ancient day—love to have it so. The Church would be—if we would so allow it—the mother of us all, leading into the paths of honor and integrity and peace. The sad and serious social unhappiness and unrest and unworthiness of the time, is the fruit, in large degree, of the prayerless home, and the unreligious home of learning. There the duty of reform lies. There new voices are to speak and new action installed. A changed life must control. The banner of the cross as well as the flag of the people must be unfurled at each school-house and college door. So shall the country be redeemed. So shall the righteousness that exalteth a nation, reign.

I have simply generalized on this stupendous topic. Details of action and of advance are partly in your hands and mine, reverend brethren. The pulpit and the Sunday school and the pastoral visit are the fulcrums by which we may, in some degree, in our separate spheres, labor and by God's grace, uplift.

Provinces

3. Provinces are a fact. And the ancient term Synod has entered into our terminology. Some are asking “cui bono?” I, personally, have no answer and meekly accept the inevitable. More money expended. More talk given utterance to. More absences from posts of responsibility. More projects, wise or unwise, launched. More differences among brethren. More fat salaries. More divided counsels, in the great General Church. More separations of sections of the country. Less dignity for our mother. Less honor for her fame and her good name. New ecclesiastical offices and dignitaries, moss-grown titles, distinctions and degrees. A hierarchy perhaps, Archbishops, Metropolitans, Patriarchs. One step short of Pope.

This may be a fancy picture, a pessimistic theory, a haunting nightmare of the darkness. But honestly in view of Diocesan Councils and General conventions and Lambeth conferences and Federal councils—which never meet—I fail to learn what there is for a Synod to do. It is added machinery and big name, but in view of Diocesan function and Archdeaconry enterprise and Diocesan Mission Board struggle, again, I say where is Provincial power and place and practicalness in this American Church? But we will all hope and conform and say God-speed to it if it means glory and growth and new greatness for our mother, the Church.

Christian Unity

4. Christian unity had its niche in the Convention's order. The sane and safe "Commission on faith and order" reported moderate progress and was encouraged by both houses to continue its work. But the wise man knows that the goal is very far away; that the fences to be broken down are almost insuperable, that time—long, long time—is a desirable and a dominating factor in the problem. It is a brave work, a holy work—and we will give it constant prayer and sympathy, while on its present basis of conference only.

But, another shape of the relationship of varying bodies to each other, was thrust into the Convention. It appeared first in the House of Deputies, to the consternation of many, who claim to be honest, intelligent Churchmen. It glided through that house. Let me say that fifty-one per cent. of the members of that body never had a place in its counsels before. Hence perhaps the action taken. The sober sense of experience generally, I think, was against it. At any rate it came to the Bishops. Due consideration was given it. In the course of the discussion, amazing revelations were made, which compelled the house to reject it. It was a resolution commending and giving the Church's sanction to a body bearing the name of "the Federation of the Churches of Jesus Christ." The resolution also provided for the representation of our Church, authoritatively and officially, in its executive committee, called the Federal Council thereof. Thank God, the action of the Bishops—sober and logical—forbade a serious leap in the dark and a concession and compromise, that would be self-stultifying and dishonoring to the Church. There is clearly a broad, a very antipodal difference between the aim of our Commission on Faith and Order and the "Federation of Churches." The former plans and prays for a genuine unity of all professing Christians in one great Church; the other seeks a relationship which only federates a variety of churches, having no cohesion and each maintaining its separate system, doctrine and organization. The one idea is that there ought to be only one Body of Jesus, of which all should hold membership; the other is that the Master's petition to His Father for oneness of His children, can be reached by co-operation and a law of comity governing the relations of a number of churches to each other. The conviction of the Bishops was that federation meant simply hindrance, not help, to a Christian unity; that only the Master's will is fulfilled as corporate separation is banished and as a vital unity is established as all give heart and loyalty to one great fellowship, where union is real, in the faith and worship and communion of Jesus Christ—the Body which is Himself, one and indivisible.

And so your Fathers in God said No to this nostrum for the healing of a wounded Church and a broken Christendom.

A resolution reached the House of Bishops from the other House as follows: "Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, that the Board of Missions be informed that in the judgment of the General Convention it has full authority to take such steps as it may deem wise to co-operate with other Christian Boards of Missions in this country and elsewhere, in the united effort to arouse, organize and direct the Missionary spirit and activity of Christian people, to the end that the people of this Church may be enabled to discharge their duties to support the missions of the Church at home and abroad, through prayer, work and giving; provided, that the expense incurred in such co-operative educational efforts shall not be a charge upon the funds raised through apportionment."

On thorough consideration of this proposition, the following message went from our House to the other House: "The House of Bishops informs the House of Deputies that it has not concurred with the House of Deputies in adopting the resolution contained in its message, No. 83, as to the assertion of certain powers for the Board of Missions." And so it was "consigned to the tomb of the Capulets," to have, I trust, never a resurrection until the crack of doom.

It was a proposition which changed the whole attitude of this Church from the beginning. It was a proposition which seemed to throw discredit upon the Board of Missions itself, inasmuch as it had rejected such a proposal, in a prolonged discussion, some months before. It was a proposal that, in my opinion, would have made endless confusion and heart-burning in connection with our work of this Church, in our fields, at home or abroad. One of our Missionary Bishops told me as we sat side by side, during the discussion that he was going home to find on his hands an unfortunate and unhappy tangle through action on the part of certain clergymen of the character proposed. Other statements showed the peril of such co-operation. Jealousies arise among excellent Christian men under certain conditions and religion is thereby marred and reviled. In my opinion while divided Christendom remains, separated sects are better apart—each peaceably working out its own salvation.

General Missions

At the urgent request of the President and Secretary of the Board of Missions, reaching me after the close of the council, I present to you the subject of the very serious deficit at the present time, the diminished income for the year up to this date, and the prospect of a still largely increased arrearage, at the close of the fiscal year.

I never like to exhibit the shadowed side of a good cause, if circumstances justify emphasis on the brighter phase of the matter. But when the cloud which is dark lowers so heavily upon the Church's endeavor for the extension of religion in the world, it seems fitting to face around and look squarely at the condition, though we be in the darkness of night, or at a twilight of the work. Whether this seeming chill at the heart of the Church comes from anxious concern regarding business conditions in the nation; or from differences of opinion as to the modus operandi, in general, of our missionary enterprises, or from critical comment regarding costs of administration and indefiniteness respecting official salaries so far as public knowledge goes; or from diluted interest in our own specific work through new policies which forced upon many of our people, under the guise of liberality and comity, a contact with the advocates of other religious systems through the eccentric movements of a triennium past; or whether other causes are the influence I am not able to say fully.

But the fact is before us that unless improvement in giving comes—so says a recent circular of the Board of Missions—bankruptcy confronts the Mission-work of the Church.

I am not addressing you as the critic either of your own effort, my people, or of administration at headquarters. My office, and I esteem it my high privilege and my bounden duty, is to exhort you to do even more generously for the extension of our Redeemer's Kingdom than ever before, and for the increase of the knowledge of His truth "as this Church hath received the same." I know well of generous sacrifice on the part of hundreds upon hundreds of you, in the interest of our Church's Mission-work, because she, your mother, asks your helping hand. I know, personally, hosts in this Diocese, who for the spread of the religion and the Church they love, are voluntarily enduring privations of one or another shape. God reward them for their sacrifice and labor of love for His name's sake.

Let me close by again beseeching of you a new zeal and a larger giving for His dear work who hath redeemed us with His own precious blood.

Finis

Here this address ends. Memories come to me of so many happy visitations in the parishes, of so many earnest workers; of devoted clergy and zealous laymen and lay women; of good work done; of devotion at worship; of boys and girls in Sunday schools and in Christian homes growing to man's and woman's estate in the nurture and admontion of the Lord.

And, too, there are these bright personal memories, of kind, attention, respectful courtesy, abounding hospitality and loyal friendship. They linger in thought long after the good-bye is spoken and prayers go up continually from these lips for blessings to descend on household and Church, thus giving humble and holy service to the King and Saviour of us all.

Report of the Warden

The Warden of the DeLancey Divinity School respectfully reports as to the condition of the School for the year 1913-1914:

The year closes with nine students in attendance on the Lecture Sessions and with two additional men, students of Hobart College, reading under our direction along the lines of our curriculum, but unable from their engagements at the College to attend the lectures. We are thus able, without expense to the School, to assist men in the work of the Junior year who may continue their course with us after graduation from Hobart but who will in all probability enter other theological schools. A former student of the Junior year who has been pursuing his studies at another school is now seeking re-entrance with us for the work of the Senior year. The increase in expenses is slight when the increase in the number of students and the present prices for board and lodging are taken into consideration.

Criticism has been made as to the cost to the Endowment, per capita, of the student body, but critics fail to remember that no student, whether in University, College, Theological or Professional School, receives his education for the number of dollars he may be called upon to pay in fees, where fees are demanded. Original cost and maintenance of buildings, apparatus, salaries, etc., must be taken into account.

The lectures have been held and instruction given regularly every month, from October to May, both inclusive, with the annual Examinations in June, with increasing ability and practical efficiency on the part of the lecturers and followed with faithfulness and diligence by the students with one or two exceptions.

As the date of this Report is nearly two months in advance of the annual examinations it would be premature to speak of the results of the three years' course to the men who have pursued it. We are, however, confident that the majority will sustain the examinations with credit to themselves and with honor to the School. Handicapped, as some of our students are in the toil of earning a maintenance it should not be held as against either their faithfulness or their mental ability if some have to request an extension of time, beyond the three years, in which to accomplish the required work.

Mr. Leon F. Haley from the Diocese of Central New York, who was a member of the Class that graduates this year, left us last year to accept work and to take Orders in a Western diocese. Mr. Chas. A. Dowdell has definitely withdrawn from the School.

One hundred and twenty-one volumes have been added to the Library, sixty-seven of these being text-books for the use of students and lecturers and fifty-four being gifts from individuals. These include a gift of valuable books from the library of the late Bishop DeLancey, made by his son, William H. DeLancey, Esq., which has been acknowledged, as has also a copy of "A Memoir of Bishop Hobart," given by Mr. George D. Hartley of Worcester, Mass. The School has also been made the recipient of an exceedingly fine, large, framed photograph of the late Bishop Coxe, the gift of his daughter, Mrs. Philip W. Nash.

The $50.00 granted by the Board for the purchase of books added to the unexpended balance of $67.11, making $117.11, has proved adequate to the demands made upon this fund, there being a balance now in bank of $20.56. An immediate draft will be made upon this balance, amounting to about $9.00, for text-books, ordered, but not yet received. This fact together with the present and prospective increase in the number of students compels the Warden to ask for a grant of $70.00 for the coming year.

The Bishop of the Diocese, with his accustomed regularity, has visited the lecture rooms giving words of counsel and advice to the young men in attendance.

The Warden has received since May 1st, 1913, by order from the Secretary of the Board for lectures and incidental expenses, the sum of $595.00. This sum does not include the special honorarium to the lecturers, $600.00 of which passed through the Warden's hands; the other hundred was divided between an out-going lecturer and his successor and was paid to them directly.

There remains in the hands of the Warden a balance of $15.00 of the above sum. He has also to acknowledge the receipt of $50.00 for the Book Fund as well as a special grant of $28.13 paid to W. & T. Smith for work about the Geneva property. Ten dollars and forty-five cents has been received from two former students; $5.45 being for books purchased and $5.00 a gift to the library. The Bishop of Central New York has remitted $69.15 on account of expenses incurred for a student from his diocese.

In closing this Report the Warden desires to make heartfelt acknowledgement of the encouragement and support he has received in the discharge of his duties from students, associates and the Board of Trustees, as also from many of his brethren of the diocesan clergy.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS B. BERRY,
Warden.

(C) Report of the Trustees of DeVeaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children

Niagara Falls, N. Y., January 1, 1914.

To the Bishop and to the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York:

Gentlemen:—The Trustees of DeVeaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children respectfully submit herewith their report for the year ending December 31, 1913, in compliance with the terms of the charter of the corporation.

During the year the Trustees held five meetings, with the following record of attendance:

Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D.D., President	present 2, absent 3
Gen. H. C. Hodges, Vice-President	present 2, absent 3
Rev. P. W. Mosher, Secretary	present 4, absent 1
John K. Walker	present 3, absent 2
Porter Norton	present 2, absent 3
Rev. Pierre Cushing	present 2, absent 3
Rev. Edward P. Hart	present 3, absent 2
de Lancey Rankine	present 3, absent 2
Rev. E. J. Babcock, Treasurer	present 4, absent 1

The main items of this report are two: 1, the school; 2, the books of account.

1. In the school boys only are taken.

During the year 1913 there were received on the foundation 28 boys. The average number maintained during the year was twenty-three, the greatest number in attendance at any one time was twenty-three and the least number twenty-three. The age of the youngest boy on the foundation was 11 years; that of the oldest 19 years.

During the year the total number of pay pupils received was thirty-four of whom fifteen were day pupils. The least number in attendance at any one time was sixteen and the greatest twenty-eight during the latter part of the year.

The course of study is that published in the Register and is based upon the Elementary and the Academic Syllabus of the New York State Education Department.

In the matter of accounts the annexed schedules show: a—the balance sheet; b—Interest Bearing Endowment with a list of loans paid and made during the year, Land Contracts, and the amounts of Special Endowment Funds with the investments of the same; c—Income Cash Account, Receipts and Disbursements; d—a list of bonds and mortgages of the General Fund; e—Strickland Fund; f—The Charles Kennedy Endowment Fund; g—Land Contracts; h—Guarantee Fund; i—a list of real estate owned by the Corporation.

In the audit of the books of the school it was shown that the expense incurred through the pay pupil department, which included two extra masters, food, service and proportion of general expenses, amounted to $5,212.70, and there was received a total from the pay pupils of $7,314.60, showing a total profit of $2,101.90 which amount was applied to reduce foundationer's per capita cost.

The school in 1912 ran at a loss of $209.45 and in the year 1913 the net loss was $761.10 making a loss for the two years of $970.55. This apparently large loss in running the school is accounted for by the fact that at the order of the State Fire Marshal we were obliged to spend on stand-pipe, fire escapes, hose, and fire doors during the years 1912, 1913, $872.78.

Mr. Albert Henry Lewis of Bridgeport, Conn. (DeVeaux, '57-'62), has presented the College with a chime of ten bells, made by the Meneely Bell Company of Troy, N. Y. This splendid chime was placed in the tower of Munro Hall during the latter part of December and was set apart at a service held by the Bishop of the Diocese on New Year's day, 1914.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Charles Kennedy has again added $1,000 to the "Charles Kennedy Endowment Fund." This gift came in January, 1914, and will not appear in the Treasurer's report until next year.

Through the generosity of the Old Boys' Association of DeVeaux College the electric lighting system has been extended to many parts of the building.

In accordance with the directions of the State Fire Marshal four additional fire-escapes have been placed on the outside of the building.

Respectfully submitted,

P. W. MOSHER,
Secretary.

(D) Diocesan Missions

Rev. Father in God:

Your Archdeacon respectfully presents his Eleventh Annual Report of the work performed during the past twelve months. Like other reports recurring annually it must be a record of work largely routine, much travel, frequent services, large correspondence, many things planned, and a few things accomplished: though here and there in the work of Christ and His Kingdom these are marked by some growth and advance.

My monthly reports to you as the Diocesan, my regular reports to the Missionary Board on alternate months, my annual reports to the Archdeaconry and the Council, and the report of each place of worship for the Journal show how and where my time has been spent, and how your Archdeacon has performed the duties of the office.

During the year the ministrations of the Church have been provided in thirty-seven places by the Archdeacon and Missionaries of the Board. The cost of maintaining the work of the Board has been about $4,500.00.

There are other places which may be termed parochial missions cared for by rectors of parishes who assume these extra labors for the love of the work. Five of these are in Buffalo and nine in adjoining villages.

There are in the Archdeaconry, not counting the self-supporting parishes, where the services of the Church are held each Lord's day:

Parochial Missions	14
Parishes and Missions supported in part by the Board	16
Archdeacons Missions	21

The new place entered upon during the year, or in other words an old work revived, in which we have erected a Church building is at New Town on the so-called Anti-Christian end of the Reservation. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese has each year voted a certain sum of money for aggressive work among the Indians in the Cattaraugus Reservation. The part not used has been allowed to accumulate and placed in the bank, as the "Building Fund of the Church of the Redeemer, New Town." It was thought well by the Bishop of the Diocese that the fund on hand and the condition of the work warranted the venture of faith to erect a small Church building on the lot 60x90 which was bought with the funds given by the Babies' Branch through Miss Mary Hart. A plain Gothic building 40x20 with recess chancel was erected last summer. The mason and carpenter work were done by the local Indians. The furnishings from the old St. Bartholomew Mission in this city, consisting of altar, lecturn, prayer desk, altar hangings and matting, was donated by the rector, Rev. Dr. Smith. The organ was given by the rector of St. Mark's, N. Tonawanda, Rev. G. S. Burrows. The amount thus far expended has been about $940.00. The building is not finished on the inside as yet, though it has been occupied and services have been held and it is quite comfortable.

I am glad to bear testimony to the faithful labors of the Clergy who are Missionaries of the Board.

Rev. Harry Idle, minister in charge, Bolivar and Allentown.

Rev. A. A. Murch, minister in charge, Attica, Perry and Warsaw.

Rev. J. H. Herendeen, minister in charge, Angelica and Belfast.

Rev. F. A. Ransom, minister in charge, Gowanda and Hamburg.

Rev. Jas. Livingston, minister in charge, St. Philip's, Buffalo, and Lackawanna.

Rev. J. H. Parson, minister in charge, Ellicottville and Springville.

Rev. F. C. Smielau, minister in charge, Deaf Mute work.

Rev. J. L. Short, minister in charge, Youngstown and Lewiston.

Rev. P. B. Hoffman, minister in charge, Belmont, Belvidere and Friendship.

The Archdeacon, minister in charge, Indian work in Cattaraugus Reservation.

Much to the regret of those in authority, there are several vacancies in the Archdeaconry. It is hoped, however, that these places will shortly be filled. The personal work of the Archdeacon, for which he is responsible in the many missions—21 in number—and to which he ministers regularly once a month are supplied with lay service from the Missionary Layman's League of Buffalo when he is unable to be present. More than a score of these men are engaged in reading the services of the Church in the various missions and institutions of the city and vicinity.

It became my personal duty with invitation of the Bishop of the Diocese to again, for the third time, last summer assume charge of the services of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd on the Chautauqua Assembly grounds.

This is certainly a very important and strategic point for the Church, situated as it is in the great assembly grounds where there are gathered together many thousands of people from all parts of the world, many of whom are Churchmen. The following services were held by me, assisted by clergy of the Diocese, during July and August:

Sundays: Morning prayer, 9.

Sundays: Holy Communion, 15.

Saints' Days: Holy Communion, 2.

Fridays: Litany, 9.

There was the usual large attendance at each and every service.

The Parishes—Belmont, Irving, Silver Creek, Youngstown, Lewiston and Mayville.

The Missions—Angola, Belvidere, Brant and New Town (Indian), Corfu, Chautauqua, Darien Center, Depew, Forestville, Franklinville, Sinclairville, Friendship.

Stations—Alden, Hinsdale, Williamsville.

The personal report for the past twelve months of your Archdeacon of all official acts, exclusive of the Chatauqua services, is as follows:

Morning prayer, 70; 2658 attendance; 38 average.

Evening prayer, 156; 5460 attendance; 35 average.

Holy communion, 124; 2,900 attendance; 35 average.

Holy Communion, Private, 12.

Litany, 35.

Penitential office, 12.

Total, 409.

S. S. Teachers, 40; scholars, 275.

Holy baptism, infants, 26; adults, 4.

Confirmation, 3; confirmed, 10.

Marriages, 7.

Burials, 21.

Sermons and address, 350.

Meetings in interests of the work, 40.

Hospitals visited for out-of-town patients, 50.

S. S. festivals at Christmas, 7.

Pastoral calls, about 1,200.

Junior Auxiliaries organized, 2; Woman's Auxiliary, 1.

Your Archdeacon desires at this part of the report to express his grateful thanks to the Rt. Rev. Father-in-God, the Bishop of the Diocese, for his many acts of kindness shown me; for his fatherly council given at all times and the grateful approval of the work done.

To the Reverend Clergy for their encouraging words of interest expressed to me, for the many services rendered by them in the nine different missions during the past Lent, when some 48 services were held and sermons preached and miles travelled. The places were Corfu, Darien Center, Depew, Angola, Brant, Irving, Silver Creek, Sinclairville and Williamsville.

To the Superintendent and the members of the League for their many services in the missions and the several institutions of the city, where services are held each Sunday when the Archdeacon is unable to be present. These readers are willing and ready at all times to go and to do what they can to help in the Church work.

The usual notices were sent out in the fall requesting each rector and missionary to name the number of red mite boxes needed for their respective Sunday Schools for the Advent season, the offering to be devoted to Diocesan Missions. Some 2,500 boxes were distributed and the amount received will appear on the Treasurer's report.

The Rev. J. L. Smielau, the missionary among the deaf mutes, has continued his ministrations among those afflicted people within the limits of the archdeaconry during the year.

Your Archdeacon takes the following data from the consolidated reports of the Archdeacon and missionaries prepared by General H. C. Hodges for the Missionary Board from February 1, 1913 to February 1, 1914:

Services, 1,067; attendance, 25,675; collection, $1,712.23; Holy Communion, 270; Communicants, 4,432; baptismal services, 36; baptized, 57; confirmation, 7; confirmed, 22; marriages, 17; burials, 36; ordinations, 1.

Report of the Archdeacon of Rochester

Rt. Rev. William D. Walker, Bishop, and brethren of the clergy and laity:

In making this, his tenth annual report, your archdeacon is glad to be able to state that at all of our regularly organized missions, with two or three exceptions, increased interest has been manifested during the year past, and the services, especially during the season of Lent, have been well attended.

Two new men have been added to our working force, the Rev. W. H. Benford having been called to fill the vacancies at Sodus, Sodus Point and Sodus Centre, caused by the removal of the Rev. H. B. Thomas to Pittsford, and the Rev. Kenneth A. Bray, recently called to St. Peters' Church, Geneva, has taken charge of South Phelps.

The Rev. Mr. Parsons having accepted a call to Ellicottville, his former work at Holley has, since his departure, been under the care of the Rev. W. H. G. Lewis of Brockport.

The Rev. Mr. Harvey for a time gave Thursday night services in Nunda in connection with his regular work at Mt. Morris which he has recently resigned.

At other places the appointments remain as they were a year ago. New work has been undertaken at Erwins, a small settlement in Steuben County. This work has been established through the energy and faith of a woman, who, finding it impossible to attend church elsewhere, conceived the idea of having the church come to her.

In a district school house not far from her home, she has organized and conducted a Sunday School, which, at the present time, has an enrollment of 58 scholars. Your general missionary has been called upon to supply this energetic worker with implements of warfare in the form of prayer books, hymnals and Sunday School literature. Recently it was his privilege to baptize eighteen candidates, whom she had gathered for the sacrament. These candidates ranged in age from eight weeks to forty-one years, and in the service I was called to use the forms for Infant, Adult and Hypothetical baptism. Other candidates to the number of ten, were unable to be present owing to threatening weather.

As there are no other religious services held in the community, this woman has set her heart upon the erection of a small chapel. Assurances of financial help have been given her from outside sources, as well as from within the community, and doubtless her heart's desire will soon be realized. This is but an illustration of what might be done in many isolated sections of this archdeaconry if others, trained in the ways of the church, could be induced to take up the work.

In the southern portion of this diocese, there are thousands of men, women and children, who would welcome instruction in hygiene, domestic science, and religion, and any one of tact and judgment going among them, in a spirit of helpfulness, would receive an encouraging welcome.

I have given considerable time to Wolcott of late, and the response has been most gratifying. In spite of numerous reverses, and in the face of many discouraging conditions, the people of Wolcott have persisted and are entitled to all encouragement. The debt on the church building has been reduced to fifty dollars. We ought to have funds sufficient to enable us to put a man in Wolcott. It is a place of importance, and a good man properly supported, could build up a flourishing work.

We ought also to be able to place a man in residence at Fairport to care for that flourishing suburb of Rochester, and take in connection with it, a work which for some time we have hoped to establish in Despatch, or as it is now called, East Rochester. For the work in Despatch we have had for a number of years, money in hand.

Services in Fairport are at present maintained by the Rev. Dr. Bush, in connection with his larger work at Charlotte. If we are not able to place a man in residence at Fairport, a combination with the church at Pittsford would, I believe, be a more satisfactory arrangement than the present one.

The Rev. Mr. Bouck gives such time as he can spare from his larger work at Watkins, to the church in Montour Falls. Here, too, we ought to have a resident priest. Montour Falls is a place of some 1,500 people, there are important and growing manufacturing establishments located there, with a weekly pay roll of over $5,000.

The great weakness in all of our work lies in our failure to properly care for our mission stations.

In nearly every town in this archdeaconry, of three hundred inhabitants or more, you will find that Christian brethren of other names have established work with resident pastors, while we, in even much larger places are not able, or willing, to provide for more than an occasional service by an itinerant.

In this way we are very much handicapped. These churches are made the social centers of the towns and the resident ministers have a vast advantage in that they are in daily touch with the people, and all inducements are offered to draw them into their folds. Newcomers to a town, as well as the children of the older inhabitants, are drawn naturally to the churches where regular Sunday services, and social functions are maintained. Only our older members whose loyalty to the church has been bred in the bone, and become fixed like the law of the Medes and Persians, are able to resist these allurements.

As an illustration let me say that in one mission station which I have in mind, we have lost no less than three organists who have been drawn away from us one after the other, by other Christian bodies.

People trained in the church will not, as we have said, be drawn away; but we have few of that stamp in our missions—they are dying off, and only a resident priest and regular Sunday services can raise up others to take their places.

Then too, in a community we are almost always the last to arrive on the scene of action, as a result much of our work is supplementary rather than initiatory and the church's struggle for a footing is often made in the face of established and organized opposition.

It is with such conditions as these that your general missionary has to contend and having now completed ten years of ceaseless vigilance he thinks himself fortunate in that he is able with all reverence to say, that not only of those committed to his keeping has he lost very few, but also that many other sheep have been gathered in. This, however, has not been made possible through any excellency of speech on his part, but because he has in a measure been able to lead people to a realization of the fact that the church in her sacraments and services, has that to give which can be found nowhere else.

If with only occasional services by your general missionary we are able thus to maintain our footing what might we not do if we had men of consecration and common sense in residence at each of our important missions?

As it now is, your archdeacon can do little aggressive work, he must give his time to strengthening the stakes, rather than lengthening the cords.

The report of our treasurer, a summary of which is made supplementary to this report, shows that we have received from our parishes and missions less money than we did a year ago.

So far as our larger parishes are concerned, the plan of apportionment adopted last year has on the whole proven a financial gain to our treasury, while with the smaller places, with few exceptions, it has not.

The amount received from the Sunday Schools last Advent, $697.56, is the largest we have ever had. At the present time we have, aside from your general missionary, nine priests, and three lay readers on our working force as follows:

Rev. G. W. Raines at Caledonia.

Rev. M. G. Freeman at Manchester and Shortsville.

Rev. H. S. Bush at Charlotte and Fairport.

Rev. W. H. Benford at Sodus Centre and Sodus Point.

Rev. G. P. Sommerville at Bradford.

Rev. F. N. Bouk at Montour Falls.

Rev. W. H. G. Lewis at Holley.

Rev. Kenneth A. Bray at South Phelps.

Rev. F. C. Smielau, Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

Lay Readers:

Mr. Chas. C. Jatho at Dresden.

Mr. W. H. Martlin at Hunts.

Mr. Seth Wakeman at South Phelps under the Rev. Mr. Bray.

Personally I have during the past year ministered to the following places:

Dundee, Dresden, Himrods, Hunts, Nunda, Holcomb, Union Hill, Sodus Point, Spencerport, Wolcott and Erwins, and have given occasional services at other points. I have held 208 services including 42 celebrations of the Holy Communion. I have officiated at eleven funerals and three marriages. Have baptized 36 and have candidates for confirmation at Hunts and Sodus Point. Those at Sodus Point have been turned over to the Rev. Mr. Benford, who now has charge of the mission.

I feel that the granting of a stipend to a mission year after year, often works an injury to the mission, in that it has a tendency to pauperize it and make it dependent, in place of independent.

I believe that whenever a stipend is given, it should be with the understanding that each succeeding year a certain per cent. of the same will be withdrawn. If this should seem to work a hardship to some, an investigation could be made by the committee on stipends and suggestions made as to means whereby the finances of the mission may be increased.

When a stipend is given year after year, the mission comes to regard it not as a temporality, but as a birthright, and little or no effort is made to relieve the Missionary Board of its responsibility.

This policy in place of encouraging self-support creates dependence and weakness.

However, before such a scheme can be put into effect, a stipend adequate to the proper support of the work must be granted. You can't take something from nothing. Only when sufficient money is given for diocesan work, so that competent men can be secured for the missions, can the plan be made operative.

The success of missions in the diocese, as elsewhere, depends upon competent men, adequate financial support, and business methods.

When such a combination has been effected, the church will go forth as a giant refreshed with wine, conquering and to conquer.

Until such time we must continue to do the best we can with the resources at our command.

The following summary is taken from the annual report of our Treasurer for the year commencing May 1st, 1913 and ending April 30th, 1914.

Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes

My dear Bishop Walker:

I herewith submit my annual report for the year ending April 30, 1914.

On account of severe illness I was unable to do as much work in the Diocese as in former years, but when I resumed my regular visits to Rochester and Buffalo I noticed a good many more communicants present than formerly. At Buffalo where we are privileged to use the beautiful Chapel of Trinity Parish, the attendance has doubled. The Communion services also have had more who received the sacrament, and the congregations showed more earnestness and reverence. The outlook for the Missions at Rochester and Buffalo is exceedingly hopeful and I am looking for more unity and faithfulness among the people.

Services were held and visits made in Buffalo, Rochester, East Aurora, Geneva, Jamestown, Olean, Batavia, Niagara Falls and Lockport.

Services held in public, 28; in private, 8.

Celebrations of the Holy Communion, public, 12; private, 5.

Contributions: for Diocesan Missions, $10; Trinity Church, Buffalo, $5; St. Luke's Church, Rochester, $5; for the Missionary's travelling expenses, $35.55.

Largest number present at Buffalo, 38; at Rochester, 35.

During my illness, the Rev. Mr. Van Allen of Utica, took duty for me at Rochester and Buffalo.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKLIN C. SMIELAU,

Allentown, Pa., May 6, 1914.

The mortgages held are good securities on which the interest is promptly paid. Annexed to the report is a tabulated statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held.

The receipts of income during the year have been as follows:

Received from the Treasurer of the Diocese.....	$ 3,544.83
From interest on mortgages and notes and money in bank	2,456.04
	$ 6,000.87

Expenditures for the year have been:

Bishop's salary	$4,999.98
Treasurer's bond and insurance.....	12.50
Storage box	5.00
Clerical expenses	25.00
Audit	50.00

Surplus to last year.....		3,730.22
Present surplus		$ 4,637.46

The income and expense account is an open account, and is not figured in the principal of the Episcopate Fund. This money is deposited in the Union Trust Co. of Rochester, bearing interest at 4%, the interest going into the Income Account under Receipts from Interest.

The salary of the Bishop is paid to May 1st, 1914, and there is no other indebtedness.

There has been received during the year special remittances from the various Parishes under direction of the Bishop $447.87.

These amounts are transferred to the Principal or Endowment Fund and show in the cash on hand in the Rochester Trust & Safe Deposit Co. as special item $1,002.53.

A committee of the trustees have examined the books of the Treasurer and find same have been correctly kept. Have checked up the bank balances and find the amounts on deposit agree with the figures noted above.

During the year the Nelson Blood mortgage of $300 has been paid.

The three lots on Lark St., Buffalo, valued at $300, have been exchanged for a second mortgage of $350 with interest at 5%. These lots produced us no income and were an expense as to taxes, etc., so this exchange for a good second mortgage was a profitable one.

(I) Report of Sunday School Commission

To the Bishop and the Members of the Council:

During the past year the Sunday School Commission of Western New York has continued throughout the Diocese its campaign of education. Holding as an ideal for its work the principle, so well expressed by the able President of this Commission to the Council a year ago, that we regard our Sunday Schools not as quasi-religious organizations, where the attendance is largely voluntary and work is most optional, but as schools, as centers of education, the Commission has taken some steps forward, and prepared the way, we believe, for far greater strides.

In the course of the year's work, meetings and institutes have been held in many cities and towns, and a great deal of valuable information has been gathered, and some disseminated. For several years this Commission has sought figures, believing that only upon a solid foundation of facts could a superstructure be built that would stand. Need we say that in many instances the figures—solid, honest figures have been given gladly—in others, the figures have come more grudgingly, and in many instances the figures have not come at all. But as a result of this work we do know several things. The children are in our schools—not so many perhaps, as there should be, but enough to demand a sound system of teaching. The officers and teachers are there, too, full of splendid inspiration and enthusiasm, but meeting their pupils mainly as untrained teachers.

And we protest most firmly against those who trust everything to personality, and are satisfied to neglect efficiency. Essential is the teacher's personality—equally essential is the teacher's training.

Your Commission recognizes that it has before it a High Standard of Sunday School efficiency—it appreciates its duty to give to the teachers and officers in our schools such help as lies in its power to the end that the schools may more nearly approach this High Standard.

The work of the Sunday Schools is many-sided. In order that your Commission might best be prepared to touch these various sides, each member of the Commission took one division of the Commission's interests as his particular obligation and responsibility. In this we have followed the leadership of the General Board of Religious Education, and have chosen the same general divisions as the General Board divided among its members, namely.

Finance.

Organization and Equipment.

Missions and Social Service.

Worship, Music and Art.

Curriculum and Lesson Courses. Primary and Secondary Schools.
Teacher Training and Summer Parents and Home Department.
Schools. Publicity.

Yet early in the year, it became very plain that a need in Newark for help in the selection of Lesson Material could but inadequately be met by a member of your Commission residing in Buffalo. Similarly, instruction in Christian Service cannot properly pass to Niagara Falls from Corning, when the member of your Commission in Corning is not a free agent, but bound to a task of responsibility which he cannot leave. Moreover, general advice is often valueless, for the Lesson Material admirably suited to a school of 75 might be entirely inadequate for a school of 350. A personal study of each problem is essential.

Recognizing as we do this definite need, we obtained the consent of the Reverend William E. Gardner, Secretary of the General Board of Religious Education, to come to this Diocese for an intimate and personal study of our problems. The results of this visit far surpassed our most sanguine expectations. Through the energetic management of the Secretary of your Sunday School Commission, the Reverend Mr. J. W. D. Cooper, meetings were arranged and held in all the main centers of the Diocese, at which Mr. Gardner met and talked with a large proportion of the teachers of our schools. What the general value of these meetings must have been in the Diocese can only be surmised, but what the results were on the schools with which the members of your Commission are connected, we know! Mr. Gardner not only gave to our teachers unnumbered new improved methods of teaching and of organization, but he opened to a great many a vision of the wonderful value of Christian Service never before realized:

Yet the work he did was but a beginning. In our schools the newly-appointed grade leaders will need counsel and guidance in their work through the coming year. Mr. Gardner cannot meet all the questions of all the grade leaders.

We need in this Diocese one member of the Sunday School Commission who can meet with all grade leaders—with every teacher who needs help—who needs inspiration. We need in short a trained expert—a Diocesan Field Secretary! Massachusetts has such a man! Rhode Island has! The Third Missionary Department, now known as the Third Province, has an Educational Field Secretary whose whole time is retained for educational matters. The General Board of Religious Education tells us that each of these men has added immeasurably to the effectiveness of the work done in his department.

We believe that the Diocese of Western New York should have such a man. Our President, Mr. Houghton, tells the Commission that such an expert can be obtained. Should such a man be available, the Commission would expect him to make a thorough study of those Dioceses in which this work is being carried on. The General Board of Religious Education promises to give to such a secretary every assistance in its power, and to pass on to him the results accruing from its work.

When ready to begin he would take his place as a member of this Sunday School Commission, ready and waiting to serve any and every Sunday School in the Diocese that might call upon him. His powers would be in no instance inquisitorial; he would not pry into any school where he was not wanted, should such a school exist. To such schools as do need counsel, his would be always freely offered.

We come, then, before you today with this distinct proposition. Create such a Diocesan office, empower us to find a man to fill that office, and your Commission will assume the entire responsibility of his salary for a period of three years. Further, this will be done without any appeal being made during this period to the Diocese or to any member of the Diocese for funds.

To this end we propose the following definite resolutions:

First: Resolved that this Council welcomes and approves the appointment of a Diocesan Field Secretary to assist in the work of the Sunday Schools.

Second: Resolved that this Council empower the Sunday School Commission of the Diocese to select and appoint this Diocesan Field Secretary, said appointment being subject to the approval of the Bishop, the Commission for three years to be responsible for the expenses attached to the office.

Respectfully submitted by the Sunday School Commission of the Diocese of Western New York.

(3) Report of the Sustentation Committee

The Committee held several meetings and carried on much correspondence to secure the data necessary to apportion the fund under the Canon.

It was decided to apportion the amount reported by the Treasurer of the Diocese at the opening of the Council of 1913, to such rectors as were eligible according to the list furnished the Committee by the Treasurer. Due notice of this action was mailed to six rectors whose parishes had met the requirement of the Canon, and who were eligible under the following sections of Canon XVI:

(a) "Whose parishes have paid in full the assessments for the preceding year for the support of the Episcopate, for Diocesan expenses, and for the Sustentation Fund;

(b) The amount of whose salaries as pledged by their parishes are below the standard provided for in Title I, Canon II, Section 6, Subsection 5; and

(c) Whose parishes in the judgment of the Committee pledge as large a salary as is consistent with their ability."

Resolutions passed by the Committee:

A study of conditions in the Diocese lead the Committee to adopt the following resolutions:, believing thereby to secure justice to all concerned:

Resolved, That the apportionments of the Sustentation Committee be based upon the salary originally pledged by the parish, or by the parish and Missionary Boards, and should not apply in cases when parishes have reduced such salary or the rectors have voluntarily given up a part of the work agreed upon, also, no account should be taken of the failure of parishes to carry out supplemental pledges of increase of salary.

Resolved, That the apportionment apply to salaries from May 1st, 1912, to May 1st, 1913, and be based on such sum as the Treasurer of the Diocese reported as paid in for the year ending May 1st, 1913.

The amount necessary to meet the deficit in full was $3,315, with but $505.49 available. On this basis orders were drawn by the Secretary of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer of the Diocese, each man on the list receiving 15% of the difference between his pledged salary and the Canonical minimum.

The Committee would suggest that a statement from such rectors as deem themselves eligible be furnished the Committee immediately after the meeting of the Council, or better include in their parish reports a statement of the salary pledged and the possession of a rectory or its equivalent in rent.

W. H. SIMMONS,
Secretary of Committee.

(K) Report of The Social Service Commission

To the Seventy-seventh Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Social Service Commission desires to report as follows:

The Commission has met four times during the year—twice at Buffalo, once at Batavia, and once at Lockport. It has had for its consideration several matters of a more or less social aspect, and after due deliberation the Commission brings the following under the notice of the Council:

1. TRAIN MATRONS: This means “a consecrated woman on every through train entering our large cities. They will have a double duty. First, to look after women generally, and, second, to become acquainted with and to help in every way all young women and girls traveling alone.

This has been approved by the Commission, one member dissenting.

2. ANTI-TREATING LAW: The Commission also favors the introduction in the New York State Legislature of an anti-treating law such as has been in other States of the Union, tried and found acceptable, not only to abstainers, but to the better class of business men who drink occasionally, and has been also found possible of enforcement. As such a law, if passed, would be State-wide in its effect, the opinion of this Council upon its desirability would be of some moment.

3. NAVY CHAPLAINS. The attention of the Commission has been drawn to the project for increasing the number of Chaplains in the United States Navy. We emphasize three points in connection with the proposed legislation:

(a) The total number of Chaplains should be at least sixty-five, instead of twenty-four as at present, thus allowing a Chaplain for every one thousand enlisted men.

(b) We are opposed to the appointment of special moral and social workers in lieu of ordained ministers.

(c) The present discrimination against Chaplains in the matter of rank and salary should be removed, in order that they may be on an equal footing with other officers of the Navy.

4. ORGANIZED LABOR: In order to be in closer touch with the various Trades Unions, with a view to a better understanding of the relations between employer and employee, the Commission has appointed different members to represent it in separable localities. The Secretary has been requested to inform the organizations, where possible, of this action.

Respectfully submitted,

PERCY ISHERWOOD, Chairman.

Lockport, N. Y., May 19, 1914.

15. On Credentials of Delegates: to consist of two Clergymen and one Layman, to serve from the close of the Current Council until the close of the next Annual Council.

16. On Missions, to consist of ten Clergymen and ten Laymen, including the Delegates to the Missionary Council, with the right to add other Clergymen and Laymen of the Diocese, to be named at the close of the Current Council, and to serve until the close of the next Annual Council.

(4) Nomination for offices.

(5) Presentation and reference of reports of Officers and Committees of the Diocese.

II. The following Committees may be appointed at the discretion of the Bishop, at any time during the session of the Council, to consist of such members as the Bishop may direct:

(1) On Church Property, Parsonages and Clerical Support.

(2) Archives and Annals.

(3) The Supply of the Sacred Ministry.

(4) Beneficence and Works of Piety.

(5) Sunday Schools.

(6) The Episcopal Library.

(7) State Legislation.

III. All Committees shall sit and deliberate in private, and the same rule shall apply to Tellers in the count of votes.

No report referred to any Committee shall be reported back for printing unless so directed by a vote of the Council, or unless the Committee recommend some legislation in regard thereto.

IV. Motions, Notices and Resolutions to be considered by the Council may be presented after the President has appointed the Standing Committees, and called for the matters to be respectively referred to them. But the Bishop's Address shall take precedence of all other business at any time.

V. The Evening Session on the first day shall open at 7:30 with Evening Prayer or the Litany; then shall follow the Bishop's address, if he so desires.

VI. On the second day,—after a celebration of the Holy Communion at an hour fixed by the Bishop,—the order of business shall be as follows, beginning at 9:00 A. M.:

(1) Reading of minutes.

(2) Elections.

(3) Reports of Standing Committees of the Council.

(4) Reports of Special Committees.

(5) Unfinished business, motions, resolutions and miscellaneous business.

The Council shall take a recess from 12:30 to 2:00 P. M., and from 6:00 to 7:30 P. M.

VII. On the third or other subsequent day,—the order of business shall be as directed by the Council.

VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or by any member.

X. If a question in debate contains distinct propositions, one or more, they may be separated at the call of any member into so many several motions.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, except (1) to lay the motion on the table, (2) to postpone it indefinitely, (3) to postpone it to a certain time, (4) to commit it, or (5) to amend; and motions for these purposes shall have precedence in the order thus named.

XII. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived, it shall not be renewed until other business has been treated in due order.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A question, being put by the President, shall be determined by the sound of voices; but any member may require a count of the vote; or previous to a decision by count, any three members may require the yeas and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members, and the names of the Churches and Missions represented; and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Or the yeas and nays may be taken by order on the call of any five members, and when so taken the vote shall be recorded in like manner.

XV. No member except the mover may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question once decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Council, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on said decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

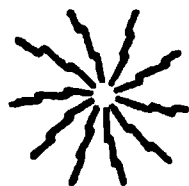

XVII. Special Committees not otherwise provided for shall be appointed by the Chair.

XVIII. Except by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote, no standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded.

XIX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Council, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XX. If the Bishop of the Diocese be not present, and able to preside; or the Episcopate be vacant; then, in the absence of the Secretary of the preceding Council, the Council shall be called to order by the President or Senior Presbyter of the Standing Committee present, who shall preside until the Council has been organized. Then a President pro tempore shall be elected from among the Presbyters present, who shall make the appointments ordinarily assigned to the Bishop, or under his direction.

Resolved, That that part of the report of the Social Service Commission relative to an assessment upon the Diocese for its purposes be, and hereby is, referred to the Financial Board with power to act.

The Bishop read that portion of his Annual Address bearing upon the Church Pension Fund.

Mr. E. C. Denton presented the report of the Committee on Church Pension Fund, as follows:

Your Committee respectfully reports that it has given much time and thought to the important question referred to it, and recommends that this Council should agree to enter the Church Pension Fund system and adopt the Canon submitted herewith.

The last Council formally approved the plan of the General Convention of 1913 on this subject, and instructed this Committee to take into consideration the relation which the Diocese of Western New York should bear to the Church Pension Fund. This action was taken after a full explanation had been made by the Rev. Harry P. Nichols, D. D., of New York City.

Your Committee recommends favorable action on this question, because it believes that the Church Pension Fund system is the result of the most careful and mature thought of capable men, is based upon scientific principles, is adapted to the needs of the Church, will promote efficiency among the clergy, and is so safe-guarded in every way that permanency is assured. The fact that the charter of the Church Pension Fund places it under the supervision of the State Insurance Department makes it certain that it will be permitted to promise no benefits which are not possible and certain on the basis on which they are figured.

Already several dioceses, including Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Western Massachusetts have voted to enter the system, the Board of Missions also has decided to do so, and an act has been passed by the New York State Legislature permitting the General Clergy Relief Fund to become merged with the Church Pension Fund. It seems certain that at last a proper system has been devised for the relief of the clergy and their widows and minor orphans, and this Diocese should not lag behind in recognizing the importance of this movement.

Your Committee is informed by the Secretary of the Church Pension Fund that the annual expense of this system in this Diocese will be about five per cent. of the stipends received by the clergy, provided the various permanent funds for the clergy relief now in existence in this Diocese shall become available for use in connection with the Church Pension Fund. In estimating the stipend of a clergyman the use of a rectory is valued at sixteen and one-half per cent. of his salary, and the cost of the pension system is computed on that basis.

Your Committee has not been able to reach a definite conclusion as to how the Christmas Fund and other permanent funds may best be made available for use in connection with this system, and reports Section 6 of the proposed canon as sufficient until it shall be found what other arrangement can best be made under the laws of the State. The cost of the system, unaided by permanent funds, is about seven per cent. of the stipends of the clergy.

The amount paid by each parish for this object should be regarded as a payment for deferred salary, as a protection for the clergyman and his family against contingencies, some of which are bound to arise, which can nowhere else be purchased to the same extent at so moderate a price. It is not to be looked upon as a Diocesan assessment, but as a parochial payment for increased efficiency on the part of the clergy, and as an insurance against burdensome obligations that sometimes become a serious load upon a parish.

Your Committee believes that the system will commend itself to the good judgment of prudent business men and will arouse the interest and support of all persons who believe that the Church should meet more fully its duty to the clergy and to those dependent upon them.

Respectfully submitted,

EUGENE C. DENTON,
JULIAN GERARD BUCKLEY,
WM. Y. WARREN.

Corning, May 18, 1915.

PROPOSED CANON OF THE CHURCH PENSION FUND.

Section 1. In conformity with the resolutions adopted by the General Convention of 1913, setting forth the principles upon which a pension system for the clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation the Church Pension Fund has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of Western New York adopts the system of the Church Pension Fund.

Section II. The Ecclesiastical Authorities of the Diocese shall appoint, annually, a Committee to be entitled The Committee on the Church Pension Fund, and to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen. The duties of this Committee shall be as follows:

1. To furnish annually to the Church Pension Fund the list of the names of the clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and of the clergy canonically resident in other Dioceses or Missionary Districts who may be licensed to officiate in this Diocese, with a statement of the stipends received by each of said clergymen from any parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in this Diocese.

2. To receive from the Church Pension Fund annually a statement of the premiums necessary to be paid by each parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese, in order that the clergymen in receipt of stipends from such parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations may be entitled respectively to pensions.

3. To inform the duly constituted authorities of each parish, mission and other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese of the premiums payable by it, and of the time and manner of payment thereof.

4. To elect a Treasurer, who may or may not be a member of said Committee, who shall be required to file a bond satisfactory to the Committee, and whose duty it shall be to receive monthly, from all the parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations in this Diocese, the aforesaid premiums and to transmit the same to the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund.

5. To inform the Church Pension Fund from time to time of the clergy and the widows and minor orphans of clergy, canonically resident in this Diocese, who may be entitled to receive pensions from the Church Pension Fund.

6. In general, to inform the clergy and laity of the Diocese of the Pension system created by the General Convention, and committed by it to the operation of the Church Pension Fund, whereby the clergy of the Church are assured of pensions as of right, to themselves in the event of old age, or disability, and, in the event of their death, to their widows and minor orphans, and to do all things that may be necessary or advisable in the premises to the end that the moneys necessary to be paid by the parishes, missions and other ecclesiastical organizations may be fully and systematically paid.

Section III. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to provide for the annual payment to the Treasurer of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund of the premiums payable on behalf of the Bishop of the Diocese, and also of the Coadjutor Bishop and the Bishop Suffragan, if there be such, and it shall be the duty of said Treasurer to pay said premiums monthly to the Treasurer of the Committee on the Church Pension Fund.

Section IV. It shall be the duty of the Board of Missions of the Archdeaconry of Buffalo to pay, monthly or quarterly, to the Treasurer of the said Committee on the Church Pension Fund the premiums payable on behalf of all clergymen receiving stipends from said Board.

Section V. It shall be the duty of the Board of Missions of the Archdeaconry of Rochester to pay, monthly or quarterly, to the Treasurer of the said Committee on the Church Pension Fund the premiums payable on behalf of all clergymen receiving stipends from said Board.

Section VI. If at or before the expiration of any year the Church Pension Fund shall produce to the Trustees of the Christmas Fund satisfactory evidence that the Church Pension Fund has actually paid to an annuitant the sum payable to him for that year out of the Christmas Fund, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall forthwith reimburse the Church Pension Fund for such payment and the receipt of the Church Pension Fund shall constitute a quittance to the said Trustees.

Section VII. It shall be the duty of every clergyman receiving a stipend or stipends from any parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization of the Diocese and the duty of every parish, mission or other ecclesiastical organization in the Diocese paying a stipend or stipends, to furnish a statement of such stipend or stipends to the Committee on the Church Pension Fund whenever said Committee shall, in writing, ask for such statement.

Section VIII. This canon shall go into effect when the Secretary of the Council shall receive notification from the Church Pension Fund that the Dioceses, Missionary Districts and General Boards or other General Institutions of the Church have, by legislation, provided for entering into the pension system of the Church Pension Fund in numbers sufficient, in the opinion of the Church Pension Fund, to enable its system to go into operation; provided, that the number of the clergy canonically connected with said co-operating Dioceses or Missionary Districts, or whose stipends are wholly paid by said co-operating Boards or General Institutions of the Church, shall be not less than two thousand individuals.

Judge Charles McLouth presented a minority report, as follows:

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New York, sitting at Corning, May 18, 1915:

The minority of the Committee appointed by the Bishop under the resolution of this Council of date May, 1914, to consider what reslation the Diocese of Western New York should bear to the Church Pension Fund, and to report to the next Council, respectfully reports:

That from the examination it has been able to make, and has made, under the said resolution it is inexpedient at this time to take action in respect thereto, or to commit itself to, or enter upon the action proposed by the said Church Pension Fund, as mentioned in said resolution, for many reasons, of which, among others, may be mentioned:

1. No sufficient time for consideration or examination has been had.
2. The proposition is entirely radical and revolutionary, and requires the most careful and deliberate thought and examination of extreme propositions submitted.
3. It proposes to overthrow the very careful labor and purpose of this Diocese for forty years, and more.
4. It is very zealously urged by largely paid advocates, and, for that reason, should be very carefully considered and thoughtfully guarded.
5. It imposes upon the Diocese as an unit an annual taxation and burden of $10,649.00 to be paid by it and to be obtained, if it can, by the Diocese from an annual tax burden of seven per cent. upon its rector's salary, plus the fair rental value of its rectory or residence furnished for its rector; and it proposes while dealing alone with the Diocese as a unit to impose upon each parish or mission a penalty for non-payment of two years expulsion from the Council after it shall have made payment in full of all such amounts—it is supposed by way of guaranty of good behavior.
6. Out of the one hundred eight dioceses of the American P. E. Church but one has yet, after nearly two years of effort, been induced to commit itself to the scheme.
7. It asks, as a very desirable thing, that this Diocese turn over to the Church Pension Fund, incorporated under Chapter 97 of the Laws of 1914, its Christmas Fund, which has been the accumulation of forty years and more, from the good intentions, pious purposes and anxieties of many individuals, by labors, gifts, bequests, etc., for the single purpose of aiding the care of the aged and infirm clergymen and the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen, of and connected with this Diocese, and not elsewhere.

The legal questions, as well as the moral right, of such turning over would be very serious, and, it must be assumed, will have to be met.

No such legal or moral right exists, and nothing is hazarded in saying, no such claim can be maintained.

8. The consumation of such scheme could only be effected by Canon Law. The Canon sent out broadcast to all the Dioceses manifests the purpose of the corporation. If a, or this, Diocese does not see fit to enact precisely that canon, yet it must make some one; and it may not be expected that any largely varying from that sent out, which is not drawn without care, will effect the purpose desired by the corporation.

9. So serious and radical an action requires time, consideration, thought, examination, legal assistance, a balancing of advantages, and much other, which cannot hastily be given.

We have a fund in good condition, well operating, safely invested, sure to answer its purpose; and, above all, a sacred trust, only to be used for one single, absolute purpose, of which we stand the Trustees, with the duties of Trustees.

It may be said that there is hardly any, if any, Diocese doing so well and justly by its infirm or disabled clergy, and the widows of deceased clergymen, as Western New York.

It is well to let well enough alone until something is offered proven to be better, and which has been accepted by more, rather than less, than one per cent. of the dioceses of the Church.

10. The scheme proposed makes absolutely sure the annual demand of payment of the $10,649.00 from the Diocese, and the $98.00 or $100.00 from every thousand dollar parish—that is the certainty of it!

When any benefits will be recovered or become vested is merely conjectural—that is the speculation in futures of it!

11. The interest on our invested Christmas Fund—above $1,500.00—(and we should have no offerings) would be a very small help on this annual requirement of $10,649.00.

CHARLES McLOUTH,
Of the Committee.

Judge McLouth read, in connection with the above minority report, the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Jessup the matter of the Church Pension Fund was made a subject for discussion tomorrow morning.

No Lay Delegate shall be allowed to vote in the Council unless the Parish or Mission which he represents shall have paid all assessments levied upon it the preceeding year; nor to vote in the election of any of the officials of the Diocese unless all such assessments levied the three preceding Council years shall have been paid. Provided, however, that upon the recommendation of the Standing Committee and Financial Board the Council may grant the privilege of voting upon all questions, save the election of the Bishop, the Standing Committee, Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Provincial Synod, to a parish which for good reason has been unable to pay all or part of the assessments of the preceding year; but this privilege shall not be granted to the same Parish more than once in three years.

On motion the above amendment to the Constitution was approved.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton presented the following report, which, on motion, was laid on the table.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons reports upon the question of adoption of the proposed Pension Fund, that, while this Committee deems it inexpedient to take action upon so serious a matter without great deliberation and care, the Committee reports the whole matter back to this Council to be considered in Committee of the Whole at this time.

The ballots being cast, the above were declared duly elected to those several positions.

On motion, the Mission at Kenmore was admitted into union with the Council.

The Rev. Mr. Mosher presented the following report of the Committee on Finance:

The Committee has examined the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese and has found it correct.

Of the assessment for the Episcopate Fund more than one-fourth was uncollected; of the assessment for Diocesan Expenses more than one-fourth was uncollected; of the assessment for the Sustentation Fund more than one-half was uncollected.

There should be more frequent and more urgent endeavors to collect these assessments, and the parishes which do not pay their assessments should be made to feel that they are not only shirking a responsibility, but they are adding very materially to the burdens of the other parishes.

The cost of maintaining the affairs of this office is $200.00, i. e., about two per cent. on the total amount of the funds collected.

The Committee has examined the Report of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund and has found it correct. Since 1908 there has been an increase in this Fund of $16,526.15. The Treasurer's recompense for managing the Fund was $338.29, i. e., less than one-fifth of one per cent. of the amount of the funds in his care.

The Committee has examined the Report of the Christmas Fund and has found it correct. The number of Parishes contributing to this Fund was only seventy-five, and yet that is ten more than last year and ten more than in 1908. Every Parish and Mission in the Diocese should consider it a privilege and a sacred obligation to contribute to the Christmas Fund for the Aged and Infirm Clergy, and every failure to send the Christmas offering to this Fund is a breach of the canons, of which the parish should be thoroughly ashamed.

In 1908 the annuitants were paid $3,187.50; this year they received only $2,641.67. In 1908 the Fund amounted to $30,476.32, and now it is $34,128.94. The report does not state the number of annuitants. The Treasurer receives no compensation for the management of this Fund.

We recommend that more of this money be let out on bonds and mortgages; that in the report of the Treasurer the transactions in the invested funds be placed by themselves and the income, offerings with the disbursement of the same be made a separate account; that the Fund be audited. These suggestions were made by this committee last year, but they have not been carried out.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP W. MOSHER,
R. R. M. CONVERSE,
W. A. WILLIAMS.

On motion of Mr. Skinner, the report was accepted, and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund were instructed to carry out the suggestions of the Committee on Finance.

On motion, it was resolved that the Council proceed to the special order of the day, namely, the Church Pension Fund.

A vote by orders was taken upon the motion of Mr. Denton,

That the report of the Committee on Church Pension Fund be adopted except so much thereof as refers to the adoption of the proposed canon, and that Section I of the proposed canon be adopted, with the following result:

With the following result:

Clerical vote: Ayes, 57; Nays, 5.

Lay vote: Ayes, 25; Nays, 3.

The motion was declared carried.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hakes, the Council adopted the Budget submitted by the Standing Committee, and requested the Standing Committee to submit a Budget to the next Annual Council for another year.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. North, Section 1, of Canon VI, Title I, of the Diocesan Canons was amended by repealing the changes made in the Canon in the Council of 1912, thus restoring it to its original form.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Jessup, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, there has been for many years a strong feeling in the minds of many Churchmen throughout our Commonwealth that a relocating of Diocesan boundaries, with possibly the creation of new Dioceses, in the State of New York, would ensure greater efficiency in the work of the Church in the State;

Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed by the Bishop to memorialize or confer with like committees of the other Dioceses in the State on the desirability and expediency of taking concerted action looking to that end.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Cooper it was:

Resolved, That the apportionments of the General Board of Religious Education, and of the Provincial Board of Religious Education, be submitted each year to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and presented to the Council in the Annual Budget.

Judge Brown, on behalf of the Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons, presented a report recommending the adoption of the proposed Canon, referred to it, establishing a new Board of Religious Education. On vote, the Canon was adopted.

EVAN H. MARTIN,
J. H. HERENDEEN.

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund presented the following:

To the Seventy-eighth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Committee appointed to consider the report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund respectfully report that they have examined the report and found it to be correct. The Committee desire to record its approval of the Trustees' handling of the fund. We note particularly the fact that they handled the monies committed to them in such manner as to earn over five per cent. interest.

DELMAR M. DARRIN,
ROY C. KATES.

On motion, one thousand copies of the Journal were ordered printed.

On motion the thanks of the Council were tendered the Corning Leader, and its reporter, for courtesies received.

The minutes of the proceedings of the day were read and, on motion, adopted.

After prayers by the Bishop, the Council, on motion, adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM D. WALKER,
Bishop and President.

G. SHERMAN BURROWS,
Secretary.

CHARLES H. SMITH,
Assistant Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

Bishop's Annual Address

Reverend Brethren of the Clergy and Brethren of the Laity:

We greet each other with anxious hearts as we exchange brother hand-clasps at this annual gathering of our Diocese. Troublous days are they and heart-sickening ones! Not to talk, not to think, not to pray regarding them would be inhuman and would be simply un-Christian. Notwithstanding the amazing and the appalling surprises that have come to us respecting the inhumanity and the barbarous savagery that can defile the warfare of modern civilized nations, we yet know that generous brotherhood and Christian sympathy are not extinct among the sons of men.

Whatever the seas or the border-lines be that separate the nations, the Christian man, whether he have reached the high plane of completed education, or be one of the simple sort in learning, has the touch of a gentle Redeemer's hand on his heart and the throb of sympathy and a pitying sorrow must go forth warm at every pulse beat to the sick and the sad and the suffering and the wounded and the dying—the terrible harvest of this mighty crash and clash of the realms beyond the sea. How visions of the carnage and of the agonies and of the broken hopes and broken hearts that gash the face of those fair nations of the past, haunt our waking thought and people the dreams of the night! No man with a heart can banish these grim, awful specters "that will not down."

Men cherishing visions of a united humanity; hopes of concord and a world brotherhood; of nations co-operating instead of contending; of men united to secure the largest well-being for universal manhood, in loud-voiced theory and with radical revolutionary projects have found their labor in vain. It was only a dream—and of what avail is it to picture a dream unless there is the power to realize it? In this mighty outbreak of human passion and in this uncontrolled avalanche of merciless lust we behold the tiger ferocity that wholly unmans man and levels him to the appetites and the wild spirit of the denizens of the jungle and the pirates of the sea.

It is a sad commentary on poor human nature and on our boasted civilization and on our scientific advance and on our national culture—so often vaunted in our day. Are we not learning in our stupefaction and in our fright that without a peaceful and wise Jesus at the helm our ship of civilization will go crashing on the rocks?

Nations without confession of God, schools without a Bible, codes of law without Divine bases—where is their hope and strength? Must we not go back to the old foundations? to old principles that clasp our hands in God's; to old truths that tell the truth? We are trembling today under the shock of this new crisis. We are panting at the possibility of blood and carnage and the enemy's sword here. Have we not reason to halt and to turn our eyes Heavenward and to fall on our knees and repent and pray—pray with a very agony of tears? We have flung the name of God from some of our coins. We have banished the Bible from our institutions of learning. We have legalized Sabbath games. We have opened here and there the pestilent saloon on the Lord's Day. We have multiplied divorces. We have forsaken our Father's House.

In view of this awful cataclysm—and these terrible engines of destruction—and these gorilla onslaughts of massed legions—and these personal atrocities—and these malignant cruelties to the wounded on the battle-field—and these dastardly revivals of the agonies and the hate and the torture of savage tribes and Pagan lands,—men are declaring that our Christianity has failed; that the peaceful precepts of Jesus are passe; that the real man lying behind the veneer and the enamel has come to his own—and to himself again—that brute force, after all, is the dominant factor among nations—at least in their theory of power—and that might must reign. But this is only blind fallacy. There is faith yet; and righteous living is still to be seen; and there are men who pray. The Gospel message is, somewhere, not in vain, as it is sounded forth. It is true that among many who name Jesus' name—oh, so many—there is minimized worship and neglected Churches and Lord's-Day desecrations in the recreation fields and in the club-house and on the road. And there is outspoken skepticism and rejected Bibles and laxer ethics and easy divorce law and broken homes and audacious “new thought” and tainting literature, and broken home altars, and new shrines with crowding worshippers; and Mammon and Venus and Bacchus are their gods. But still, as of yore, in that dark day of the ancient prophet, there are the 7000 left who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

But is Christianity or Christianity's lack a cause or incentive to war in the slightest degree? Its Head is the Prince of Peace. Its teaching ever pleads for peace. It gives to saddened souls and needy the blessing of peace as its Church ministers in sacrament or absolution or benediction.

Is it not selfishness, or lust of power or vindictiveness, or pride of strength or national arrogance that have let loose the dogs of war today? Is it genuine Christian men upon whose shoulders this awful responsibility can justly be laid? Rulers are not selected because of their Christian character in this world. Religion is not the test for place. The perspective of the politician is too often subjected to refraction. Politics and private life often show antagonistic codes of morals. Brain-brightness, cunning duplicity, evasiveness, partisanship are too often the characteristics of the man who seeks place or wins office. And alas! electors love to have it so, too often, also. These give the laws to the people—and here is the breaking-down—if there is one—of the Christianity in this nation or that. Religion is not dead.

What is our duty—the Church, the Ministry? We are learning much of the vile results of a culture rooted in brute ascendancy. The materialism with which some of us have felt disposed to coquet is demonstrating its real costume and color. We are learning that nation or man cannot fling off that moral and spiritual quality in the life for which this faith of ours stands. This the Church needs to proclaim with no halting speech. It must be an utterance without stammering lips. The time demands buoyant, confident, positive and direct preaching. We have no right to dally with honeyed words. May it not be that some of us have been uncertain about God; have dreamed only of that living Saviour and of our need of Him; have doubted miracles; have mutilated or rejected His Word, at least in part; have found our satisfaction in theories and philosophies of the fleeting age. Perhaps we have forgotten or had only a clouded sense of the reality of His will, His revelation, His outstretched arm, who is the Truth and who is the Almighty. It is well for us to remember, however, that He reigneth, and that His Word is with power. The Christian message must be proclaimed in all its grandeur and with all its searching austerity. There must be no speaking of smooth things. Corsica has not conquered Galilee; and the philosophy of Bernhardi will not eclipse the ethics of a Pauline Epistle or a Johannean Gospel. The evangel of God's grace for sinful men, the moral codes of the Kingdom of Heaven, the peace and hope of those who are in the ark of Christ's Church, and the terrors of the judgment to come—these themes never grow stale. And men need to mark them and ponder on their grace and promise now. We have seen Christianity sneered at and derided as the religion only for the weak—the woman, the little child, the tottering old man; but the day has dawned in which we must show once again how God can cause the weak things of the world to bring to naught the things that are strong. We must not suffer any mailed fist to sweep away as negligible those eternal principles of love and mercy, of honor and righteousness, of humility and peace, of pity and piety for which the broken heart and the pale face on the cross lived and died. Yes! confidentially, unceasingly, we will gaze upward like the Ascension mourning disciples—and like those certain Greeks who sought John and Andrew and Peter centuries ago, we will with them seek and see Jesus—and we will, like them, show forth His glory, and be “satisfied with it.”

Necrology

One: Right Reverend Doctor Scadding of Oregon.

Two: Right Reverend Doctor Strange of East Carolina.

Of the first and the third we had some knowledge in this Diocese. They came and told us of their vigorous Western work, and interested all who heard, through their own personalities, and through the uniqueness of the spheres of their labor. They did not live in vain.

Bishop Strange was a bright man in the House of Bishops. I only knew him there, as he performed duty well. Bishop Weeks' career in the Episcopate occupied a year and nine months. During that period he was the kind helper—and the judicious one—of a learned Diocesan, who seemed nearer the "Valley of the Shadow" than himself. But God took him, and his elder brother still remains to feed the flock, and a successor to the departed Coadjutor now bears his yoke.

One of our Diocesan family, wearing the priest's stole, has fallen asleep in the Master's service during the year, viz., Reverend A. A. Murch. He was a worker among us for a few years, and notwithstanding his grey hairs, despised not the Missionary's privations and labors. Warsaw was home, but Attica received his kind care, too; and the few who could go to the venerable Church at Wethersfield Springs found comfort in his tender ministrations. Suddenly he left us "to go home."

We shall miss him here, for he ever aimed to do duty. And presence here in the Council, in his eyes, was one of serious and compelling obligation.

General Missions

We are all naturally concerned about the Board of Missions Deficit. The condition is certainly very unfortunate. Four hundred thousand dollars to raise, in addition to the regular annual budget, is a large load for the Church to bear.

Ought such a burden to be on our shoulders today? And why is it there? These are questions which men of business are, I think, justly asking. It is not so much for criticism as for honest information their queries come.

Of course these "hard times" have developed the shrunken pocket-books with hosts. Fear of the future has caused others to diminish outlay. "Economy" is the general watchword, especially in a Diocese so largely rural as ours. But some other causes are, I hear, checking giving.

When the startling circulars came from New York a few weeks ago, astonishing us all, and saddening us all, I called clergy resident in the two Archdeaconries, together, at the two centres. Of course, it was no new subject to them. Each had heard the tocsin alarm, having received the variety of circulars pouring out of the Missions-house.

The subject was seriously and earnestly discussed at each gathering. The result was a unanimous and hearty resolve on the part of each to loyally endeavor himself in the waking of sympathy and work and giving among his people for the good cause. And I must record here this testimony, that some of these dear Reverend brethren of mine undertook this labor in the name of the Lord, when at that very time their own salaries were behind. Because the war-conditions had diminished the income of some of their congregations and because unemployment had been the fate of others for months, this condition existed in their parishes.

It was clear from the evidence of several that the time is inopportune for extraordinary calls in aid of any cause. But my people will aim to do in accordance with their ability and their obligations to other duty, even though opportunity has narrower limits for them.

For the first time in this Diocese, since its existence, the Standing Committee has deemed it expedient to submit a budget of expenses for the year. It has appeared to them vitally necessary in view of the many new demands for taxation of the parishes that are thrust upon us both within and without the Diocese, some of them seeming to them—and to me, I must add—unreasonable and unjust.

I am inclined to take place side by side absolutely with them in this matter of the budget. Each Parish should know annually—at the Council—what claims for one or another activity of the Church, Diocesan or General, is to be made upon it. At the annual gathering the justice or the reasonableness of the tax imposed may be fairly discussed, and the questions of the right and wrong of some claims may be considered and decided. Many vestries are complaining of the greatly increased burdens laid upon them especially through the fresh schemes that have claimed their money in recent times. Let me recall some of them.

1. Diocesan Sunday School Commission.
2. Clergy Retiring Allowance.
3. Clergy Sustentation Fund.
4. Religious Education Commission.
5. Social Service Commission.
6. Provincial Synod Expenses.
7. General Clergy Relief.
8. Clergy Pension Fund.

Most of these activities are making, as some think, just claim on the exchequers of the different Dioceses. Some think otherwise. I hold no brief for either, but I am not averse to declaring that our action in the past regarding the adoption of a burden in connexion with some new activities has been unscientific and unbusinesslike. Resolutions have been presented, having in view the assessing of parishes for one object or another. With scarcely any debate they have been adopted and lo! a new load of financial obligation has been laid on the parishes. I take it that the effect of a "budget" will be to exhibit before the members of the Council for their acceptance or rejection, a clear view of our financial requirements and of their relation to them. There are pages in the Journal devoted to the recording of Delinquent parishes. The list is long. Many a congregation so registered should not have its name there. It is not a condition for any vestry to be proud of. Perhaps a budget will bring large reform in this direction. I think the plan is well worth a trial.

Ely Fund

It is fitting that I should here declare an arrangement I have made by which a financial responsibility of the parishes—all—is materially lightened—or rather removed. The "Retiring Fund" Canon, as you know, permits, under certain conditions of age, etc., Clergymen of the Diocese to make application for the four hundred dollars a year allowance. This is secured by an assessment upon each Parish and Mission. We have now on this list four honored Reverend brethren; three have been added during the twelve months just past.

In order to make the obligation a smaller one, for the whole Diocese, than otherwise it would be, I have de-terminated to pay over to three annuitants the income of the Ely Fund. This amounts to about twelve hundred dollars per annum at the present time.

Thus I am glad to be able to relieve the parishes of an assessment of twelve hundred dollars each year. I have announced my plan to the Standing Committee; they have found it a satisfactory arrangement, and it has taken away from them the responsibility and anxiety of a levy on all missions and parishes of the Diocese for that amount.

Church Pension Fund

A topic of grave and commanding import for the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, which ought to come before us for full and prolonged scrutiny, is the proposed "Clergy Pension Fund." Literature relating to the subject on an exhaustive—and perhaps exhausting—scale, has come to your hands from the Commission appointed by the General Convention. A Committee of our own Diocese we selected last year to make due inquiry and to present a report of their investigation at this session. In my opinion, the whole matter demands a thorough study of the modern principle governing pensions, a close inquiry regarding their past history, and an examination, down to the roots, of their demands and their results. There is a certain glamour about the project, as we gaze at it from one viewpoint. The many discussions in the Church papers have seemed to present sides that are neither gold nor silver faces of the shield, but rather an amalgam that may not satisfy, that may corrode. I know nothing about the witchery of actuaries' tables or the myseries of mortality forecasts and their mathematical calculations befog my brain when I try to grasp their scientific claims. And so, I would not dare on this grave matter to give judgment at all. But may I not be permitted to give utterance to some thoughts that have thrust themselves upon my mind, as I have sought to penetrate the veils that seem to me to cloud this new life-insurance system. Is it anything else? Are its foundations as adamantine as the life policies of the higher-grade insurance companies? Have not their immense experiences and their mighty capital given a solidity to their plans, which a new theory, unendowed and untried, as yet, may not possess? May not Andrew Carnegie's criticism of Mr. Monell Sayres' criticism of his colossal foundation be sound and reasonable after all? Calculations and apparently exact numerical tables sometimes go very wrong. And figures occasionally do lie. It is an inexperienced and a non-mathematician and a non-insurer in any company that addresses you. And so all that he says may be but idle words and little better than the phantom terrors of a little child. But at least he desires to plead for cautious action, for the grave look before the final leap. His one desire is that his Reverend brethren in the later day of life, and when grey hairs and infirmity come, should be partakers of the best and the richest of comfort and of care that Mother Church can provide—and that not as a grudging dole or a humiliating charity, but as the richly won honorarium of a devoted, self-sacrificing and God-fearing Ministry. And so he would disclaim any desire to lay a pebble in the path of any wise project bringing to them peace and calm for the fading years.

These thoughts and facts have roused my anxious concern, however. And let me again state that I here formulate no argument, ask no support for my theory, and undertake to give no counsel on the subject to any. I am too ignorant of the whole theme in its mathematics, its scientific workings and its history. And now to my thoughts and facts.

First: The project is new and may I not say, experimental? Of course there are such systems in connexion with great secular organizations—railroads, insurance companies, banks, large industrial combinations and among government employes in the nations of the world.

If I am not mistaken, however, these have resources and machineries of compulsion and penalty which are not in the power and the possession of the Church. A Canon has not the force of a government or of an employer to secure payment of dues or pledges. The voluntary factor in the Church's system has no police authority or punitive power. Obligations—legislated ones—may be dropped or ignored with impunity. Such is the case regarding some just charges upon parishes in this Diocese. I refer you to that painful and discreditable list bearing the title "Delinquent Parishes" in your Journal of last year.

Second: The proposed system—as I understand it—levies an apportionment upon each Diocese of a lump sum. That means an obligation of a certain amount to be paid annually by the Diocese for which it, as a whole, is responsible. Of course, each Parish is assessed a certain proportion of that total by the Council. I believe the amount is 7 per cent. upon the salary paid the Clergymen. For neglect or refusal to pay the proportion determined upon the Parish is not held to account; but the Diocese is under obligation to pay the whole in some way or another to the Trustees of that Fund. The total of annual premiums to be paid by Western New York will be, if we adopt the system, the large amount of ten thousand six hundred and forty-nine dollars. The Secretary of the fund informs me, in a letter, that if the Diocese consents to transfer its present endowments, viz., the Christmas Fund, the Clark Fund and the Ely Fund, to this Clergy Pension Board, the amount required in annual payments from the Diocese will be, notwithstanding, the large sum of eight thousand one hundred and ninety-one dollars.

This would be, of course, an addendum to all the other assessments and apportionments charged to our account in Western New York.

Third: The question naturally arises whether any of the Diocesan Funds legally can be so transferred or even the product of them be turned over, as proposed, to this new organization. One of them, at least, is by bequest, and has certain requirements embodied in the will.

Two weeks ago, or thereabouts, the Diocese of Pennsylvania, after a hot and long discussion—by a majority, I know not how large or how little—decided to adopt the plan of this Clergy Pension Fund. This action has stirred opposition on behalf of the “Christmas Fund” of that Diocese and according to the newspapers, a great Church legal battle in the courts, which may go finally to the Supreme Court of the United States, is now impending. It is claimed that “one of the cardinal principles of trust laws is that trustees may not either delegate their discretion or transfer their trust powers or funds to another to act in their place.”

These are questions, however, for men intimately associated with legal matters to pronounce upon, instead of a layman like myself.

Fourth: Is there not peril in building up a large fund affecting so many good people and leaving its administration to a small group of men? The newspapers declare—he may not be exactly quoted—that Mr. Monelle

Sayre stated in a speech at Pittsburgh about a month ago that the colossal Carnegie Pension Fund—$125,000,000.00—with which he himself was associated for seven years—according to the press, is now near the precipice of bankruptcy.

This declaration was vigorously denied by Carnegie himself and by the manager of that Foundation a day or two after its utterance. I only allude to this fact as a matter of interest—or as a straw, telling possible drifts of winds.

Fifth: A frequent criticism in the Church papers, touching this Fund, is that it proposes unequal distribution of money to those who become eligible as annuitants; that there would be no flat rate for all; that, while the minimum allowance for all would be six hundred dollars per annum, others might be the recipients of as much as two thousand dollars a year. The arguments I have read seem to me rather logical and just. Old age means the same weakness and the same dependence upon the strong arm that would help, whether the grey-haired and decrepit brother emerges from holy and faithful labors at a great city Church's door, or a Cathedral's, or a lowly village sanctuary's. It is the same priest's authority and responsibility and privilege that was conferred on each at the ordination hour in that dim past.

Sixth: The "Retiring Allowance" of Western New York fixes sixty-five years of age as the period when application may be made for its benefits. This new Fund sets sixty-eight years as the minimum age at which its privileges may be begun. It seems to me that the three extra years of waiting, at that time of a worn-down faithful stewardship in God's Ministry, makes a vast difference to the weary, infirm servant of God. Twelve hundred dollars would have come to him under our Diocesan provision before he could place his foot on the threshold of the other Fund.

Seventh: A natural question which comes to the thought is this: Suppose a clergyman passes from one parish which pays its obligations in this behalf to another that is in heavy arrears, or is unwilling to recognize any such obligation. Does he forfeit rights that may have accrued to him in the other?

Eighth: There is a Canon proposed by this Fund to be adopted in all the Dioceses bearing upon its interests. I have no copy of it. But on hearing it read once, it seemed to me to provide for very drastic and punitive legislation, in the event of neglect for two years of its payments to this Fund on the part of any Parish in the land.

And now I close by attempt to present considerations that haunted my brain touching this vital and anxious topic. It is in your hands for solemn discussion and for wise decision. My words are only for beacon lights and for safety signals.

Official Acts

My records show that it has been my sacred privilege to perform the following duties of my office in the course of the year:

I officiated at one hundred and seventy-six services of Morning or Evening Prayer. The sermons preached by me numbered one hundred and twenty-six. On various occasions, including Confirmation offices, I delivered one hundred and sixty-two addresses. The number of visitations when I received candidates to higher privilege in the Church of God by Confirmation were ninety-three. As many as one thousand four hundred and sixty-three received the Laying on of Hands in that holy rite.

I was present, either presiding or taking part, at sixty-eight meetings in the interest of Diocesan or general Church work. Conferences held with Committees or Vestries or individual members of the Diocese, or with organizations related to the Church, numbered one hundred and one. Interviews with clergymen and laymen and laywomen on numberless subjects connected with the Church's interests and activities were as many as one hundred and thirty-five.

I had the sacred responsibility and privilege of ordaining three Deacons and two men to the Priesthood. One Parish-House has been dedicated by me. One Church, too, has been so set apart until all debt having been removed the Consecration-day shall dawn.

Two Churches, having removed by earnest labor and sacrifice their financial obligations, were offered by the Consecration service to Almighty God forever. I dedicated memorial windows of great beauty in two different Churches.

At funerals I officiated on two occasions. The cornerstone of one noble Parish-House was laid by me. It became my duty to inspect proposed sites for three new Churches, which are for future erection. An examination of certain Church property in two different places was a feature of my official work of the twelve-month past. I admitted with formal devotions and an address on each occasion six candidates for membership in the Girls' Friendly Society and twelve for membership among the Daughters of the King. Meetings with Trustees of the Parochial Fund have been four in number and with the Trustees of Hobart College two, and of DeVaux College four.

Formal visitations were made by me to the DeLancey

Divinity School at its sessions four times, making addresses to the students.

It was my privilege to join in and preach at the commemoration of the ninetieth anniversary of one of our churches, and to take part in a function when the mortgage of a large Parish-House connected with the same Church was formally committed to the flames, all obligations having been paid. Plans for two new churches were officially submitted to me during the year and my approval given touching the architecture thereof and the conditions of their erection. It was my privilege to officiate at two college commencements and at that of a Church School. It was my unwelcome duty to give decision as to the legal correctness of certain papers in the case of a remarriage after divorce.

Two Clergymen, ordained in another Church, which is in communion with our own, were canonically received within the Diocese by me, in the presence of witnesses after due examination as to their theological status and declaration made as to conformity to the Canons and acceptance of the Holy Scriptures in the terms of our article of the Constitution, and after abiding for upwards of twelve months within our borders.

I have had many interviews with trustees and members of a foreign Church who sought me. But my labor among them proved at last in vain.

Conclusion

As I close this address, memories of pleasant firesides among my great flock, where I was the recipient of lavish comfort and generous hospitality, crowd upon me. And remembrances too,—so many,—of faithful and God-fearing Reverend brethren, tending their flocks, communing with their Master and leading in the way that bringeth unto life,—these rise before my eyes, giving joy to my heart as the pastor pastorum of this dear Diocese. I visited Bemerton, in England, last summer, and in George Herbert's little Parish-Church by the wayside, and at his hearth in the venerable rectory, and in that exquisite garden of the ancient poet's delight, I could not but recall in affectionate thought the honored names of many of my own beloved clergy who, whether in city or on country-side, endeavor to shape their lives and work after the fashion and the faithfulness of good George Herbert's country parson.

I would close with the simple and the sweet prayer of that pathetic suffering cripple at the Christmas-tide, of Dickens' noble story: "God bless us all," cried Tiny Tim, "God bless us all."

APPENDIX I.

(B)

Bishop's Charge

It has seemed to me fitting, in view of many inquiries by my Reverend Brethren on the subject, to deliver on this occasion a brief charge touching the rightful interpretation and use of our Canons and Rubrics. They, as you know, constitute the law governing us all in the worship and order of our Church.

I turn first to the Canon on filling vacant cures. It declares that, "No election of a Rector shall be had until the name of the clergyman whom it is proposed to elect has been made known to the Bishop, and sufficient time, not exceeding thirty days, has been given him to communicate with the vestry thereon." I presume if a party in a parish happened to be opposed to the election by a vestry, which had not conformed to this requirement, and brought suit in the Courts the action would be declared void, and the clergyman be placed in an embarrassing position, which would be most unjust to him, and would be a cruel act. Another Canon reads thus: "The control of the worship, and the spiritual jurisdiction of the parish, are vested in the Rector, subject to the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer, the Canons of the Church, and the Godly counsel of the Bishop."

It will be observed that there are three qualifying conditions for the restraining of any excesses or defects in the administration of the worship or the affairs of a congregation by the clergyman in charge. These are the Canons, the Rubrics and the Bishop. They must govern in case of differences in the Parish.

I have seen the term and title of "Associate Rector," applied to a clergyman here and there—even once in our own Diocese, by the newspapers. There is no such office in the Church. There cannot be. There are also men who bear the title "Rector Emeritus." Our standards provide for no such office. What its privileges or responsibilities or duties are, I find it impossible to comprehend. I do recognize that it is a gracious thing for his people, when a man of God has for many years ministered with tender, self-denying love to them as decrepitude and age come, to show their honor and reverence by bestowing such a mark of their gratitude upon him. But in that no authority of any kind passes. The tie, which is official, is absolutely cut on the acceptance of the resignation of his office. Curates, or assistants—whatever the term for the position may be—are under the authority of the Rector, and have no independent rights so far as their relation to the Parish are concerned.

Another Canon provides that the Minister in every cure shall be diligent in instructing the children in the Catechism, and shall, from time to time, examine them in the same, publicly, before the congregation."

When I was a boy this was an obeyed Canon in all the churches where loyalty governed. There were some clergymen who thought themselves liberal and affiliated with the ministers of the denominations, who slighted this requirement and neglected the catechism and emphasized Scripture teaching. The latter was good, necessary, but the former was spiritual and helpful too. I have stood many a time at the chancel rail of my Parish Church in my boyhood, with others, reciting as one, who was afterwards a great Bishop of the Church gave teaching upon that wonderful compendium of a Christian's duty and belief,—the Church Catechism, and many years after, when responsibilities came and pastoral duty fell to my lot, those solemn instructions, in the sacred place by the shepherd of the lambs as well as the sheep of the flock, in those fresh days of youth returned to remembrance and helped to solve doubts and give solace to other hearts as they were spoken.

But this Canon goes farther in this direction. It commands that the clergy “shall by stated catechetical lectures and instruction, inform the youth and others in the Doctrines, Polity, History and Liturgy of this Church.”

Here is a vital matter. I am convinced that if we, my brethren, act upon this obligation more continuously and thoroughly, the disaffections and defections of the present time, the Areopagitic craze to hear and to tell some new thing would have a larger grasp upon our people; and that the Parish Church would hold them, and that the earthquakes and the foam of revivals and skyrocket movements could not draw them nearer to their mother's breast. The Canon binds us,—is mandatory. Let us obey it enthusiastically in letter and in its uplifting and upbuilding spirit.

There is a Canon bearing on Lay Readers in which is a clause that is necessary for me to read in view of the fact that some vestries, doubtless without knowledge of its provisions, have violated it. The direction is that anyone, acting as a Lay Reader, must have authority from the Bishop so to do, and he shall be subject to the regulations prescribed by the Bishop. He shall not deliver sermons or addresses of his own composition, unless, after instruction and examination, he be pecially licensed thereto for urgent needs by the Bishop.” Let me here say that no person in this Diocese is licensed by me so to act. I am informed that certain of my lay brethren are ignoring the Canon.

Another provision of this law requires,—and this direction touches the relation of vestries to it—that a license shall not be granted by the Bishop for conducting the service in a congregation that is without a minister, which is able and has had reasonable opportunity to secure the services of an Ordained Minister.” This part of the Canon is mandatory on the Bishop and he is constrained to observe its conditions. In passing, let me say that in a few instances, I have asked that the Canon’s requirements be carried out, where a Lay Reader consented without authority to officiate for a lengthened period in a Parish. Offence was taken by vestry and Lay Readers and circumstances revealed that in some of these cases the vestry found themselves in debt and invented this cheaper way of keeping the Church open while they were recuperating financially. Revenge in one case was wreaked upon the Bishop by a misstatement of the case in the public press. But “none of these things moved him” and public opinion of the place sustained him, and the Parish has a Rector and the work flourishes now.

There is still another important Canon which touches the relation of clergymen and congregations to each other. Its title is, “Of the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation.” It reads thus, “A Rector may not resign his parish without the consent of the said Parish or its Vestry or its Trustees, whichever may be authorized to act in the premises; nor may any Rector or Minister, canonically or lawfully elected, and in charge of any parish be removed therefrom by said Parish Vestry or Trustees against his will except in accordance with certain provisions: First—That the party asking separation shall state the case to the Bishop in writing. Second—He may make decision, or he may ask the cooperation of the Standing Committee and the judgment reached by them shall be final. The character of the decision shall be a negative or affirmative declaration regarding the cutting of the tie that binds. Should either party refuse to submit to the judgment determined on certain penalties result.

A Canon bearing on the “due celebration of Sunday” ought not to be omitted from this scrutiny of our law. It directs thus: “All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord’s Day, commonly called Sunday, by regular participation in the public worship of the Church, by hearing the word of God read and taught, and by other acts of devotion and works, of charity, using all Godly and sober conversation.”

That Canon needs no comment from me. It is the utterance of the Church’s will and the Church’s counsel. Brethren of the laity the right question for me to ask as your Bishop—for you to put to your own consciences—is, are these moderate, Godly injunctions being fulfilled in your lives? Is the automobile, the bicycle, the tennis ground, the golf links, the ball game luring you from your Father’s house, or robbing you of the spirit of worship for Him who of His mercy and His mighty love bought you with a great price, and is today and always the bounteous giver of all that you own? I am content to rest my questionings there. Let conscience speak its solemn answer.

And now I turn to the study of some Rubrics touching our practice and order as an independent National Church. The principle to guide in the use of Holy Scripture at public worship is clearly stated. The revision and enrichment, made some years ago, gave a generous liberty or discretion to the Minister even for ordinary services, but he is required to adhere to the Calendar and never to omit one lesson. Two are to be read always, save when the Bishop licenses special services to be used on Sundays, Morning and Evening Prayer in their completeness having been previously said, in the place of worship.

I fear that many of our Choir Masters have not learned the Prayer-Book direction which reads "Hymns set forth and allowed by the authority of this Church, and Anthems in the words of Holy Scripture or of the Book of Common Prayer may be sung before and after any office in this book and also before and after sermons." The declaration respecting the Church allowance in this particular seems to me very obvious.

I know not what some interpreters of Rubrics have to say regarding the omission on the part of some congregation of the recital of the Lord's Prayer at the beginning of the Communion Office; but I read in the first rubric on the Lord's Prayer at the opening of Morning Prayer that the Minister shall kneel and say the Lord's Prayer; the people still kneeling and repeating it with him both here and wheresoever else it is used in Divine service." Whether I note the technical meaning which liturgicists put upon the term "Divine Service" or whether I note the Amen at its close—in Roman letters—I think I am safe to say that the Lord's Prayer in the place named is not a priest's exclusive devotion.

Shall we not note that liberty is not given to any clergyman at regular services to use any Psalms he sees fit? There are the selections and the regular orders for the day of the month.

With a benevolent purpose of minimizing fatigue for the Bishop on his visitations, some brethren have announced only one short Psalm at the service. Well! the departure from the Church's requirement it was that really made the Bishop tired. A direction preceding the Creed reads "Then shall be said the Apostles' Creed by the Minister and the people standing. Before the Nicene Creed are simply the words "or this," referring to the rubric immediately preceding, I take it, and I have no hesitation in saying it, that kneeling at the Incarnatus is not here allowed or anywhere in our offices. I have a great fondness for the Litany. It is rarely my privilege to join in it these days. It seems to have fallen almost into disuse, at least in some parishes. By the law of this Church that cannot be. We are yearning for Christian unity—all of us. Will we not make more headway in that behalf by using that marvelous collect, entitled, "For the unity of God's people," than by making concessions to those not in communion with us and by surrendering trusts either individually or in groups, which are not ours to betray?

Is it worth our while, publicly, to return thanks on recovery from illness, especially if we have asked the prayers of the congregation, in the days of our pain and feebleness? It is a proper question to ask in view of the fact that a request for the Church's thanksgiving is rarely sent to the pastors of the flocks.

There is one of these thanksgivings that is practically obsolete. It is the first of the whole list, that of women after childbirth. Is it possible that the religious world today does not recognize the hand of God in the saving of life at that critical hour? Is man's science and skill alone the power that rescues at such crises? Delicacy must not strangle a holy yearning of gratitude. Who in this place ever heard that sacred "Office for the Church-ing of Women'' said in Church? Were our ancestors any coarser or more indelicate than we are? I trow not. I hear of and see the amazing hordes of books pouring from our modern press in the form of up-to-date novels that are reeking with uncleanness, that treat of every phase of humanity's vice with an unblushing freedom—and they are to be found in the open hand of the maiden and the boy, whose heads should hang in shame as they peruse them. "Honi soit qui male pense," we may rightly say to any who may be critics of this homely but hallowed office of our pure and holy book of prayer.

Of late years there have been interpolations by some clergymen of this land. These have been related chiefly to the Communion Office. The "gradual" has been used by some, and the "Benedictus qui venit" before the Consecration and the "Thanks be to thee O Lord" at the end of the Gospel. These are interpolations. They belong not to our services. They have no place in our offices.

I am wondering whether the longer exhortation in the Eucharistic service is not eliminated entirely—or nearly so—from the hearing of some congregations. The direction of the rubric is that it shall surely be recited on one Lord's Day every month.

Mutilations or omissions from, or additions to, any part of the Communion Office are not permissible under any circumstances. There is no "requiem" eucharist. The Bishop has no power to set forth a special Collect Epistle and Gospel for a funeral occasion—much less the priest.

While a Bishop may authorize special services for special occasions, yet I find that he has no authority to license any hymns for use in his Diocese other than those in the Hymnal.

The administration of the two elements in the Holy Communion is only in accordance with law as we “deliver them each into the hands” of the Communicants, they kneeling to receive them.

May I offer a suggestion as to the reading of the commandments? I know of some parishes here and there in the nation where they are rarely read before the large midday congregation. I believe this omission to be for the spiritual hurt of the people. We need to hear, in a day when standards which are spiritual and moral are lowering apparently in the country, to hold up the divine and moral law more stoutly before the world’s eyes.

When read to a few at an early morning communion this purpose is unreachd. I only present this proposition as worthy, I think, of some consideration by my brethren who would truly edify their flocks.

Reservation of the sacrament has no authority. The consecrated bread and wine are to be immediately consumed, and where it is impossible for the clergy to comply with the command by reason of the amount remaining, other “communicants shall be summoned to reverently eat and drink the same immediately after the blessing.”

At the General Convention, held in Chicago, a ruling was made by the House of Bishops, at the request of the House of Deputies, touching the use of water with the wine. Their decision was that it may not be used “ceremonially.” It was their decision also that only fermented juice of the grape can be used for the chalice in order to conform to our Lord’s own use and to obey His commandment.

“Sufficient opportunity,” declares a rubric, “shall be given to those present to communicate.” This requirement is not fulfilled when the priest, during the singing of the hymn or the "Agnus Dei," turns to the people, paten in hand, and before the choir has ceased, turns again to the altar. The direction is first to complete the musical offering to God, and then to afford the privilege to the congregation.

The allowance in the matter of shortening any service is clearly set forth and definitely limited in the Prayer Book and should be absolutely conformed to, without the departure of a jot or tittle from the plainly stated rule. Otherwise pandemonium will result. Otherwise, one man will claim liberty in one direction and another man in another. The end will be every man doing that which is right in his own eyes. And that will be ecclesiastical anarchy.

We may not, in the public services of the Church, introduce prayers other than those embodied in the Prayer Book—and that pre-eminently in the Communion Service.

There is no authority for taking for granted—without the steps to secure it when it is required by law—the authorization of the Bishop for any proceeding or service. He must not be made responsible, except by his own consent, for any variation from the regular order.

There is no authority for interjecting remarks in the recital of the Collects, between one and another of them, as they are being read. The Church's intention is to keep unchecked the current of devotion.

Neither may any clergyman, as he reads the lessons, pause to enter into expositions of this or that verse as the whim prompts.

There is no authority for replenishing the elements, when—to use the words of the rubric—"they are spent before all have communicated," other than by the strictly prescribed course of further consecration. There is absolutely no authority for meeting the need by the addition of unconsecrated wine or water to the chalice or flagon.

There is a rubric touching the subject of the Solemnization of Holy Matrimony which it is fitting for us to hear read because it refers to a question of nice order in connexion with that ceremony. It makes this declaration: "At the day and time appointed for Solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married shall come into the body of the Church, or shall be ready in some proper house with their friends and neighbors." Let us note here that such services held in tents or in the open air, or in an automobile, or in a theatre, or on a train, are contrary to the requirements of this Church. I quote this rubric because such eccentric and sensational marriages as I have here referred to have been performed. This Church demands dignity, solemnity and sanctity in connection with the ministrations of its clergy on such important occasions of life.

I have again and again in my visitations deplored the "broken altar" or the "banished altar" in the home. By this I mean the absence of united devotions of the household. Are not those two "forms of prayer to be used in families" absolutely unknown in the majority of our Church households? Is not their disuse almost universal? Do your children know where to find those offices in the Prayer Book? If not—and if they are never an element of your family devotional life—is there not a grave flaw, a very quicksand, at the corner-stone of your home? Where is the Bible in many houses of our Church-people? On the shelf—dust begrimed, showing none of the thumb-marks of a daily, reverent use.

There is command that when "the Minister giveth warning for the celebration of the Holy Communion

(which he shall always do upon the Sunday or some holy-day immediately preceding) he shall read the Exhortation'' or a portion thereof.

The Absolution in the Communion Office must be said by Priest or Bishop standing and turning to the people. Other usage is unlawful.

There is a Gospel Hymn incorporated with Morning Prayer—the inspired utterance of the venerable Zacharias, which must be said or sung in its entirety when used in Advent. I mean the Benedictus.

There can be no omission from the Canon of the Eucharist without the violation of the vow of Ordination. The late Bishop of New York refused to accept for years the Letter Dimissory of a recalcitrant Priest who thus mutilated the office and refused to obey the Godly advice of the Diocesan. At last the disobedient and law-breaking Presbyter consented to do his duty and conform to the counsel of the Diocesan.

Judging from the practice of some parishes the evening attendants at worship never hear the Exhortation, and for that matter many of the Collects.

At divine service a hymn can never be substituted for a Canticle, whether it be at the morning or evening sacrifice.

Morning Prayer on Sunday, except there be a Holy Communion following, cannot be abridged by the omission of any of the Collects succeeding the Creed. Is the thanksgiving for a safe return from sea offered often enough? We hear the prayer for protection from the perils of the deep often enough, however.

No extempore—or other prayers—than those found in the Prayer Book, can be used at or after or before Morning or Evening Prayer. It is simply presumption for any man to weave his cotton thread into the rich silken warp and woof of our venerable and exquisite book of devotions. Farther, it is violation of law and a denial of the sacredness of the ordination oath. Above all is it a presumptuous and shall I not say, an unfilial act, to thrust alien prayers into the very sanctuary of the Communion Office, whether we plead for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Girls' Friendly Society or the mission-fields of the Church or the union of Christendom. The rich, antique, reverent and hoary phrase and fervor of our prayer for the "whole state of Christ's Church militant" is sacred enough and broad enough to meet every need, and every longing of a devout soul may find reverent and holy expression there.

No clergyman, who is not canonically connected with a Diocese can officiate therein for a day beyond two months without the formal written license of the Bishop.

Vestries, on one or two occasions, who were certain that a minister secured by them for a vacancy or a rector's vacation-time was not as loyal as he ought to be, evaded the Canon by a bit of strategy—not too worthy—and engaged him for six or seven weeks. The righteousness of such a proceeding, in my opinion, is rather questionable.

A clergyman cannot be called to a parish until the Bishop be notified in order that he may give counsel in the matter, and by General and Diocesan Canon, he must be allowed thirty days for such a conference, if he so desire. I repeat and put emphasis here, with purpose.

No Church property, belonging to a parish, can be sold without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, each acting independently.

No mortgage can be placed on any property owned by a vestry or congregation, until the written consent of the two parties above-named is obtained: Bishop and Standing Committee.

No site for any Sunday School or Church may be changed or a new one adopted until a hearing is held on the proposal by the Bishop in the presence of the Standing Committee and the rectors and vestries of the three immediately adjoining parishes. The final decision is in the hands of the Diocesan, he having received, first, in writing, the opinion of the Standing Committee thereon.

An annual report of each parish and mission, by law, must be sent to the Bishop on or before May first. This is mandatory. Neglect so to do is a violation of solemn vows. One Church has not reported in the Journal for five years last past. Will not the Treasurers of different organizations and funds in the parishes do the Bishop the kindness to report, in April of each year, to their rectors, so that they can furnish the parochial reports promptly, according to Canon, to the Diocesan?

So I present my charge to my people. It speaks for harmonious action and legal order throughout the Diocese in the matters of worship and administration and discipline.

All will recognize, I am sure, that it is with soberness and simplicity that I have spoken. And I ask its acceptance by my brethren, clerical and lay, with the loving spirit in which your Bishop presents it to you.

In connexion with a comparatively recent sensational and at times grotesque semi-secular, semi-sacred movement, tinged somewhat with commercialism, the Boy and the obligation to, and responsibility for him, by the Church, was exploited. With some grace and with some frivolity and some coarseness the theme was treated by one and another speaker.

The subject is one of very grave moment and we should have no trifling with it, but speak stout, frank, pure words. It is too serious a matter in these license-giving days. But the awfulness of the question arises not so much, I think, from the license of the times, as from the laxness of the home. The diversion of the street is allowed to neutralize or eclipse the healthy discipline of the hearth. The club too often elbows the Sunday School and the Church aside. Even under religious sanction rightful piety is obliterated by recreation fascinations. The baseball club of the week-day which on Sunday dissolves itself into a Bible Class and talks about larger liberty towards Lord's Day amusements, is not the need of the time. It simply dilutes religion to a low quality and standard. We must not deny the boy his play. Joyousness is the natural attribute of youth. The merry heart has full allowance from Holy Scripture. The cheerful countenance is no sin. But even the boy must be constrained to serious action and thought, at times,—or he will be a frivolous boy, life-long. Graver concerns than the top and the marbles come into his orbit of life now and again. If not, then his personality is incomplete and one-sided, and he becomes a drone or a buffoon on this busy and serious earth. I saw on the walls of a Presbyterian lecture-room some time ago where I officiated at a service of the Church this crisp epigram: "Where men go, the boy will follow," and this other: "Train up a child in the way he should go; then go that way yourself." They are very direct and robust apothegms and seem to me fairly to hit the nail on the head. What, then, would I say is the treatment for the boy? I would first go back to the parent. There is the root of the evil—or of the health germ. The example there, the character there, the spirit there—these give the first shaping to the boy. The clay is set there, and after chiselling must be with careful hand.

But that household to which I repair, if the boy is to ripen into a man, must have a clean atmosphere. The honest purpose, the pure speech, the cheerful heart, the high aim—these must be dominating elements that tone each day's life. And towering over all, as capstone, must be the fear of God, the love of God's Word, the honor for the fellowship in His family—the Church.

These are simply factors and features that inhere in the bare structure of any well-ordered home. It is only the bald framework of the household. Niceties and adornment and the higher tone may bloom forth—these being present. Out from such environment the boy may saunter and seek his lot and doubtless attain to a goodly career. But it is perhaps the raw Boy, the unenvironed Boy of whom I ought to speak—without the parent that is God-fearing and without the unreeking surrounding in his abiding place—the boy that walks out from the Godless home. He is a problem of the age and he can be a pest in the world.

I hesitate not to say that this Church has a better programme for him than the denominations have.

At the basis she declares his humanity. That is to be honored and treated generously and tenderly, because the Incarnation—the God-man—gave a new place and a fresh dignity to the face and form of a man. And then comes the sparkling dew of Baptism—at earliest hours of life if possible—to cleanse natural taint and neutralize a heredity that enfeebles the moral fiber—to give nothing less than Divine power, the Holy Ghost's grace—to adopt him into a new environment, the atmosphere and the life of the family of God. Then comes the nurture of that household; the teaching which is sane and sensible and solid. Not the spice and whipped cream of Bible story-books and experience recitals and fiery undevo-tional extempore prayers. No! I would give—and the Church gives—into the hands of that Boy the sober practical Church Catechism—that manual which in intensest form and in reverential spirit presents the Christian man's full duty. It may, at times, seem dry and dull to the Boy who seeks to make life only play—but even to him the after days, which bring care and the wrinkle on the brow, will justify its diligent study. And hand in hand—its interpreter and its foundation—I would lift the Bible with reverent hand before his eyes; and for the leavening of that devotional life which even the heart of a Boy craves, I would place in his hands Prayer Book and Hymnal to guide and cheer and stir emotion when in its movings of the soul it seeks expression and finds comfort. I would—as the Church does—handle all these concerns with reverent speech and mien. The things that are of God I would show him to be holy, and not to be touched with irreverent or presumptuous hand, as Uzziah who touched the Ark of God.

I would exhibit to him religion as a manly service, an uplifting power, a gracious cheering influence,—for lowliest or richest or the man with the grey hair or the Boy.
Its simpleness and its universality would constantly be my theme.

Never should its concerns be the subject of my jest or my sarcasm. Never would I dare to speak in the Boy's hearing—or out of it—as did that "Man and Religion" revivalist in Buffalo, who was at the centre of the stage, and perhaps chiefest of the chief speakers in all the large cities—a super-eminent representative of its spirit.
Aiming to be what he thought witty, he said: "The boy with red corpuscles running through his veins wants no Christian with a lady's face like that picture of Jesus with a lantern in His hand." The satire brought down the house and there was a roar of laughter there in Buffalo as I am informed. The same evangelist, addressing a great New York throng, spoke in similar terms, stirring applause instead of rousing indignation and being hissed off the stage, as he said we do not want for a Christ that sweet young lady of the picture who carries a lamb under the arm. The Boy may not have been present on these occasions, but the newspaper met his gaze, and probably often he repeated the blasphemous joke to his companions. It was a man set forward as the representative of religion who thus profaned my gentle Saviour of whom it is said, He shall not strive nor cry. Neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. I want to tell my children everywhere of a patient Saviour. I want to present to them a gentle Jesus. I want to show a benign countenance in the face of my God. Yes! I am willing to see Him displayed to the Boy with the Good Shepherd's gentle mien carrying home the wounded lamb on His own arm and tending it tenderly as He journeys to the fold. The gross boy even will be awed by that, and the boy with the ordinary human heart will be moved to reverential love for such a delineation of his Redeemer. And so I would train the reverent spirit toward the things that are holy and the persons that are divine in the Boy. Goodness should be the goal. I would set before his eyes that as highest manliness. It should mean gentle words, the honor for women, brave defence of truth, generous tolerance, the honest word, a forgiving temper, duty to be done at any cost, daily introspection, the unstained honor, the touch of the calm hand to soothe the bruised soul, the unselfish day and the clean night, honored commandments, vigorous enterprise, pity and helpfulness for sorrow and for sin, the open countenance, the cheerful spirit, the prayer of faith, the fear of God.

So would I present to the Boy his ideal to reach his best self.

These are not weakness. These are the golden graces of a manliness that is Christian and genuine and brave.

So the Church, in its standards and its doctrine and its worship and its work, treats the Boy, trains the Boy, tests the Boy, trusts the Boy—and finally translates the Boy to the exalted plane of a correct, a courteous, a courageous, a complete Christian manhood.

Reports of Officers and Committees

(A) Report of the Standing Committee

To the seventy-eight Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York, the Standing Committee herewith reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1914-15.

June 17, 1914. The committee met in Geneva and organized by the election of the Rev. C. Morton Sills, D.D., President; the Rev. Walter North, L.H.D., Secretary.

On motion, the judgment of the Chancellor of the Diocese was respectfully asked as to the propriety of the refusal of the Cathedral Chapter to permit the interest on the amount held by them from the sale of the old See House, toward the rent of the new See House, the sum so held approximating $12,000.

The Rev. Paul Jones, Missionary Bishop-elect of Utah.

Richard Warne was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders, to date from September 1, 1914.

David Le Roy Leach was recommended for Deacon's Orders.

A special Committee was appointed to prepare a circular on Diocesan Expenses.

On motion, the sum of $327.00 was ordered to be paid toward Religious Education.

January 26, 1915. Consent was given to the mortgaging of the property of All Saints' Church, Buffalo, for a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Your Committee also presents to the Council a statement of what it believes to be a dangerous precedent.

On page 37 of the Diocesan Journal of 1912 appears the following: "The Rev. Mr. Gaviller, for the Sunday School Commission, presented the following amendments to the Canons, which on motion were unanimously adopted by rising vote:

That Canon 6, Title 1, Section 1, be, and hereby is, amended by the insertion and addition thereto of the following: After the words, "General Convention," the words, "and of the General Board of Religious Education and of the Board of Religious Education of the Second Department."

Also, after the word, "sum," the words, "or sums."

Also, changing the words, "that body," to "those bodies."

This would make the Canon on Diocesan expenses to read: "The Standing Committee shall during each and every year levy an assessment upon the parishes of their Diocese for such an amount as shall in the judgment of the Committee be required to meet and defray the expenses of the Committee, and to provide for the payment to the Treasurer of the General Convention and of the General Board of Education and of the Board of Religious Education of the Second Department, of such sum or sums as may be required from this Diocese as their share in the expenses of those bodies."

While no objection can be made to the original Canon which provides for General Convention and expenses of the Standing Committee, it may be questioned whether it is the will of the Diocese to have the Committee pay, without direction, any assessments made by the Board of Religious Education, especially since in the two years of its existence the Board has increased its assessment upon this Diocese from $327 to $654.

Your Committee reports with gratification that three applicants for retiring pensions have waived their claims for the present in consideration of payment of $400 each from funds at the disposal of the Bishop.

May 11, 1915. The Committee held a conference with a delegation from the Church of the Epiphany, Niagara Falls.

An amendment to Title III, Section 3, Sub-section 2, of the Constitution, was presented and on motion was recommended to the Council for adoption.

Amendment to Title III, Section 3, Sub-section 2, of the Constitution:

No lay delegate shall be allowed to vote in the Council unless the Parish or Mission which he represents shall have paid all assessments levied upon it the preceding year; nor to vote in the election of any of the officials of the Diocese, unless all such assessments levied the preceding Council years shall have been paid. Provided, however, that upon the recommendation of the Standing Committee and Financial Board, the Council may grant the privilege of voting upon all questions, save the election of the Bishop, the Standing Committee, deputies to the General Convention and Provincial Synod, to a Parish which for good reason has been unable to pay all or part of the assessments of the preceding year: but this privilege shall not be granted to the same Parish more than once in three years.

The Secretary was directed to prepare reports of the Board of Education and the Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School, also to report and read the report of the Standing Committee and present prepared amendment to the Constitution and Canons.

May 18, 1915. The Committee gave its consent to the sale of a piece of ground belonging to St. Andrew's by the Lake, Olcott.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,
Secretary.

Report of the Warden

To the Board of Education of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Warden of the DeLancey Divinity School respectfully reports as to the condition of the School for the year 1914-1915:

Lectures and instructions were given monthly through the year from October to May inclusive and the annual examinations were held in June.

At the opening of the term in October, 1914, five students presented themselves in Trinity Parish House, Buffalo, the Holy Communion was celebrated by the Warden and later in the day the Bishop addressed those assembled. Two students who had already taken the work of the Junior year joined the following month.

One student, and he the most advanced, was obliged to discontinue study owing to the peculiar circumstances in which he found himself placed as regarded his secular business. His determination is, however, to complete his Senior year next term.

Another student was obliged also by his business engagement to relinquish study with us altogether and a third, late this year, has decided to make more thorough preparation before entering upon his theological course. These are some of the difficulties with which we have to contend in reporting attendance on classes. With some men the effort to keep up with the work of the classroom is against great odds, and experience shows us that, with others, it is only an experiment in which they learn that their preparation in books and in habits of study and powers of concentration are inadequate to the assigned task. The greater credit, therefore, to the school and to themselves, is due those who are able to continue to the end of the course.

Eighty-six volumes have been added to the Library by purchase, most of these being text-books. Aside from these there have been added by gift, "The Consecration of the Eucharist," by the author, the Rev. H. R. Gummey, Jr., D.D., rector of Grace Church, Haddonfield, N. J.; five volumes from the family of the late James G. Dudley, Esq., of Geneva, N. Y.; the complete works (8 vols.) of the late Bishop Grafton, from the Ven B. T. Rogers, D.D., Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, Fond du Lac, Wis., and about 200 volumes from his own library by the Rev. A. Sidney Dealey, of Canaseraga, an honored presbyter of this diocese. A collection of pamphlets and MSS. has been received from Mr. E. E. DeLancey, of Geneva. Mr. William F. Humphrey, the publisher, has presented the School with a copy of the Geneva City Directory and Mrs. William Catterson, of Geneva, has given a number of useful books from her late husband's library for the personal use of one of our more recent graduates.

We are fortunate this year in having been able to complete our files of The Spirit of Missions, and while to this end we have received help from various sources our acknowledgments are especially due to the family of the late H. Dennison, Esq., of Geneva, for some of the very early bound volumes, completing the file from the beginning to the last monthly issue. All these gifts have been catalogued, numbered and placed on the shelves of the Library.

The $75.00 appropriated by the Board for the purchase of books was expended in February and such small purchases, since made necessary, were met from funds in the hands of the Warden.

He respectfully asks for an appropriation of $75.00 for the coming year.

The visits of the Bishop to the Lecture Sessions have been more interrupted than usual during the year past but are none the less looked forward to with pleasure by students and instructors.

The Warden has received since May 1, 1914, on orders issued by the Secretary of the Board, for lectures and other expenses the sum of $550, of which he has expended $521.13. This sum does not include the special honorarium for the lecturers which passed through his hands June 18, 1914, nor the grant for the Library fund as above. The sum of $6.80 has been received from two former students toward the payment of books purchased.

The Bishop of Central New York has remitted $39.99 on account of the expenses incurred for a student from his diocese.

In conclusion, the Warden desires to bear testimony to the faithful and able discharge of their duties by the reverend clergy associated with him in the department of instruction at much additional labor to themselves especially during the extraordinary busy season of Advent and Lent, and to make grateful acknowledgement to the Board for the support accorded him in the discharge of the duties incumbent upon him.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS B. BERRY,

Geneva, N. Y., May 1, 1915.

Warden.

Secretary's Report

Geneva, N. Y., April 24, 1915.

Rt. Rev. Wm. D. Walker, D.D., Bishop, etc.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:

As Secretary of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York, I make the following report:

The terms of office of Augustus D. McLeod and Thomas H. Chew, Trustees, expire on the first day of September next.

The sale of the church property at Bergen is not completely consummated, the delay resulting from necessary legal proceedings.

The exchange of certain property with St. Mary's Church, Buffalo, referred to in our last annual report, has been consummated.

We have sold the church building at Hartfield, Chautauqua County, for $450, and have voted that the money received from the sale be put into a separate fund to be called The Church Building Fund for Missions, to be used for building mission churches.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. ROSE, Secretary.

(F) Report of the Trustees

FOR THE CARE AND MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE EPISCOPATE OF THE DIOCESE
OF WESTERN NEW YORK, MAY, 1915.

To the Seventy-eighth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western
New York, May 1915.

The Trustees for the management and care of the fund for the support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, respectfully report as follows:

The principal of the Episcopate Fund at the present time is as follows—

Bonds and Mortgages as per list appended
on Real Estate.....	$33,310.00
Miller 119-acre farm near Brockport, sold under contract reduced annually by pay- ments of $100	2,000.15	$35,310.15
Notes of parishioners		200.00
		$35,510.15
Walker legacy, made up by mortgage—
Mathias	1,900.00
Kelley mortgage	2,800.00
Cash, Security Trust	300.00	5,000.00
Cash, Rochester Trust & Safe Deposit Co...	5,382.36
Delancy Fund	1,709.55
Episcopate Fund Spec. collection fund....	1,595.81	8,687.72
Total		$49,197.87

An increase over last year of $118.78.

The item "Special Collections" is kept separately on this report in order to show the total amount so far derived from these collections, this amount of $593.28 having been added to the $1,002.53 reported last year. List of churches contributing to this fund for the year is annexed.

The mortgages held are good securities on which the interest is promptly paid. Annexed to the report is a tabulated statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held.

The receipts of income during the year have been as follows:

Received from the Treasurer of the Diocese	$ 3,038.11
From interest on mortgages and notes and money in bank	2,476.56
	$ 5,514.67

Expenditures for the year have been:

Bishop's salary	$ 5,000.02
Treasurer's bond and insurance.....	12.50
Storage Box	5.00

Clerical expenses	25.00
Postage	1.30	5,043.82
Surplus for year		470.85
Surplus to last year		4,637.46
Present surplus		5,108.31

The income and expense account is an open account, and is not figured in the principal of the Episcopate Fund. This money is deposited in the Union Trust Company of Rochester bearing interest at 4%, the interest going into the income account under receipts from interest.

The salary of the Bishop is paid to May 1st, 1915, and there is no other indebtedness.

There has been received during the year special remittances from the various Parishes under direction of the Bishop, $593.28.

These amounts are transferred to the principal or endowment fund and show in the cash on hand in the Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit Company as special item $1,595.81.

During the year the Trustees have ordered charged off the two building lots at Lockport, N. Y., which have been only an expense to the fund since they came into its possession in 1891. They are badly situated, and city improvements ran up large taxes against them, and they have been sold for taxes which were larger than we could procure from the sale of the property. This reduced the fund $474.50, but seemed the only thing to do. One mortgage of $4,200 has been paid during the year and we have taken two new mortgages, one for $3,500 and one for $4,000.

A committee of the Trustees have examined the books of the Treasurer and find same have been correctly kept. Have checked up the bank balances and find the amounts on deposit agree with the figures noted above.

H Diocesan Missions

Rev. Father in God:

Your Archdeacon respectfully tenders his twelfth annual report. During the year regular ministration of the Church has been provided for in forty-three places, in the Archdeaconcy, by the Missionaries of the Board, by clergy in charge of parochial missions, by lay readers of the Missionary League and by the Archdeacon.

The names of the parishes and missions ministered to by the Missionaries of the Board are as follows: Buffalo, St. Philip's and St. Clement's; Allentown; Angelica; Attica; Belfast; Belmont; Belvidere; Bolivar; Cuba; Ellicottville; Forestville; Friendship; Gowanda; Hamburg; Irving; Lackawanna; Lewiston; Orchard Park; Perry; Silver Creek; Springville; Warsaw; Youngstown. Those ministered to by the rectors having charge of parochial missions and who assume charge without any compensation from the Board: Buffalo, St. Mark's Chapel, Epiphany, Holy Communion and Erie County Almshouse; Roland; Blasdell; Brookside; Olcott; Boardmanville; Ripley; Echota; Perry; Woodlawn.

The Laymen's Missionary League reads services in the following places, in the absence of the Archdeacon: Angola; Brant; Corfu; Darien Center; Depew; Franklinville; Springville and Williamsville. The Archdeacon regularly each month officiates and administers the Holy Communion and other duties of his office in the following places: Alden; Angola; Belmont; Belvidere; Bolivar; Brant; Corfu; Darien Center; Depew; East Randolph; Forestville; Franklinville; Friendship; Hinsdale; Irving; Lewiston; Little Valley; New Town; Perry; Randolph; Silver Creek; Sinclairville; Williamsville and Youngstown.

The Bishop of the Diocese on November 10th last raised to the priesthood the Rev. Messrs. J. L. Short and P. B. Hoffman; the former minister-in-charge of Lewiston and Youngstown; the latter minister-in-charge of Belmont and Belvidere; since which time the work of those four places has been well cared for and ministered to by those clergy.

The Bishop of the Diocese on June 30, admitted to the Order of Deacons, the Rev. Messrs. L. C. Denny and W. T. Sherwood. They were at once placed in charge, the former, of Silver Creek, Forestville and Irving; and the latter, of Cuba and Friendship.

The following places have been vacant during the year, whose ministrants were receiving stipends from the Board: Rev. Mr. Livingston from St. Philip's, Buffalo, and Lackawanna, in September; Rev. Mr. Idle, from Bolivar and Allentown, in November; Rev. Mr. Murch, from Warsaw and Attica, he having passed to his rest on January 12th last; Rev. Mr. Ransom, from Gowanda, Easter Monday.

The following clergy of the Archdeaconcy have received stipends from the Missionary Board during part or all the year:

Rev. Harry Bruce, minister-in-charge St. Clement's, Buffalo, and Orchard Park.

Rev. A. A. Murch, minister-in-charge Warsaw and Attica.

Rev. J. H. Herendeen, minister-in-charge Angelica and Belfast.

Rev. F. A. Ransom, minister-in-charge Gowanda and Hamburg.

Rev. J. H. Parsons, minister-in-charge Ellicottville and Springville.

Rev. J. L. Short, minister-in-charge of Youngstown and Lewiston.

Rev. P. B. Hoffman, minister-in-charge Belmont and Belvidere.

Rev. F. C. Smielau, minister-in-charge Deaf Mute Work.

Rev. I. C. Denny, minister-in-charge Silver Creek, Irving and Forestville.

Rev. W. T. Sherwood, minister-in-charge Cuba and Friendship.

The Rev. F. W. Abbott, though not a missionary of the Board, is doing good and effective work in the parish at Mayville. The parish is unable, owing to conditions, to pledge themselves in sufficient amount for the support of a resident member. He is willing to assume charge of the work and minister to those people relying on the offertory for his compensation. He has been holding the services during the year purely as a labor of love. Through willingness to cast his lot among the people he has opened a closed church and your Archdeacon wishes personally to express his appreciation in behalf of the people of St. Paul's, Mayville, to the Rev. Mr. Abbott for his care and pastoral oversight of this fold.

The Rev. Mr. Smielau has continued his work among his afflicted people within the limits of the Archdeaconcy during the year and his report will be printed in the Journal.

It became my pleasant duty and privilege again last summer, for the fourth time at the invitation of the Bishop, to assume charge and be responsible for the services in the Chapel in the Chautauqua Assembly grounds, where gather thousands of people from all over the world,—among whom are many Churchmen, who appreciate the privilege of the Church, especially the Holy Communion.

The following services were held in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd consisting of Holy Communion at 8 and 9 A. M., Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 10:00 A. M., Sundays. Evening Prayer Wednesday night and Litany on Friday night.

Morning Prayer, nine times; 1,350 attendance, 150 average.

Holy Communion, eighteen times; 1,110 attendance, 62 average.

Evening Prayer, nine times; 725 attendance, 81 average.

Litany, nine times; 452 attendance, 50 average.

There seems to be a need of a headquarters or Parish House for our people, and measures were taken last summer. Committees were appointed to devise ways and means and money was raised to purchase suitable land for the erection of the needed building.

The number of Missions contributing to Christmas Fund were fourteen.

Nearly every mission and station has paid its Diocesan assessments, and nine Missions have paid their apportionment for General Missions.

Your Archdeacon desires to express publicly his grateful thanks to the Bishop of the Diocese for the many kindnesses shown him, the fatherly counsel bestowed and advice given me at all times. To the clergy for the encouraging words and interest manifested to me personally; for the many services held by them in the nine missions during Lent; and to the Superintendent and members of the League for their many services held Sunday after Sunday in the many missions of the field.

The Archdeacon does not wish to burden this report with figures or statistics, but he finds it his duty to present a summary of his official acts of the past year:

Morning prayer was said 79 times; 3,573 in attendance; 45 average.

Evening Prayer was said 165 times; 5,150 in attendance; 31 average.

Holy Communion, public, was said 135 times; 4,087 in attendance; 30 average.

Report of the Archdeacon of Rochester

Rt. Rev. William D. Walker, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, and Brethren of the Clergy and Laity.

In making this his eleventh annual report of the work in the Archdeaconry of Rochester, your general missionary finds much of an encouraging nature to set before you.

A glance over the nine counties, in which are located the twenty-two mission stations constituting our present field of labor, reveals the fact that with few exceptions the work has been well cared for.

Some extra parochial work has been accomplished by your general missionary in the restoration of our church building at Victor. This building was erected some forty years ago, in the time of Bishop Coxe. There were then only a few members and the mission under the late James Hogarth Dennis, and others who succeeded him, maintained a feeble existence for a number of years. For the past twelve years the building has been practically deserted save for the fact that within its sacred precincts "The sparrow found her an house and the swallow a nest wherein to lay their young, even the altar of the Lord of Hosts."

The building had become an eye-sore to the town, and a menace to surrounding property; so much so, that we were about to be served with a notice from the State Fire Marshal to either make extensive repairs or remove the same.

According to a somewhat lengthy historical sketch of the mission, published in the local paper, "Two silent workmen" recently appeared on the scene and began operations upon the building, with the result that the Church of the Good Shepherd, Victor, now stands resplendant under a new and highly ornamental roof, while its outer walls have been made to assume a more attractive and churchly form. The interior of the building has also been cleaned, and the broken windows repaired."

Many words of sympathy and encouragement were received from those whose early love for the church led them to "pity her when they saw her in the dust."

Your general missionary organized and trained a choir, and since March has held three services in the renovated structure, at each of which the seats have nearly all been occupied, and considerable enthusiasm manifested. While much of this interest is doubtly short-lived, yet if it were in our power to follow it up with regular Sunday ministrations, much might be accomplished.

A new work has been undertaken at East Rochester, a suburb of this city. The town is an important manufacturing center of about thirty-five hundred inhabitants, some seventy-five or more of whom are interested in the church. There is an unusual proportion of children and this fact makes the organization of a Sunday School imperative.

Since the first of March we have conducted services every Sunday afternoon using as our place of meeting a vacant store which, during the other six days in the week is utilized as a dance hall. A choir has been trained, and a Ladies' Guild and a Men's Club organized. We have enough money in hand to enclose a substantial building, and as soon as a suitable building site can be secured it is hoped to commence operations. For this purpose a liberal offer of volunteer labor has been made and under the supervision of your general missionary it is hoped to utilize this while it is available.

Among the industries located in East Rochester are: The Merchants' Despatch Transportation Company's car work, now covering some forty acres of ground; five piano factories consolidated; The Ontario Drill Co.; Brass Works, and others.

Improvements are being made in the town under the leadership of an energetic Chamber of Commerce, backed by an unusual degree of public spirit.

Aggressive work has also been carried on at other points in the Archdeaconry. Special mention should be made of the work in Yates County, at Dundee, Dresden and Himrods where, under the supervision of Dr. Hubbs of Geneva, Chaplain of Hobart College, with the aid of lay readers from the college, and such ministrations as I have been able to give, regular Sunday services have been maintained. The Church property in Dresden has been thoroughly renovated, and a most efficient Sunday School carried on.

At Himrods a new heating system has been put into the church, a vested choir installed, and a large increase in the number attending services noted. At Dundee services have also been maintained regularly, but there has been little material growth. Dr. Hubbs and myself have given frequent celebrations at these points. The Rev. Mr. Bray, of St. Peter's Church, Geneva, has charge also of our mission at South Phelps where, with the aid of a lay reader, regular Sunday services have been maintained.

Through the removal of Dr. Bush from the missions at Charlotte and Fairport, these places became vacant. These vacancies were however happily filled by the appointment of the Rev. Mr. W. S. McCoy last July, and a renewed interest has been manifested at each point. New pews of greater capacity and convenience have been put in at each mission, and evidences of spiritual, as well as material growth, are manifest.

Other missions in the Archdeaconry are served as follows. The Rev. Mr. Raines of Scottsville, goes each Sunday to Caledonia. The Rev. Mr. Freeman of Clifton Springs, to Manchester. The Rev. Mr. Ehrhard of Phelps, to Shortsville; the Rev. Mr. Sommerville to Bradford and occasionally to Wayne; the Rev. Mr. Lewis to Holley; the Rev. Mr. Bouck to Montour Falls, and the Rev. Mr. Smielau looks after the work among the deaf mutes.

The places under my personal care at present are: Wolcott, Sodus Point, Union Hill, Victor, Hunts, Nunda, East Rochester, Holcomb and Spencerport.

At these places I have held during the year 177 services including 53 celebrations of the Holy Communion. I have baptized 33, officiated at seven funerals and four weddings, and presented seven for confirmation.

I have also attended twenty-six meetings in the interest of the work and conducted Sunday Schools, and choir rehearsals at various points. Aside from this, I have had the care of our financial support and the supervision and financing of various building operations.

At the mission in Sodus Point we have had, as heretofore, the assistance during the months of July and August, of certain of the clergy of the diocese who were in residence at the "Clergy Rest House," and during the fall and winter that of a lay reader from Hobart College. The services and Sunday School have thus been regularly maintained.

At Hunts we have had the assistance of the Rev. Mr. Stanton of Buffalo, and the faithful and conscientious service of a lay reader from this city. Money has been subscribed for the erection of an Assembly Hall, which it is purposed to use for the annual fair, and a social center for the farming community in which Hunts is located.

At Wolcott, owing to its isolation, services have not been held as frequently as the place deserves. Here we have had, from time to time, the valued help of the Rev. Dr. MacNish of the Diocese of Central New York. The mortgage on the Church building has been cancelled, and all local obligations paid.

Concerning the finances of the Archdeaconry our treasurer's report will show that we are still solvent, although our receipts have not been up to the standard. The Advent offering of the Sunday Schools was some forty dollars less than the "high water mark" reached the previous year. We hope for better things in the year before us.

While I am heartily in favor of the apportionment plan for raising funds, yet in so far as the mission work of the Archdeaconry of Rochester is concerned, it has not worked so well as the quarterly offering system set forth by the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The only reason for the surplus in our treasury at this time, is that by various combinations, the expense of maintaining the work has from year to year been reduced.

We ought, in the year before us, to be able to place a competent man in the new mission just opened in East Rochester, of which mention has been made, to work it in connection with Fairport, but in order to do this a generous stipend must be provided.

Victor might be worked in connection with the Church in Pittsford, or that at Holcomb. One great difficulty is to find competent men who are willing to work in the smaller places.

The Church has a message for every community, but its acceptance depends largely on the common sense and personality of the man behind the message. Unless such qualifications can be found I believe it a waste of money to grant stipends.

As I enter upon my twelfth year of service as your general missionary, and the last in my fourth term of office, it is with a prayer to God that it may prove the one most acceptable to Him, and of greatest benefit to my fellow men.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. DAVIS,
Archdeacon of Rochester.

To the Right Reverend William D. Walker, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Western New York.

My dear Bishop Walker—

I herewith submit my annual report for the year ending April 30, 1915:

I have held services (sixteen in all) at Trinity Chapel, Buffalo, and East Aurora. The attendance and interest has been very encouraging. At several services the attendance was between 35 and 38. The smallest number present was 17. Owing to the remodeling of the interior of Trinity Chapel only four celebrations of the Holy Communion were held. The Sacrament was administered in private twice.

I officiated at two marriages, one of which was solemnized in Trinity Chapel. Sixty-two pastoral calls were made. Although the business depression has affected many of our deaf mutes, there has been no actual want among them.

The offerings at the services amounted to $37.30. Five dollars for Diocesan Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKLIN C. SMIELAU, Missionary.

(I) Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The Cathedral Chapter reports that it has on deposit with The Fidelity Trust Company, Buffalo, subject to the order of its President and Secretary, jointly, the sum of $12,322.60. This represents the proceeds of the sale of the old See House and the interest that has accumulated thereon. The present See House, 367 Elmwood Avenue, is rented by the Diocese.

May 6th, 1915.

CAMERON J. DAVIS,

Secretary.

(J) Report of Social Service Commission

To the Seventy-eighth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Social Service Commission desires to report as follows:

Social Service in the Church has a very wide field. Consequent on this breadth the work is not yet arranged on definite lines. The various Commissions appear to be seeking, rather than carrying out, a definite plan of activity. The aim of the Church in co-ordinating the activities in the various Dioceses is developing, and with this development comes a request for financial assistance.

1. The Joint Commission on Social Service has asked the Diocesan Commissions a direct question, viz.: "Should the work of the Joint Commission on Social Service be combined?" Your Commission is of the opinion that an affirmative answer be given, but, at the same time, the members are not blind to the fact that in doing so a moral obligation of financial support is incurred. The Joint Commission asks from each Diocese an amount equal to one per cent of its missionary apportionment. The amount, on this plan, apportioned to this Diocese, is $262. This appeal we leave with the Council.

2. Since the last meeting of this Council, the Synod of the Second Province has been organized, and in connection with it the Provincial Commission on Social Service has come into being. The Chairmen of the Diocesan Commissions were elected to represent the respective Dioceses. The Chairman of your Commission not seeing his way to accept the election, was asked to nominate one of the other members, and he had pleasure in nominating the Rev. A. O. Sykes, D.D.

In order to finance the Provincial Commission each Diocesan Commission is asked to contribute five dollars towards its expenses.

3. In the "Regulations and Rules of Procedure of the Provincial Commission on Social Service," Section 2 recommends that "for the present the State of New Jersey shall have one executive secretary, and the State of New York three, one for the Diocese of New York, one for the Diocese of Long Island, and one for the Diocese of Albany, Central New York and Western New York.

The executive secretary here means a salaried official. Following on this recommendation we have had before us a suggestion that an executive secretary be appointed jointly by the three Dioceses of Albany, Central New York and Western New York, at a salary of $1500 per annum. This would mean, if carried out, that this Diocese would find it necessary to provide a proportional sum of $500 per annum. In view of financial conditions your Commission does not advise that expenditure at the present time.

Respectfully submitted,

PERCY ISHERWOOD,
Chairman.

Corning, N. Y.

(K) Report of Sunday School Commission

To the Bishop and Members of the Council:

At the last meeting of the Council of the Diocese the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

First: Resolved that this Council welcomes and approves the appointment of a Diocesan Field Secretary to assist in the work of the Sunday Schools.

Second: Resolved that this Council empower the Sunday School Commission of the Diocese to select and appoint this Diocesan Field Secretary, said appointment being subject to the approval of the Bishop, the Commission for three years to be responsible for the expenses attached to the office.

Acting on the above resolutions, your Commission appointed as its Educational Secretary, The Rev. J. W. Denness Cooper, who entered upon his duties on September 1st last.

The response to the first letter sent out to the clergy by the newly appointed secretary showed that there was to be a decided demand for the services of his office. He set about his work by spending some time in the offices of the General Board of Religious Education and in surveying the work of the Educational Secretary of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

Material was gathered and studied, methods observed, a collection of those things necessary for Sunday School efficiency was made. During the eight months in which he has been in office this has been gradually added to, so that there is at the present time in the secretary's office some of the best lesson material, and helps in Sunday School efficiency that the Church affords.

Under the secretary's direction, conferences have been held in different districts throughout the Diocese, to the success of which the teachers themselves were the largest contributors. These districts have been formally organized with the idea of promoting local leadership and as a point of contact for the Commission's work. Is it too much to hope that this will in the near future lead to an official Diocesan Sunday School Association with the districts meeting semi-annually and the whole Association annually after the manner of the Diocesan Council?

On invitation of the Rectors, Parishes have been visited, schools inspected and advice given in various directions. Several schools have been entirely reorganized and equipped as a result of these visitations.

It must be borne in mind that the secretary can only go where he is invited, yet he is an official of the Diocese, and the clergy should take advantage of his services and seek his aid where needed.

Almost the entire Diocese has been circularized several times in the interests of one form or another of Sunday School work. For this purpose a mailing list of the teachers and officers has been compiled. Particular stress has been laid on the need of teachers' training. A large class of teachers has been conducted during the past winter in Rochester, led by the Rev. D. L. Ferris. Steps have been taken for the establishment of a Training School in Buffalo which will begin operations the first week in October.

Your Commission endorsed the teacher training course and curriculum of the General Board, and will before the beginning of another school year print an official Diocesan curriculum which it hopes will become a Diocesan standard. To make this possible, lesson material for its enforcement will be suggested, which will meet the needs of both the large and small school.

Your Commission would remind the members of the Council of that upon which we have so often insisted during the past few years, viz.: that the Sunday School is before all things a school, and that it should be organized and equipped and administered as such. During the next two months is the time when every Rector and Superintendent should be planning for next year's work. Therefore, now is the time to make use of the accredited Diocesan official which we have provided.

We believe that we see a marked improvement in methods, and that the Council reports will show a numerical increase in enrolment and attendance in our schools. The work that has been stimulated, as we believe, to a certain extent through the Commission's efforts, should be carried on with even greater enthusiasm and fidelity than in the past.

An excuse often urged for failure to keep a school up to a high standard is "I am not a Sunday School man." Your Commission has obviated this by providing an expert whose duty it is to help you and who is entirely at your command.

We would most respectfully call the attention of the members of the Council to the conference of Church workers of the Province, which, this year, is to be held at Hobart College, Geneva, on July 3rd to 10th.

This conference will be of vital importance not only to those who are interested in religious education, but to all Church workers, as it will also embrace the two great fields of Missions and Social Service. From the point of view of the work of the Commission one would bespeak a large attendance of the clergy and of the officers and teachers of schools.

Respectfully submitted,

X. If a question in debate contains distinct propositions, one or more, they may be separated at the call of any member into so many several motions.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, except (1) to lay the motion on the table, (2) to postpone it indefinitely, (3) to postpone it to a certain time, (4) to commit it, or (5) to amend; and motions for these purposes shall have precedence in the order thus named.

XII. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived, it shall not be renewed until other business has been treated in due order.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A question, being put by the President, shall be determined by the sound of voices; but any member may require a count of the vote; or previous to a decision by count, any three members may require the yeas and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members, and the names of the Churches and Missions represented; and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Or the yeas and nays may be taken by order on the call of any five members, and when so taken the vote shall be recorded in like manner.

XV. No member except the mover may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question once decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Council, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on said decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. Special Committees not otherwise provided for shall be appointed by the Chair.

XVIII. Except by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote, no standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded.

XIX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Council, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved

XX. The Rev. Dr. North presented the Annual Budget which was unanimously accepted by the Council.

The Rev. Mr. Isherwood presented the following report of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese:

To the Seventy-Ninth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Social Service Commission has advised the Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese what amounts are necessary or advisable to be included in the Budget in order to carry on the Commission's work or fulfill its obligations. Included in these amounts are the following: $297.09 for the Joint Commission on Social Service; $5 for the Social Service Commission of the Second Province; $50 as a contingency fund for the work in this Diocese.

Hitherto the members of your Commission have carried on its work without calling upon the Diocese to bear any part of their personal expenses. The outlook now is broadening to such an extent that the Commission feels that the Council of the Diocese should have a larger vision of the needs of Social Service, and be prepared to make a radical change in its administration and provision. * If the work is to be carried out in a manner adequate to its present demands a special field officer should be appointed. The individual members of your Commission cannot give the time or attention needed to produce results which will justify the existence of the Commission.

At the last Council the Commission reported that it had been approached with regard to the possibility of appointing a salaried official who would represent three Dioceses, of which one would be Western New York. At that time the Commission could not recommend to the Council that such action should be taken. Now your Commission considers that this suggestion of a salaried official should be considered. In connection with this, your Commission is of the opinion that the Council would feel more in touch with the work and personnel of the Commission if its members were annually elected by the Council. With that idea in mind the following Canon is hereby presented to the Council:

Whereas, it is found desirable that the Commission on Social Service should be annually elected by the Vouncil, be it resolved, that five clergymen and five laymen, who are duly qualified members of this Council be elected annually by the Council to form a Commission on Social Service for this Diocese, this Canon to replace the present one.

Respectfully submitted,

PERCY ISHERHOOD,

Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. C. J. Davis, the following was adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Commission on Social Service be approved, with exception of the Canon recommended therein, and that said report be referred to a special committee of three members, to be appointed by the chair, who shall formulate a Canon on Social Service and report the same to the next Annual Council.

Judge McLouth offered the following resolution which, on motion, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Bishop, the Chancellor, the Rev. Charles A. Jessup, D. D., Mr. Justice Charles B. Wheeler and Daniel M. Beach be, and are hereby appointed, a committee to inquire as to the desirability of incorporating the Diocese of Western New York, and, in case such committee regards it desirable that such Diocese should be incorporated, then to present to the next Annual Council a prepared article of incorporation to be presented to the Supreme Court, or a Justice thereof, for due incorporation under the laws of the State of New York.

The Rev. G. F. J. Sherwood proposed the following amendment to Title I, Canon 8, Section VII, of the Canons of the Diocese; which, on motion, was referred to the Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be instructed to convey to the Bishops of Ohio the deep appreciation of the members of the Council of the Diocese of Western New York of the gracious invitation to attend the Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to be held in the city of Cleveland this coming October; and that we pledge to them and the members of the Brotherhood our loyal support of their efforts to make the Convention in Cleveland the success it deserves to be.

The Rev. Dr. Sills offered the following resolution which, on motion, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Council of this Dioces in session assembled, having heard with great pleasure that one half of the five million dollars required by the Clergy Pension Fund has been already raised, desires to express its grateful appreciation of the noble, self-sacrificing labors of the Right Reverend the Bishop of Massachusetts, in his efforts towards the raising of the required five millions; and heartily congratulates him on the success he has already attained.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Massachusetts.

Judge Brown, for the Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons, recommended, with certain changes, the proposed Canon on Church Pension Fund for adoption by the Council. Mr. Martin Clarke suggested further changes, and, on motion, the proposed Canon was referred back to the Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton, for the Standing Committee on Constitution and Canons, reported approval of the amendment proposed by the Rev. Mr. Sherwood, making the Warden of the DeLancey Divinity School a member, ex-officio, of the Board of Religious Education.

On motion of the Rev. F. A. Ransom, the Secretary of the Council was directed to send to the Rev. Dr. Regester, now ill at his home in Buffalo, a message of greeting and sympathy, the resolution being adopted, all standing.

The polls were declared closed.

The Rev. Mr. Cooper presented the following report of the Educational Secretary of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, which, on motion, was received:

In presenting his first report, your secretary does so, conscious of the fact that much of the work done by him cannot be tabulated or reported. In his office work and in passing from point to point throughout the diocese, his endeavor has been to be always on the alert to offer suggestions and help in the field which the Board has committed to his care. The only thing that he can ask of his brethren is, that they will view the conditions of the schools and the general Sunday School situation as they are today, and compare then with conditions of two or three years ago. I think that the consensus of opinion will be that these conditions have materially improved. There is a better appreciation of what a Sunday School may be, and a larger idea of Religious Education in general. Schools are better organized, more attention is given to the Curriculum. Properly graded material, suitable to the age of the pupil is introduced. The result has been that increased efficiency has brought an increase in enrolment and average attendance.

A comparison of the Council Reports of 1914-1915 show that there was an increase of teachers and scholars in the diocese of 1675, during that period.

During his term of office your secretary has been solicited to give advice to 43 Schools.

He has visited in Parishes 24 times.

Preached 10 sermons for Rectors on "Religious Education and Sunday School Work."

Given 19 addresses to teachers and workers, and on many occasions made short addresses in the interest of the work, before organizations of both men and women. He has on several occasions had the opportunity of addressing meetings of the clergy, as well as interdenominational meetings. His help has been sought in matter of literature for teachers, and reading matter for boys and girls.

Conference have been held in various districts of the Diocese at which there has been a good attendance of workers. Dates for five more such Conferences have been arranged, three of which will be held within the next two weeks.

During the past winter an Interparochial Training School was held for teachers in Rochester, with two courses. In Buffalo, a School of Religion was carried on with marked success. Three courses were given, as follows:

15 lessons on the "Old Testament," by Rev. G. F. J. Sherwood.

25 lessons on the "Pedagogy and Child Study," Rev. Rolf P. Crum.

10 lessons on the "Life of Christ," by Rev. C. A. Jessup, D. D.

The enrollment was: Old Testament, 40; Life of Christ, 47; Religious Pedagogy, 54.

Certificates will be granted by the General Board of Religious Education to those who were successful in passing the examinations. These certificates will be presented at a Conference of the Sunday School workers of the Buffalo District, to be held the beginning of the second year of the School in October. It is proposed next year to offer five courses at the school.

Your Secretary cannot too strongly urge upon Rectors and Superintendents the necessity of forming either Parish or Community Training classes for Teachers. With the many Training class manuals, which he is prepared to recommend, this ought to be comparatively an easy task. He has found that everywhere the teachers want to be taught and are only waiting for leaders.

With the approval of the Diocesan Board, a Questionnaire was sent to the Rectors or Superintendents of Schools throughout the Diocese. The data received proved interesting and in many cases entertaining. Questionnaires were sent to 142 schools. There was the old difficulty of getting replies, some cases necessitating three or four letters and thirty (30) for various reasons did not reply at all. Some of the statistics furnished will prove interesting reading.

In 112 schools there is a grand total of 8, 756 teachers and scholars, with an average attendance of teachers 86 per cent. and scholars 70 per cent.

Home departments—3.

Font Rolls—19.

Little Helpers of Women's Auxilliary—39.

26 reported training for teachers of some kind.

(1) Parish Class—2.

(2) Teachers' Meetings—12.

(3) Other forms—12.

7 Schools hold parents meetings.

School Support—61 by School offering, 6 by Parish, 9 by Parish and School combined, 17 Schools use the Duplex Envelope.

67 Schools contribute to Diocesan Missions in Advent.

71 Schools contribute to General Missions in Lent.

56 Schools give systematic Missionary Instruction.

Efficient Teachers.

Men.

Proper lesson material.

Libraries.

Interest of Church People in general.

Christian education in the Home.

It is gratifying to note that the majority of schools express a willingness to be helped by the ministrations of the Diocesan Board.

In view of the replies to the Questionnaire, your Secretary would recommend the adoption by the Diocese of a "Standard of Efficiency" on the following lines:

1. Font Roll or Little Helpers..... 10 points
2. Home Department 10 points
3. Bible Class for adults up to 20 years of age..... 5 points
4. Bible Class for adults over 20 years of age..... 5 points
5. Curriculum of the General Board of Religious Education 10 points
6. Teacher Training Class 10 points
7. Workers Conferences. (Held regularly)..... 10 points
8. Missionary Instruction and Offerings..... 10 points
9. Definite efforts towards Confirmation..... 10 points
10. Corporate Communion for Officers, Teachers and Confirmed Pupils 10 points
11. Parents League 10 points

In closing his report, your secretary would again call the attention of the members of the Council to the fact, that he can only go where he is invited, yet he is an official of the Diocese and the Clergy should take advantage of his services and seek his aid where needed.

He would also thank his brethren for the great help that they have been to him during his short term of office.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. DENNESS COOPER,

Educational Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

Bishop's Annual Address

Reverend Brethren and Brethren of the Laity:

In the name and on the behalf of the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen, as well as the entire Congregation of this honored and active parish, I bid you welcome to the annual activities and legislation of our Council.

The place, with its world's great wonder,—so beautiful,—calls out our admiration of Nature's massive marvel, and our adoration for Him who is the Master and Maker of it all.

And too, this noble Church and parish win our interest and high regard—not alone for the augustness of this Holy Temple of Jesus, reared with consecrated money and by consecrated hearts, which opened its doors to the world for worship on its first day without one dollar of debt to detract from its glory and its real surrender to Almighty God for His honor and worship: but our hearts are peculiarly attuned to it because we witness in it during the administration of the present Rector and those who are co-laborers with him, a living missionary zeal. That beautiful and spacious parish-house, built in recent years, attests hands stretched out to the people for sober and dignified and Churchly social service. That quiet Mission in Echota, labored in, and for, during the many years of my reverend brother's rectorship and displaying rich results; that new Church of the Redeemer built on the edge of this city two years ago, filled with earnest people, glad that their Mother, the Church, has not ignored their spiritual need: that other newer Mission at La Salle, already putting on strength; these solid outgrowths of a zealous rectorship, give to St. Peter's Church the honor of being called a Mother of Churches. We rejoice and are glad that the Spirit of this parish has prompted obedience to our Master's will that his disciples should "go to the next towns" in search for His children who are in the midst of this naughty world, and "His sheep that are dispersed abroad that they may be saved through Christ forever."

I would that everywhere throughout my Diocese this concern for, and this care of the "next towns" graced and made glorious the ministries of my beloved Reverend Brethren.

Neurology

The Church has been called to mourn at the graveside during the year of four of our Fathers-in-God who laid down their burden at the King's will.

1. Right Reverend William E. Toll, D.D., Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese of Chicago.

His was a brief service in the high office of Bishop, he having been consecrated on December 27, 1911. His death occurred on June 27, in the year 1915. Only three years and a half measured the period of his Episcopate. It was filled, however, with labors that brought love and reverence to the Church in that Diocese of many problems, because of its racial variety and its many-languaged people. He went to his rest beloved of hosts of the Redeemer's flock.

2. Right Reverend William Farrar Weeks, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop of Vermont. His was one of the briefest Episcopates in this American Church since its birth. He was consecrated January 29, 1913, and died on October 23, 1914. Only one year and nine months did he toil in that supreme office of the Church of God.

He was a son of the Diocese that chose him to leadership. He had served at its Altars through the years, from the day that the Deacon's white surplice mantled his shoulders to that when a Bishop's robe was removed, no more to be worn in his Master's service on earth. His brief work was well done.

3. Right Reverend George Biller, Jr., D.D.

His too was a short laboring time as a Bishop. He was consecrated in September, 1912, and the grave received him in October, 1915. Three years and one month, the sum total of earnest and exacting and puzzling labors in the vast missionary field of South Dakota.

His span of life too was brief. Born in 1874, he was the young Bishop when he succeeded Right Reverend Dr. Johnson. But he had sought self-denying work in that arduous field early in his Ministry, and experience showed "the shoulder was fitted to the burden." The three years of Episcopal toil had record of high success. But the taxing, worrying labor, unremitting, exposing, suffering, bore him down. And he went home.

4. Right Reverend Robert Codman, D.D., Bishop of Maine. An Episcopate of fifteen years was his. Maine as a working field is "no bed of roses." Its Bishop can not be an idler. So I learned from the predecessor of the recently departed Diocesan, the friend of my early days, Right Reverend Dr. Neely, once a rector of a Rochester parish, at one time the Chaplain of our Hobart College. His tale of endurance and struggle and heart-sickness touched my heart again and again. Maine was indeed a Diocese. But to all intents and purposes it was a vast Missionary District—as thoroughly so as a Nevada or a Western Texas. But it had not then, as now in similarly circumstanced fields—as I believe—the sympathy and help it deserved from the Missions House. Upbuilding and sustaining work begun, needs, for a long time, the aiding hands of the strong. Mountaineers and the farmer, on the arid soil deserve, when they show that they are "seekers after God" sympathy and practical help from their brothers in Christ—especially from those in the high places of authority.

Their fields have not the dazzle and the glamour of Indians and of the black man. They do not appeal to the sentimental and the romantic sense like the Chinaman's queue or like the Igorot or the small citizen of the flowery kingdom. But they are souls. And they are fellow-citizens of our great nation. And they have with you and me a right in the shaping of this splendid Republic.

Bishop Robert Codman too found foundation work as his inheritance, and I am sure was earnest in it.

His departure hence came as a sudden surprise and we all tenderly recall the sad pathos that attended it.

Bereavement has come to us as a Diocesan family, because of the entering into rest of four of my Reverend brethren. Each of them had attained to venerable years and had lived,—three in Rochester and one in Buffalo,—having the high esteem of their brethren and the warm love of very many for their works' sake.

I will name them with tender memory as my loved sons in the Gospel, ever faithful to me, as their Bishop, and also helpful in work which I from time to time gave them to do.

Each was a happy man in the fading years—although infirmities came and suffering racked the body—having the good hope and looking to the eternal day that shall have no night, and in which they shall behold with a fadeless and a limitless joy the Invisible.

To me each one speaks of "the hoary head," in the words of Scripture, "which is a crown of righteousness." Well may we recall those thrilling declarations of our Burial Office, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord * * * their works do follow them."

I now proceed to name these our brethren who have said good-bye to us on earth, and have gone forth to the Paradise peace, and have found the joy of our Lord:

The War

You do not, I know, expect of me that I should presume to interpret the meaning of this mighty conflict which almost paralyzes the entire world today. Its surprises are infinite. Its horrors curdle the blood. Its revelations of man's savagery: Its inhuman cruelties: Its wild beast slaughters: Its reckless destruction of rich heritages of the nations: Its ruthless murders of the innocent and the helpless, by wholesale: Its hideous torturings of its victims, whether from the sky or from the sea: All tell of manhood brutalized, of nature depraved, of human beings transformed into devils.

In consternation and in overwhelming amazement we can only stand appalled and helpless. Some have, in their presumption dared to declare this war a force for spiritual advance. Some, seemingly, with callous consciences, or with perverted souls, have called it God's war. The newspapers and the reckless pulpits have given us their theories and their presumptuous judgments thereon. Some have made it a pretext for denying the existence of the Most High, and some in the wilfulness of their blasphemy have driven the heavenly Father from His own world and laughed in scorn at the idea of His having any governance of the earth. So we learn each morning of fresh sorrow and wilder shame; the blood and the carnage increasingly defiling the trench and the enameled sod which God's hand has so fragrantly and so beautifully adorned. And we shudder, express, and feel, mayhap, a passing horror at the human holocaust—and pass on—and wait until a new and greater agony shocks the world. So the horrible fruit of this criminal war is a vast swarm of chilled and calloused hearts,— souls whose senses are withering and their sympathies are dying away. This is one of the awful and tainting traits of this atrocious war. Who of us but must plead guilt to this personal demoralization, to this corrosion of the finer feeling that marks the Christian spirit, when grief and pain and outrage and wrong are dominating anywhere among the sons of men?

Who of us is as stirred with horror now at the tale of death and wounded men and broken households that each day's cablegram tells, as he was in those first August days of 1914? How the heart becomes almost indurated as each diurnal record of increasing agonies meets the eye! The Christian pulse's sensitiveness to the blood and anguish of war is far from normal, is lowering and shrivelling down to the coldness of a very insensateness. One of the crying sins of a warring time is the development of this hardness in the heart, and of a blunted sense to the misery and the pain of fellow-men. "God deliver us," let us pray, from that lack of pitifulness that closes our souls to the bereavements and the suffering of these great massed battallions of warring nations.

Diocesan Advance

We have all reason, as I think, to feel gratified and grateful for certain pronounced evidences of growth and generous giving, that the year past has manifested. Two tasteful and thoroughly Churchly Gothic Churches have been reared by their congregations in the City of Buffalo under the leadership of their respective rectors. I refer to All Saints', Buffalo, Reverend G. Herbert Gaviller, who is pastor there; and the Holy Communion, Reverend Charles H. Smith, D.D., pastor thereof. These Reverend brethren gave much anxious and able toil to the consummations of plans, fitting and devoutly wished for. Grace Church, Buffalo, is also making a long stride forward. A remarkably handsome Church is about to be reared under the leadership of the rector, Reverend John Ward, and with the most hearty and self-sacrificing co-operation of his people. Ground has already been broken. The plans have been submitted to me; and they are so beautiful and so correct architecturally, as well as practical in their general character, that we can without exaggeration declare that Grace Church will be an adornment to the City of Buffalo. Many beautiful memorials to the departed have been added to our Churches, giving to them a richer splendor and a greater dignity and a higher usefulness for the Holy One.

The neighborhood of Rochester has been enriched by a new Church, reared by the Archdeacon. It is in a large village called originally Despatch. This borough now bears the name of East Rochester. It is remarkably well-attended and the people who have attached themselves to it, as their ecclesiastical home, are enthusiastic in promoting its success.

The corner-stone of a Church to meet the needs of the people at Lackawanna was laid by me a few months ago. It is going forward and its people are very glad. The Reverend G. F. J. Sherwood, Rector of St. Jude's Church, Buffalo, in the spirit of which I have spoken before—not content with his own parish work occupying entirely his hands and his heart and his time—felt constrained also to go to the “next towns,” and so on sound foundations, having the enthusiastic co-operations of his people at St. Jude's, he brought this Mission to the birth and it has a genuinely healthy life. But there is another outcome from this same parish of St. Jude's. Its rector saw a need at Blasdell, and so there too a Mission that flourishes indeed has been established by him. And God has largely prospered the work.

I might tell of other ventures of faith that would make your hearts glad—you, my brethren, who in your loyalty to your own Church, pray ever for the peace and the prosperity of Jerusalem. But I refrain.

Official Acts

My record of official acts during the year past shows that I officiated at one hundred and thirty-four services of Morning Prayer or at Eventide; and that I preached on eighty-nine occasions and delivered addresses to the number of one hundred and twenty-six. I presided at meetings in the interest of the Diocese, or the General Church sixty-eight times. The number of conferences held by me in connexion with parish activities, parish differences and parish new plans of extension—also in relation to different organizations of the Church, and fresh effort for Guild-houses and Churches and Rectories and the like—were forty-seven. Interviews with Clergymen and laymen, in groups and singly, bearing upon innumerable topics and plans and enterprises, and upon Spiritual questions and doctrinal doubts and perplexities reached one hundred and three. Very many of these covered hours of converse together.

The number of occasions upon which I held Confirmations were seventy-five. The total number of persons confirmed at these different functions were one thousand three hundred and six.

I would again call the attention of my Reverend brethren to the fact that some of those brought to the Bishop for the Laying on of Hands this year were younger than they ought to be. They were obviously children who had not reached the years of discretion required by the preface of the Confirmation Office.

My conviction becomes stronger as my observation of the years grows, that none should be under fourteen years who come for the Laying on of Hands. I declare that to be my limit—a rule from which I intend not to depart.

I officiated at two Baptisms and five Funerals. I dedicated one Church and one Parish House and three beautiful memorials in as many parish Churches. It was my privilege to Ordain three Priests during the twelvemonth, also to lay the corner-stones of three Churches. I esteemed it high privilege on two occasions to be present and rejoice with the members of both parishes, commemorating the centennial of their Church life and preaching the commemoration sermon.

I also enjoyed taking part in the happy intercourse of the people of another parish as they entered upon the seventy-fifth anniversary of their family life. It was gratifying also to be the preacher on that day and recite the names of several of their former rectors who were personal friends of my own, now sleeping in quiet Churchyards here and there, throughout the Nation. I made three Episcopal visitations, with addresses to the De Lancey Divinity School and presided at three meetings of the Trustees of De Veaux College. Once did I meet with the Trustees of Hobart College. On three occasions I presided at the meetings of the Board of Managers of the "Church Charity Foundation" of Buffalo. I also met with the Associate Board of that splendid Institution and gave my Annual Address before them. The Church Home League, too, gave me the privilege of meeting with and addressing them on their work. I presided at and opened the new Sunday School at the Church Home with an address. It was my happy opportunity to present the medals to the graduating class of Livingston Park Seminary in Rochester, and to hand their diplomas to the winners thereof at De Veaux College. I met with the Commission on "Alterations and Enrichment of the Prayer Book" by appointment of the General Convention five times in New York City. I presided at four meetings of the Missionary Board in the Archdeaconry of Buffalo, and at three meetings of the Missionary Board of the Rochester Archdeaconry. And I officiated as Chairman at the Annual Meetings of both Archdeaconries and presided at the Annual Gathering of the Corporators of the Church Home in Buffalo. To conclude this long catalogue of duties done within the year past, I announce that I held a unique and unusual service in the town of Avon, on the departure of the congregation from their venerable ancient Church into the new, dignified edifice for their worship recently reared by their congregation on an immediately adjoining site. The service was a solemn office of Deconsecration of a Sacred Edifice surrendered for secular or other purposes. So closes my large record of my year's work. May He in whose name it was humbly and prayerfully performed give gracious acceptance to it, bearing with the defects and neglects, pardoning its failings and its faults.

In the simple terms of the old-time Grace Before Meat, in the English Universities, I pray:

"Benedictus benedicat. Amen."

General Convention

We are all, doubtless,—every one who cares for the weal of our precious Church,—looking forward to the meeting of its great Triennial Council soon to assemble in St. Louis. The possibilities are always large, and are ever serious. How much of the happiness and of the success of that holy Institution which the King of Heaven founded, hangs on the doings of that great body! What vast interests may be wrecked or upbuilt! What false theories and plans may be advocated and what blessed propositions urged that shall give God glory and advance the weal of this poor, wandering and suffering world of today! We tremble as we think of possible issues, of evil or of good, that may afflict or may comfort needing man! "God help us all and guide His Church aright," should be our ceaseless prayer as we come to the foot of the Throne day by day and turn our eyes upward to the Father.

I am sure that you would have me, in this address, give some time to the consideration of topics which in all likelihood shall occupy the thought and draw forth discussion in that Convention.

1. Prayer Book Revision.

A certain matter of interest will be the consideration of proposed Prayer Book enrichments. I think the reverent and conservative Churchmen of the land will be simply appalled by the host of alterations sought for and suggested and pleaded for by the swarm of the unsatisfied with our incomparable liturgy. Were all propositions conformed to, scarce a shred of our dear old Prayer Book would survive. The sober dignity that has held our hearts and given the reverent ethos to our own parish churches and to the stately Cathedral here and there that awes us would melt away, like some iridescent dream. A Te Deum cut into fragments; an altered order of the Divine Office, the Holy Communion, in its several parts; a Decalogue, robbed of about one-half of its solemn declarations upon the tables of stone; a Catechism expurgated; a Litany mutilated; the Master's own prayer—of wrought gold—subjected to rough-handed changes; a banishment of old Canticles that have stirred the Anglican ages at its worship; multitudes of repetitive versicles; the Confirmation Office altered out of shape; the very words of Holy Scripture emasculated or entirely abolished; a Psalm of the Psalter rejected here and there; our prized title of Trinity for the Sunday succeeding Whitsunday abstracted; the Old Testament songs of praise driven from our devotions because a Jew wrote them; abbreviations here and excisions there, as though the law for a modern worship required the very minimum of praise and prayer to Almighty God. The scissors would remorselessly clip everything as though brevity was all potent in this nerve-racked generation, and the Most High was to be content with the leavings and broken fragments of man's heart and time as he enters His sanctuary to present his poor moth-eaten and fading sacrifice. Nor would the proposed "enrichments" find their terminus in subtractions. The lovers of the sweet, solemn simplicity of our dear book of devotions would find their souls saddened and sickened at proposed dilittante and sentimental addenda. It would be here, a fragment of the first book of Edward the Sixth with its flavor of the Vatican,—and there an extract from the Scotch offices with their unliturgical terminology. Here a petition in the Litany against cruelty to animals and there a mediæval suffrage with the pallor and the ascetic tone of a Monastic flagellant. Here the amorous and neurotic adoration toward the Master and there the taint of saints' intercessions imported from Oriental devotions. A very pot pourri would it be, embracing every type and tone of devotion, from the border line of Indian sacrificial mystery to the bald coldness of a Quaker meeting or the incongruous ebullitions of the Christian Science cult. At least two hundred propositions of changes face the commission.

My hope is that the final decision of the Convention, after interminable discussion, will be to take irreverent hands off our ancient, reverend ark of devotion, to leave our noble heritage untouched. My belief is that the babel of conflicting tongues will die down at last into an eloquent silence; and the unanimous voice will be, in the words of Scripture, four words summing up the verdict, namely, "The Old is better."

2. School Text-Books.

Another subject that will engross much thought—and doubtless meagre discussion—because of a near unanimity in sentiment—is the histories and text-books of our schools. We read one and another of them and are amazed at their false and deluding declarations on some topics,—especially those which touch the Church, its origin and acts and history. We cannot perhaps induce publishers to issue new editions from their presses to satisfy the feeling of Churchmen—even though those Churchmen bring clear evidence of the rightness of their claims. But there is opportunity for the Church to make its statement of facts regarding its institutions, its authority and its life—and its Scripturalness.

That—if only the men within her borders will be true to her—her traditions, her direct descent in Ministry and doctrine, her Scriptural foundations—and not katoow to new-born institutions only four centuries old, calling themselves Churches,—as in the Panama Congress,—then in time, the broad world and the coming centuries will know that He hath sent us. It is good, as I think, that at this particular time, when the Church is rent and torn by the action of some members—a majority, in fact, of those present at a certain meeting of the Board of Missions—it is good, I say, that loyalty should be shown by us who are true to the Mother that gives us sustenance and ministers to our needs:—good that the aliens' claims should be shown out in their falsity: good that the unfaithfulness of some within the citadel should be unmasked. The report of the Joint Committee on Text Books, etc., I am sure, will be strong in its revelations of the glaring and unpardonable untruths regarding your Mother and mine—the Saviour's holy bride.

We need an unhalting and unhesitating voice of thunder to go forth from every deputation of every Diocese in behalf of the honor of our Mother. I plead for it from you, my brothers. The power for Western New York is in your hands.

3. Divorce and Remarriage.

A matter that ought to come to the General Convention for final decision is the attitude which this Church will take on the subject of Divorce and Remarriage, for all time.

A Canon on that subject, as you know, rests upon our Statute-book. It contravenes a law passed by the House of Bishops—who, true to sound morals and right social order—ordained, by a majority vote, that no clergyman of this Church shall, under any circumstances, officiate at the marriage of any man or woman whose husband or wife is still living. That Canon from the Episcopal House was sent to the other co-ordinate body of the Convention and, I believe, rejected by them. At any rate, it was not discussed there rightly. The House of Bishops, to its honor, however, has spoken to the world, courageously and with unfaltering tongue, in behalf of social righteousness and the sanctity and eternalness of the marriage bond.

The present Canon is unjust and is demoralizing, to my mind, in that it gives in positive terms, and by direct sanction of the Church, authority to the Clergy to remarry the so-called innocent party. Is there an innocent party in any case? May not angry conflicts and harsh speech in the household sometimes precipitate wrong action? Are there not combinations entered into in order to justify a court's decree by the State law? Is there not often allowance on the one part by non-attendance in the trial chamber to meet the complaint,—and so the broken tie coming through default? Is not each in such cases the sinner? The present Canon also is unjust because the Bishop is grievously wronged. By its terms should any member of his Diocese, divorced, desire to remarry and ask for the Church's benediction, on application by the rector the Bishop is compelled to examine the papers in the case, submit them to one learned in the law, and on his decision that they are in harmony with the Canonical requirements the Bishop must so declare to the rector and the latter has the option to marry the couple, or not, just as he pleaseth.

The Bishop, although he loath with his whole soul such a proceeding, is compelled to declare that it is baldly Canonical. And people report that the Bishop approves and has given his consent to the union. In the case of this Bishop such declaration is absolute falsehood. But the mass of the world can put no other interpretation upon the whole proceeding. This Bishop has been placed in this embarrassing and most unjust position by one of the rectors of this Diocese within a little more than a year. He gave Godly counsel on the subject—against it—but it was ignored. I now give notice that I will under no circumstances give favor or countenance, of the remotest sort, to any remarriage of a divorced person. And I claim the right as their Father in God to advise my Clergy against the performance of such an office. Have you observed the enormous growth of this hideous curse? I call it no less than a curse. It is poisoning society. It is killing morals. It is tainting the Church. I took up a Philadelphia paper last week—a daily—and lo! on one page there were nearly three great columns given to applications for and decrees of divorce. I counted the number and to my horror I found that they were—shocking to relate—forty-eight in all.

How can a Nation be happy and blessed of God which is smitten by so unclean and leprous a scourge? Philadelphia is not alone in this reign of filth. Many cities otherwheres in this land are reeking with this horror. Even our Buffalo, to a degree, has been infected by this disease. A noted lawyer in Fargo, N. D., as I was leaving there to come to Western New York, nineteen years ago, told me that within that winter three hundred candidates for divorce had come there to abide for six months. And at the end of that period they would doubtless “seek pastures new,” and try it again. “Why,” said he, “it is the most profitable industry in this State.”

The statistics of these United States show that tens of thousands of divorces are granted in the courts annually. And each year shows a steady and extensive increase.

Should not then this Church of ours, with ringing voice, and in trumpet tones, proclaim shame, shame to it, and no longer, forever, touch the unclean thing?

4. Church Pension Fund.

The upbuilding of the Five Million Dollar Pension Fund grows apace. In accordance with the request of the Central Committee I appointed a Committee of twenty laymen in this Diocese to co-operate with them in furthering the work. I have not as yet learned their plan of operations, or the amount of labor done, or the success crowning their efforts. I take it for granted that some of the deep purses of our loyal laymen will be widely opened to the just appeal. I had pleasure in joining the band of about fifty of my Right Reverend brethren who, on a fixed Sunday, preached on the subject in the Churches of their Dioceses where they officiated.

I find that there are many of our good laymen who are glad that our Diocese has fallen in line with the many others who have accepted the system. Time is a dominant factor in the good cause.

I need not tarry to present or to plead the matter. You are all familiar with its justice, its many arguments that clearly justify it—and its convincing literature. And so I leave it to your thought, and your zeal, and your helpfulness toward its success.

5. Discord.

A subject of mightiest importance that was introduced into the House of Deputies, passed there, and rejected by the House of Bishops, may be reintroduced this year and become a very dynamite bomb, a destructive and malignant cancer on the body of the Church. It has had the effect to throw the Church of God into a seething caldron. Brother is at variance with brother. One section is arrayed against another section. Partisan spirit, energetic and bitter, has suddenly flashed into a fierce conflagration. Revenge has vented itself on individuals by groups of Christian men. And the merry world jeers and the malicious skeptic sneers and the evil-liver satirizes and the brother Christians of other names laugh, and the old jest of the first century, with its double entendre, is being revived as a modern joke, while the Gallio-like men look on, crying, "Behold how these Christians love one another!"

And my deep sorrow is that the apple of discord which has so divided the Church; that the cannon-ball which shot in on the comparatively peaceful vineyard of the Master, wounding and lacerating such a host, emanated from this Diocese.

I, the Bishop of Western New York, gave my voice against it, and my ballot too. And so I was at variance. It grieves me that such a position was of necessity taken by me—with three of my flock, honored brethren, in the other house—who voted the other way.

Now the Diocese of Western New York has stood in the past for primitive teaching (that of the early Church), for Faith and Order as this Church, of which it is an integral part, hath received the same.

Learned Bishop Hobart, refined Bishop De Lancey, elegant and enthusiastic Bishop Coxe, each in personal and official attitude contended for Anglican, Protestant, yet Catholic doctrine, and for loyal holding of the principles of the Primitive Church. They deferred not to Rome—and they warned of the peril and the hurt to religion and to souls, by contact with the Modernism and new, unscriptural teaching of the modern sect. Each of them honored personal piety where it existed under any name. But each of them, in strong terms, from time to time, in the pulpit, or from the chair of the Annual Council, rang out in bell-like tones their cautions against post-Reformation organizations built on fragments of the faith and speaking modern shibboleths.

Old foundations; primitive doctrine; an Apostolic Church; an unbroken Ministry since the Master's day; an unexpurgated Scripture (Bible),—a life lived under the Mother's guiding, and within the Mother's family, and with a loyalty never varying, to her,—these were the royal teachings of these sage men of God. They and the faithful flock, in pulpit and in pew, that companioned with them, gave a holy flavor to the atmosphere of the Lord's family here. Brethren! ours is a goodly heritage. In those days of our fathers God's work was wrought meekly and reverently in the holy Saviour's holy name.

His sacred truth and His divine, life-giving Sacraments, and the precious Institution He founded, were held firmly in honor, and men gloried in them "with loyal hearts and true."

Fellowship with the self-separated; co-operation with new-born ecclesiastical systems; union with error-teaching doctrinaires on a common platform,—for Missionary achievement, or for ecclesiastical surrenders, or for a modified dogma, were deemed impossible and a dishonest betrayal of trust. God, in their eyes, was "in the midst of His Church," and therefore, by them, "she was not to be wounded, altered or removed."

When new theories, or so-called progressive order, was given voice to, in Church Congresses or Missionary Board Meetings,—for there were ecclesiastical iconoclasts in those days as now,—or in sessions of the General Convention, the Bishops of this Diocese and its Deputies, with firm front and a brave devotion, ever stood for the ancient order and the Apostles' faith.

Fresh nostrums and novel machinery won not their affection or their support, but rather their stout defiance and their honest challenge and their warm denunciation. The records of the long years show staunch loyalty and vigorous love, and an unblemished zeal, and a deathless service for the Divine organization of which it was a component part. The traditions of our Diocese, all through the years, in the matter of obedience to the Master's will and of devotion to the Church's weal stand forth golden and bright with the splendor of the midday sun on a summer's day. I say again, ours is a goodly heritage and a shining past.

I need not say that the recent Pan-Protestant Congress at Panama has prompted these words at my lips. The history thereof and of our relation to it is a sad and an unworthy story. The last Triennial Convention, as you know, voted against giving allowance to the Board of Missions,—its servant,—to send delegates from our Missionary Board to that Congress. The Board, ignoring the Convention's command, proceeded at the instance of the President, as I am informed, to name delegates. A protest, strong and fearless, by several in the Board, was made against such disloyal action. There was the tragic and justifiable resignation from that body by five of its members. They respected the voice of the collective Episcopate, as well as the individual voice of each individual Bishop who was one of the majority that rejected the proposition. Each of those Bishops was to them a Father-in-God, the Lord's Anointed. (Let me digress for a moment to say that the proposition came late in the session, and late on the day when it was considered and many of the Right Reverend brethren had left the house, who to my certain knowledge would have voted against the allowance).

There is now unrest and grave anxiety throughout the Church. Some are hinting at the wisdom of founding another Missionary Society which will with unhesitating loyalty obey its rightful head—the General Convention. This would be a calamity for the Church. But some are clearly convinced that such lawless and reckless defiance of the superior authority encouraged will eventually breed pandemonium in the Church. I look on this amazing action of the Board as one of the most calamitous occurrences in the history of this Church for a century. It is not a buried phantom. It is a living volcano, as I believe, today. The defiance of authority—as this proceeding was—shakes confidence in the integrity of the organization upon which the Church lays the solemn and responsible privilege of Church extension. It is not a nine days' wonder. It is an open sore,—nay! a cancer, growing with time, that kills at last.

I am not here making an apology or an explanation to any one for my action in voting as I did. I am, as your Bishop, giving, from an experience of thirty-two years in the Episcopate, warning and knowledge and counsel regarding the serious possibilities to the Church when a small committee shows contumacy toward the constituted authority.

But there are very grave spiritual reasons for non-association with the Congress at Panama as proposed.

(1) Some of the original announcements were to the effect that the lands in which it was proposed to hold the Conference were corrupt and that immorality was very prevalent among priests and people, etc.

(2) A proposition made was that there should be only one organ (newspaper) for the combined Protestant sects as well as the Church.

(3) That the text-books should be the same for all bodies on religious matters.

(4) That letters of transfer should be furnished to the faithful, when they desired them, to any of the other Christian bodies in the combination.

All these were preposterous, simply impossibilities for us, making the claim for our Church that we do. It would be simply self-stultification.

A factor, which was a serious one, was that the Roman Catholic Church was not at first invited to send delegates, although the meeting was to be held in territory where it had large following and chief influence.

Possibly these propositions and statements were modified later. But the facts above related, although perhaps not accurate in terms, show the animus and the color of that congress.

You know about the scandal of one of the Bishops consenting to serve on the Continuation Committee, even after the Board of Missions commanded that the delegates should in no particular conform to any plans proposed, or commit them, or the Church, to any policy proposed or entered upon.

6. Federation of Churches.

A resolution that reached the House of Bishops from the other house was one proposing that relations of an intimate character be established with the so-called Federation of Churches. I am glad to say that it was speedily rejected by our House. I trust it will remain in the sepulchre to which it was consigned. The claim of the opponents of this proposition was that, instead of developing Christian unity, it would accentuate the present separations of Christian bodies; that "federation" means distinct unorganization of the different varying denominations, and so organized unity would be falacious under that society.

Such a claim is thoroughly justified by a recent published statement of Professor Shailer Mathews, the President of the "Federal Council of Churches." He declares that the "Federal Council does not favor organic union of denominations." He states its attitude clearly and in direct terms as he adds, "The fundamental position on which it is based is that the denominations are not to disappear." Under such conditions unity would be no more than a child's dream, a figment of the imagination, a fairy tale.

On sound lines this Church is suggesting, by authority of its General Convention, a modest plan by which a Conference—only a Conference—of all the bodies—none to be omitted—calling themselves Christian, Oriental or Occidental, of Reformation origin or of Apostolic age—could, or rather might, meet together through constituted representatives and discuss the differences that keep them apart. The Committee appointed by the Church has realized the enormous hindrances to any sort of unity being consummated until long, long years, and hosts of conferences have been held. And they also realize that a united Protestantism is not the need, but that the Ancient Churches of the East,—Apostolic in their origin,—need to be linked to Anglican and Western Christianity, that they may, as Orthodox Systems, be saved. Time only and contact and prayer can break the ice and cause to flow together these alienated peoples. The unity of the whole of Christendom—not of a part of it—is what the Master asks and what this Church aims at and prays for. The sporadic acts and the individual concessions or labors of this or that self-appointed go-between, who misrepresents his Church as he tries, by his practical betrayal of his Mother, to conciliate the aliens in conforming to them and their usage are vain. Those beyond us know our theory and teaching in these matters. I have known them to laugh at the over-zealous and unwise and presumptuous brother who bows the knee to their Baal or makes himself at home in their house of Rimmon without the credentials authorizing him as ambassador to bear a message. Only as the Body speaks through its accredited envoy will recognition be given or will aught avail. Honest Christianity on the basis of Apostle doctrine and fellowship and Apostle institutions is the thing to be yearned after. No yielding of principle, no conformity to non-conformity, by one individual or another in this Church, is just to the Church or will succeed in the winning of men to an attempt at a unified Christianity for which he has only personal theories and independent plan to offer.

Conclusion

My address here ends. To you who have shown yourselves—as some have not—so loyal to me, your Bishop, I offer my sincere thanks.

It is a delight to clasp the hands of such in my goings among you and to wish you a God-speed in the name of the Lord.

More work is to be done in this Council. God the Holy Spirit bless and guide us in it all.

(B) De Lancey Divinity School

Report of the Board of Education

To the Seventy-Ninth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York.

The Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School herewith present their reports of official acts for the Diocesan year 1915-16.

June 20, 1915—The Board met and organized by the election of the Rt. Rev. W. D. Walker, D. D., LL. D., President; the Rev. Walter North, L. H. D., Secretary.

No further business was transacted by this Board of Trustees. All of which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH, Secretary.

Report of the Warden

As the successor of "a Diocesan School" begun in April, 1850, by the Right Reverend William Heathcote DeLancey, D. D., first Bishop of Western New York, the DeLancey Divinity School counts this its sixty-sixth year of service, and as "The DeLancey Divinity School," so named by Bishop Coxe in 1866 in honor of its Founder, who had himself given a large part of its original endowment, it celebrates this year its semi-centennial.

This celebration consists only in pursuing the even tenor of its way in quiet and unapplauded work, in the strength which God gives and under His blessing. But, looking back through the years, those of us who are now engaged in its active interests are encouraged in our work and proud of our association with those whose labors have been transmitted, in turn, to our hands and hearts. As we think of DeLancey, and Coxe, and Wilson, and Hale, and Rankine, and Edson, and Hayes, among the instructors; and Whipple, and Paret, Neely, and Welles, Theodore M. Bishop, Joseph M. Clarke, Osgood Herrick, Anthony Schuyler, William T. Gibson, Napoleon Barrows, Duncan C. Mann, and many others, who received at least a part of their preparation for Holy Orders in this School, and were "lights of the world in their several generations," we give God thanks for what the DeLancey Divinity School has been permitted to accomplish, while we seek His blessing on the work and on the workers in the years to come.

In this connection it may not be out of place to quote from two letters recently received by the Warden from two of our graduates now engaged in the active work of the Ministry.

"On account of ill-health after graduation from college I entered business life, hoping later to prepare for the Ministry. My business life weaned me far away from this idea and I found it hard to overcome a prejudice against theology when, subsequently I began to attend the lectures, etc., in the DeLancey Divinity School. But my heart and my life were warmed and my early enthusiasm for the Ministry was rekindled by the kind words of the instructors and the brotherly spirit of the students. It is a trying period in every earnest man's life, and the atmosphere of the school was just what I needed. So, I say, now and always, May God bless the work of the DeLancey Divinity School."

"The DeLancey Divinity School has made possible for me the greatest happiness a man may know—that of being a happy priest to his people, and I am that beyond expectation."

With the close of another year the Warden respectfully reports as to the condition of the School for the twelvemonth just ended.

Monthly lectures and instructions were given from October to May, both inclusive, and the annual examinations were held in June on the work of the previous year.

Four students have been in regular attendance: Messrs. John Sagar and William S. Salisbury, from Niagara Falls; Mr. Ferd W. Goldsmith, from Honeoye Falls, and the Rev. A. Tracey Doughty, from Homer, in the Diocese of Central New York. Mr. Sagar and Mr. Salisbury graduate with the close of the present term.

We look with confidence to the parochial clergy of both dioceses to recommend the School to such men as may be considering preparation for Holy Orders and whose circumstances prevent their entering schools where daily attendance is required.

Of the $75.00 appropriated by the Board for the purchase of books, $53.89 has been expended, leaving a balance in bank of $21.11. An appropriation of $75.00 is asked for the current year.

The Warden has received since May 1, 1915, on orders issued by the Secretary of your Board on the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund, the sum of $490.00, of which he has expended for lectures and other expenses $429.71, leaving in his hands a cash balance of $60.29. The Bishop of Central New York has remitted $26.69 for expenses incurred for a student from his diocese. In addition to the above there has been received the honorarium for the lecturers, of $700.00, which passed through the Warden's hands July 9th, 1915, and the grant for books of $75.00 as above accounted for. The sum of 12.60 has been received from three former students in payment for books purchased by them from the School.

By direction of the Board the Warden prepared and issued the School Catalogue for 1915-1916.

We gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to the Rectors of Trinity Church, Buffalo, and Trinity Church, Geneva, for the use of rooms in their parish houses in which to meet the classes from time to time.

The Warden, again, gladly records the conscientious faithfulness with which the reverend clergy associated with him have discharged their duties as lecturers and instructors, not always confining their labors on behalf of the students to the time spent in the class-rooms.

The enforced interruption of the Bishop's much appreciated visits to the sessions of the School is sincerely regretted by all of us.

In conclusion, the Warden tenders his thanks to the Board for the support given him in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS B. BERRY,
Warden.

(E) Report of the Trustees

FOR THE CARE AND MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND FOR THE
OF WESTERN NEW YORK, MAY, 1916.

To the Seventy-ninth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York, May, 1916:

The Trustees for the Management and Care of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York respectfully report as follows:

The principal of the Episcopate Fund at the present time is as follows:

Bonds and mortgages as per list appended on Real Estate	$33,310.00
Miller 119-acre farm near Brockport, sold under contract reduced annually by payments of $100.....	2,000.15	$35,310.15
Notes of parishioners		200.00
		$35,510.15
Walker Legacy, made up by:
Mortgage, Matthias	$ 1,900.00
Kelley Mortgage	2,800.00
Cash, Security Trust.....	300.00	5,000.00
Cash—Rochester Trust & Safe Deposit Co.
Principal	$5,382.36
DeLancy Fund	1,709.55
Principal	2,086.43	9,178.34
		$49,688.49

(This last item represents total receipts of special collections).

The cash item of special collections is of course a part of the principal of the Episcopate Fund. It is kept separately on the books merely to show the amount received each year from this source.

The total receipts for this fund for this year was $490.62, or $102.66 less than last year.

The list of churches contributing to this fund is hereto annexed.

The mortgages held are good securities on which the interest is promptly paid. Annexed to the report is a tabulated statement showing the particulars of the mortgages held.

Receipts of income this year have been as follows:

Received from the Treasurer of the Diocese.....	$3,285.92
From interest on mortgages and bank balances.....	2,585.97
	$5,871.89

Expenditures for the year have been:

Bishop's salary	$5,000.00
Treasurer's bond and insurance.....	12.50
Storage box	5.00

Clerical expenses	25.00
Audit	20.00
Postage	1.16
Refund from income to principal of Endowment Fund, explained below....	13.27	5,076.93
		<hr/>
Surplus income over expense for the year		$ 794.96
Add surplus of report May, 1915.....		5,108.31
Present surplus income over expense....		$5,903.27

The footing of $5,903.27 called surplus is of course an asset of the principal fund, and a part of the same, but it is not added to the principal as shown in the report, but carried in a separate account to show increase in income over expense. In 1906 this excess was but $229.00. This money is deposited in the Union Trust Company of Rochester, bearing interest at 4 per cent, the interest going into the income account under Receipts from Interest.

The explanation of refund charged expenses is as follows:
Last year the Treasurer sent us two items— Stafford $6.11
St. Mark's, LeRoy 7.16
————— 13.27

which he understood were sent as payments of assessments affecting income. It developed later that these were special collections and belonged to that account; they were therefore charged income in Treasurer's account, reducing the amount as received for this year, and were at the same time credited to special collection account, items 5 and 6 on the report of this year of such special collections.

The salary of the Bishop is paid to May 1, 1916, and there is no other indebtedness.

A committee of the Trustees have examined the books of the Treasurer and find same have been correctly kept. Have checked up the bank balances and find the amounts on deposit agree with the figures noted above.

The books of the Treasurer have also been examined by a certified public accountant and found correct. His certificate is attached hereto.

(G) Diocesan Missions

Report of the Archdeacon of Buffalo

To the Rt. Rev. William D. Walker, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese.

Rev. Father in God:

Your Archdeacon respectfully tenders to you this thirteenth annual report of the work performed by him during the past year. My whole time has been spent in the field without the usual vacation. There are some fifty-one places in the Archdeaconry where regular services of the Church are maintained and provided for, as follows:

1. By the Missionaries of the Board who receive stipends.
2. By the Rectors in charge of Parochial Missions.
3. By the members of the Laymen's Missionary League.
4. By the Archdeacon of Buffalo.

The work, as it appears to me, is well cared for and sustained.

(1) The following Clergymen of the Archdeaconry have received stipends from the Missionary Board during part or all the year:

Rev. Henry Bruce, in charge of Hamburg and Orchard Park.
 Rev. J. H. Herendeen, in charge of Angelica and Belfast.
 Rev. J. H. Parsons, in charge of Ellicottville and Springville.
 Rev. R. A. Russell, in charge of Warsaw and Attica.
 Rev. W. J. E. Harris, in charge of Gowanda and Newtown.
 Rev. J. L. Short, in charge of Youngstown and Lewiston.
 Rev. P. B. Hoffman, in charge of Belmont and Belvidere.
 Rev. L. C. Denny, in charge of Silver Creek, Irving and Forestville.

Rev. W. T. Sherwood, in charge of Cuba and Friendship.

Rev. F. C. Smielau, in charge of Deaf Mute Work.

The Archdeacon, in charge of Indian Work.

Rev. F. W. Abbott, though not a Missionary of the Board, is services each Sunday and at other times when needed, as a labor doing good and appreciative work in St. Paul's, Mayville; holding of love. He is keeping a closed church opened, which, if not for him, would only have a monthly service from the Archdeacon.

(2) The Rectors in charge of Parochial Missions are: (a) In the city: St. Clement's, St. Mark's Chapel, Epiphany, Holy Communion and Erie County Alms House. (b) Outside of the city: Allentown, Blasdell, Brookside, Boardmanville, Echota, Lackawanna, Perry, Ripley, Woodlawn, and Redeemer, Niagara Falls.

(3) The Laymen's League read service each Sunday in the absence of the Archdeacon, as follows: Angola, Brant, Corfu, Darien Center, Depew, Franklinville, Springville, Williamsville, St. Philip's, Buffalo, Public Institutions and hospitals in the city.

(4) The Archdeacon's special work where monthly services are maintained, whose chief service is the Holy Communion, are as follows: Alden, Angola, Belmont, Belvidere, St. Philip's, Buffalo, Bolivar, Brant, Chautauqua, Corfu, Darien Center, Depew, East Randolph, Forestville, Franklinville, Friendship, Hinsdale, Irving, Lewiston, Little Valley, Newtown, Randolph, Silver Creek, Sinclairville, Williamsville and Youngstown.

The Bishop of the Diocese, on Advent Sunday, advanced to the Priesthood the Reverends Messrs. Denney and Sherwood. The former Minister is in charge of Silver Creek, Irving and Forestville. The latter Minister is in charge of Cuba and Friendship. Since the ordination to the Priesthood of these two Deacons the places under their respective charges have been well cared for and ministered to by them.

In reviewing the work of the Archdeaconry for the past year, we find much to encourage us, and yet it has been for the most part the caring for the work at hand, and very little time to do much aggressive work. One Mission has been organized and received its name. We have met with some losses in our working force. It is with regret that we parted from them, as they saw fit to seek work elsewhere. The demand for men—that is, the right kind of men—is great. It is not an easy matter to secure Priests for our smaller parishes and groups of missions. The frequent changes are hurtful to the work, and it is to be deplored. The work of the Church languishes for the want of hands and hearts to carry it on. The work cannot be satisfactory while one man is trying to do it all. We are not to blame. We have done our best, and can only feel sad to think we have been hindered in our efforts to make the work more efficient and a greater blessing in the Archdeaconry.

It was the pleasant duty of the Archdeacon, at the request of the Bishop of the Diocese, to assume charge of the services again during last summer at the Good Shepherd Chapel, Chautauqua. It may not be amiss to give a brief statement of the work in the summer city where thousands of people gather, among whom are many of our faith. There is here a very neat chapel in the assembly grounds. It was built some years ago out of funds and offerings gathered from the summer visitors at Chautauqua. The Chapel is situated at the east end of the ground, beyond the Hall of Philosophy and close by the Hall of Christ. Its position is an excellent one. The services are held during the assembly season, July and August. Each Sunday there are two celebrations of the Holy Communion, at eight and nine A. M.; and Morning Prayer at ten A. M. Wednesday, Evening Prayer, and Friday, Evening Litany. The effects of the services are far-reaching to the Churchmen and others who come from all parts of the country, meeting together during the season, receiving the benefits of the services of the Church and the personal contact of the Minister-in-charge. It is a work which ought to be well supported by the Churchmen everywhere, and we venture to think, by our own Diocese. A headquarters should be erected and made attractive, to compare favorably with the public buildings on the grounds, and the headquarters of the other Christian bodies. The work and appliances for the house should be supported in such a manner as in accordance with the honor and dignity of your Church. This cannot be done without the spiritual interest and temporal offerings of our people. Why do we allow ourselves to come behind as compared with our fellow Churches of other names? The chapel and headquarters at Chautauqua should be placed in a position which it ought to occupy. This work is the Church's work, since it is the work of the Church Universal, in which we are all members in particular. Don't say it is only the duty of the Church people who go to Chautauqua. It is theirs indeed, for they receive the direct benefits. It is ours too, for the honor and work of Christ is committed to our hands.

The usual large congregations were in attendance at all the services and were appreciated by the Churchmen visiting the summer city.

The Annual Notices were sent out early in the fall to each Rector and Superintendent of Sunday School in the Archdeaconry, inquiring how many Red Mite boxes would be needed for the Advent season. Some 3300 boxes were asked for and ordered sent to the respective schools. The amount received this year from the schools exceeded one hundred dollars more than last year.

Ten Missions contributed to the Christmas Fund. A majority of the Missions have met their apportionments for General Missions.

Your Archdeacon desires to express his grateful thanks to the Bishop of the Diocese for his many kindnesses shown me, his fatherly advice and counsel given at any and all times.

To the Reverend Clergy for their interest manifested to me personally and the work of the Archdeaconry in giving some 43 services and preaching in the Missions during Lent.

To the Superintendents and members of the Missionary League who have conducted the services in many of the Missions during the year in the absence of the Archdeacon.

The personal report of your Archdeacon of all official acts for the past year, exclusive of the Chautauqua, were not performed in one town but spread over twenty-five or more places, which shows an extension work:

Report of the Archdeacon of Rochester

Rt. Rev. William D. Walker, Bishop of the Diocese, and Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

During the past year, the last in my fourth term of office, aside from the regular routine of services and celebrations, which have been maintained with the same degree of regularity and in like number as in other years, there has been some progress made in the revival of old work and the establishment of new. In our various mission points—24 in number—we have had the aid of ten ordained men and four lay readers. The mission at Victor, which for nearly fourteen years had been without services, has been revived, the building has been put in good repair, and on November 1st the Rev. Mr. Dowling of Pittsford took it under his care. While great results could hardly be expected, progress has nevertheless been made.

On the first of January the Rev. Mr. Leach took charge of the work in Holcomb, and regular services have been maintained since that time.

The Rev. Mr. McCoy has continued his acceptable ministrations at Charlotte and for a while also had charge of our mission in Fairport; but resigned the same, the work at Charlotte requiring more of his time.

The Rev. Dr. Hubbs of Hobart College resigned the oversight of the work in Yates County early in the year, since which time only occasional services have been held at Dundee and Himrods. At Dresden, our other mission in Yates County, regular services and Sunday School have been successfully maintained by a lay reader from Hobart College.

At Himrods, the smaller of the three Yates County missions, the prospects for growth are the most encouraging. This field ought to have a settled minister, but his support would require a generous stipend from the treasury of our Mission Board.

The Rev. Mr. Burrill, the new incumbent at Brockport, took charge of our work in Holley, and the mission is now in a flourishing condition.

At other places the work is cared for as it was one year ago.

Personally I have ministered to the following places: Dundee, Dresden, Himrods, Holcomb, Fairport, East Rochester, Hunts, Nunda, Wolcott, Sodus Point, and Shortsville; and once at Nine Mile Point, holding in all 137 services, with 62 celebrations of the Holy Communion. At Hunts, Dresden, Sodus Point and Shortsville, I have had the assistance of lay readers.

I have officiated at three marriages and nine funerals. Have baptized 23 and presented 18 for confirmation. The number attending the services has, in most of our missions, been greater than in previous years.

For a number of years two of our missions, owing to their isolated situations, have been practically extinct. I refer to the ancient parishes of Allen's Hill and Wayne.

Two others, owing to many contributing causes, have for a long time maintained a feeble existence. These places—Sodus Center and Union Hill—exemplify in an ecclesiastical sense, the truth of our Lord's saying, "The poor ye have always with you." Union Hill will, I believe, sometime come back, but at present nothing of an aggressive character can be hoped for. The church building in Sodus Center, the smallest in the Archdeaconry, has a seating capacity of seventy-five, the membership has faded away, removals by death and in other ways have depleted our number, leaving vacancies which there were none to fill. In so far as human foresight can discern, the Sodus Center mission is destined to occupy a place in the ranks of those whose warfare having been accomplished, now rest from their labors. Numerous efforts have been made to combine Sodus Center, Sodus Point and Sodus, otherwise known as "The Three Sodi," under one pastorate, but although various expedients have been tried, the harmonizing ingredient has yet to be found. Sodus is a parish and has its own rector and Sodus Point during the winter months has the services of a lay reader and an occasional celebration by your General Missionary. During the summer the clergy in residence at the "Clergy Rest House" take the services.

Our mission at Spencerport at the present time presents a critical situation, the property being encumbered with a debt of twelve hundred dollars, with no funds available to pay even the interest on the same. At one time a promising mission, through mismanagement and lack of proper leadership, the whole thing went to pieces. Our members have either died, moved away, or deserted, so that all that remains to us is the property, with, as has been stated, a debt of $1,200 and interest upon it. What to do with Spencerport is a problem. It has been the nightmare which has disturbed the rest of your Archdeacon for some time.

The problem of maintaining services in many of our smaller towns and rural communities is each year becoming more and more complicated, the chief difficulty being inability to secure competent men to minister to them, men who can enter into the life of the people and view things through their eyes, and gradually lead them out to larger views. The Church in this and in other dioceses is suffering through the lack of a brand of men such as our theological seminaries are failing to produce, i.e., "Apostles to the common people."

The most notable work of the past year has been that accomplished in the town of East Rochester, a rapidly growing suburb of the city of Rochester. Here we held our first service in a vacant store on the 7th of March a year ago, as noted in my report of last year, and on the fifth of May ground was broken for the erection of a church building. Our membership is drawn chiefly from among families whose financial support is derived from the shops and factories located in the town. They had little money to give towards the construction of a church, but gladly gave of their time and labor, and under my supervision the building was enclosed through volunteer labor.

Having been a practical builder and something of an architect before entering the ministry, I have never lost my grip upon my hammer and saw, and during twenty-seven years of missionary effort it has been my privilege to construct wholly or in large part with my own hands, twelve churches, one hospital and a rectory, and it was a great joy to me to be able to spend my vacation last summer constructing the church building in East Rochester. My work in this, as in other communities, has given me a strong hold upon the people which time seems only to strengthen. Our building operations progressed slowly; for we built only as money became available, it being our determination to avoid going into debt. By fall we began holding services in the basement of our new building and on April 23rd we moved upstairs into our completed church for our Easter services. Up to the present time the building has cost $2,900. The basement has a floor space of 55x30 feet, also a kitchen 12x30 feet, and two cloak rooms. The church proper has a seating capacity of 250. A choir has been trained, and a Sunday School organized. Eleven have been baptized and twelve confirmed. Our congregations number from 50 to 75, and on special occasions the building has been filled. The people go to church not from a sense of duty, but because their love and interest are centered there.

During the past year the expense of maintaining the work of the Archdeaconry has not been so great as in other years. We have paid out less for stipends because we did not have men for the vacant places.

The Advent offering of our Sunday Schools shows a slight decrease, not, however, I believe, because the Sunday Schools have failed to contribute as heretofore, but because some of the rectors and superintendents have neglected to send the offerings to our treasurer. Our treasurer's report shows that we are, nevertheless solvent; in fact we are flush with money; but if we were doing the work which we should be doing this condition would be reversed. If competent men are to be secured to man the field large stipends must be paid,—in fact the major part of their salaries. With the present field adequately provided for, your Archdeacon would be free to open up new places and construct new buildings, but in so far as any aggressive work is concerned the hands of your General Missionary are under present conditions tied. After having served twelve years in the mission field, the question as it appears to me is this: "Are diocesan missions worth while" If they are, then the work is entitled to our support first and foremost. If they are not, then we should do away with them, and give our money to the support of missions in other lands. Personally I believe that diocesan mission work is worth while, provided missions are established at strategic points in growing communities. And so I feel that we ought to take the matter of diocesan missions seriously to heart and see if we cannot provide both men and means for carrying it on as it should be carried on.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. DAVIS,
Archdeacon of Rochester.
